

HalfX ENTERTAINMENT

Brought to you by Kristin Staver & Alea Lindsey

The mission of HalfX Entertainment is to develop flexibility, coordination, and performance skills in participants while providing a positive, fun-filled, exercise-based activity.

- The six-session winter clinic concludes with the participants performing at a halftime of two varsity basketball games.
- The winter clinic focuses on flexibility and coordination with a hip-hop style of dance combinations. Each group learns a dance routine that will showcase its progress.
(Don't miss the fall session during football season which focuses on pom dance style of dance combinations).
- Classes start on Sunday, January 11TH, 2026!!!

ATTIRE & APPEARANCE

ENTERTAINMENT

Participation Waiver

I hereby grant permission for my child to participate in the HalfX Entertainment Clinic. I certify that he/she has had a recent medical examination and is physically fit to participate in this program. I understand that Half-time Entertainment does not carry medical insurance for its participants. It is required that all participants be covered by their own family's insurance policies. If injury occurs, it is understood that the student's own insurance policy is the only source of reimbursement. Signature on this agreement by the parents or legal guardian of the child waives any and all liability of Half-time Entertainment and the property owners. As parent or legal guardian I hereby release directors, as well as the property owners from any liability for damage to or loss of person property or sickness/injury which might occur while participating in the event.

Photography & Video Waiver

By participating in this clinic you understand that HalfX Entertainment may take photographs and/or videos of the participants and activities. You agree that we may use such photographs and videos relating to the promotion and/or advertisement of future clinics. You relinquish all rights that you may claim in relation to the use of said photographs and videos.
