Statistics and research show now more than ever, young girls are lacking the confidence and self-esteem to pursue their dreams and be the best version of themselves. The social and emotional challenges they face are causing negative impacts to their self-esteem and self-worth. While Girls With Confidence is actively working with girls all across the area, we need your help to make our efforts go even further.

We would love to have you become a business sponsor and partner with us to scholarship girls through our programs and to conduct special projects for schools and organizations throughout our markets across the United States.
