

Important Information about Boyette Sports 2024

General information:

Boyette Sports provides a fun and exciting alternative to the competitive youth programs of today for children
There are six different age groups: 4, 5, 6, 7-8, 9-10, 11-12
Soccer balls are provided for the practice time so you do not need to bring your own soccer ball.
Shin guards and sneakers are required. No metal cleats shoes allowed.
Coach will call prior to the first Saturday with the goal number to meet the coach. (See map for goal numbers)

Shirt, shorts and socks:

All uniforms will be available on the first day of soccer, February 10th. (4yr old do not receive socks)

Age limits:

Children must be 4 by January 20th to register
Children must not be older than 12 on January 20th

Saturday Schedule:

9:00 AM - Team Practice
9:40 AM - Coach's talks
10:00 AM - Game
11:00 Am – Picnic lunch (donations accepted)

Coach's Talk:

The coach's talk is conducted prior to the game when three separate age groups (4-6, 7-10, 11-12) of players and coaches gather together. The groups will discuss how we can know, understand and relate to God.

Church parking:

Be prepared to walk to the fields from multiple parking areas as noted on the Field layout around the church building. Most of the parking is paved or grass around the church building. However, when rain occurs during the week or on Saturday be prepared for muddy shoes to the fields

Handicap/Stroller/Elderly parking:

Limited parking is available next to the fields this is reserved for handicap/elderly and strollers. Driveway to the fields is dirt and/or grass, so drive slowly and stay on the path
