Traveling to

INTERNATIONALS

1. Check the schedule

- * The schedule listed on the website is tentative but can be used to give a very good idea of what to expect. Our schedules very rarely change drastically. Be sure to arrive on time for contestant registrations.

2. Airports in the area

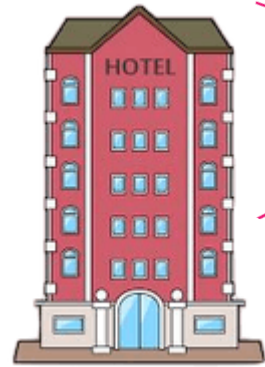

- * McGhee-Tyson Airport
2055 Alcoa Hwy, Alcoa, TN 37701

3. Book flights early

- * The earlier you book, the better chance you have to find cheaper flights

4. Extend your vacation

- * Stay late or come early. Enjoy the discounted PURE rate a couple days before and after the PURE event.

Travel Tips

- * Make sure to tag your bags correctly with name and address.
- * Remember to check your airport to see what time you should arrive before your departure time.
- * Check your bag weights and what you pack. Make sure you are aware of what the airport will and will not let you pack in your luggage.

Required Competitions

Interview

- ◆ Contestants compete in round-robin style, standing in front of each judge for two minutes.
- ◆ Interviews are never political. Contestants will be asked about family/friends, work/school, community service, and about their reign with PURE.
- ◆ Contestants should wear a business appropriate dress, skirt, suit, or jumpsuit.
- ◆ Contestants will perform their Impact Statement during interview.

Formal Wear

- ◆ Gowns must be floor length
- ◆ No plunging necklines or high slits. Contestants in an age division younger than Teen should not have a slit.
- ◆ No side cutouts or open midriiffs
- ◆ Open backs are fine but should not be excessively low

Required Competitions

National Costume

- ◆ Contestants must wear a costume that represents her country.
- ◆ She will be given the opportunity to "name" her costume on her Emcee Form that is given closer to the international date.
- ◆ Side cut outs, midriffs, super low necklines and back cut outs, and high slits are not permitted.
- ◆ Contestants should not use confetti, streamers, animals, or anything else that can cause a mess onstage or additional persons as part of their costume .
- ◆ Costumes must be fully attached to each contestant. Props cannot be set onstage.

Impact Statement

Contestants must prepare a sentence or two to speak during interview. The judge will prompt the contestant to say it. These should be short and include the contestant's name. Each contestant will include one of the following phrases in her statement: "That's how I make an impact;" "That's how I impact others;" or "Making an impact to change the world." Examples:

"Making blankets to give to the homeless to make sure that no one is cold in the winter. I am Amber Miller and that's how I make an impact."

"I'm Amber Miller and my goal is that no one goes hungry! Donating food to my local food pantry, that's how I impact others!"

"Making an impact to change the world by helping young children learn to read, I am Amber Miller."
