Message From The National President

Kathy Mize

With 2020 behind us, we look forward to 2021 with great excitement, hope, and eagerness to inspire our communities to become better places to live. A year full of challenges with the pandemic of Covid-19, and systematic racism, and unrest have tested us as a nation and as a community; these challenges will continue into 2021, and beyond. Because of these challenges, and ultimately opportunities, we are stronger and more resilient. More than ever, we need to be committed to do our part to strengthen our communities, honor our military and first responders, provide youth with scholarships, and prevent child abuse throughout this country.

As we embark on this new year, we remain focused on Exchange's Mission and Core Values – Family, Community, County – to serve our community, inspire hope and healing, and grow Exchange. We must set our sights on creating our new normal and NOT waiting until this crisis is over! Our country needs Exchange NOW more than ever in every community. Give the gift of Exchange to others, explore communities near you that do not have an Exchange Club and recommit to the "WHY" you joined Exchange to reignite your own passion.

It is an honor to serve you and serve with each of you as your National President. I am hopeful and excited about the future of Exchange and what 2021 will bring. Join me and together WE will grow Exchange and impact our communities, and this country, in a time where America needs the gift of Exchange!

The Noon Exchange Club of Copperas Cove, Tx

The Noon Exchange Club of Copperas Cove is pleased to have been a member of the National Exchange Club for twenty-five years. Exchange, America's Premier Service Club, continues the work of making our community a better place to live.

Our members are volunteers who have the spirit and desire to share with others. We are young and old, some with families and some single, some with jobs and some are retired.

But, one thing we have in common: we all want to make our community a great place to live and raise a family.

Seventeen Copperas Cove High School students were inducted into the new Excel Club of Copperas Cove during an installation ceremony at its first official meeting on March 7.

Mike Blount, past president of the Noon Exchange Club, began the meeting by introducing Earnest Remedies, the district volunteer field representative. Remedies read a welcome letter signed by members of the national foundation.

"The club was first organized in Detroit Michigan by business leaders who came together to exchange ideas and work to make communities better," Remedies said about the club's history. "The benefits of joining are to develop leadership skills, to enjoy new friendships and to help build a better America."

The Excel Club's role and responsibility involves members attending meetings, sharing talents and helping others in their school and community, Remedies said.

The charter members were pinned by Blount and Barbara Considine, a faculty advisor. Dennis Ayres, president of the Noon Exchange Club and Excel Club builder, said the club's goals mirrors the National Exchange Club goals of promoting patriotism, creating awareness for the prevention of child abuse, and volunteerism.

Locally, the Excel Club will work with its sponsor, the Noon Exchange Club, to complete various projects including the city's Feast of Sharing, the Quad City Ride for a Child fundraiser and the Noon Exchange Club's Volksmarch for Awareness and Prevention of Child Abuse.

They will also participate in cleanup projects at the Exchange Sunshine Home during Make a Difference Day.

The club also will develop their own fundraising events as determined through meetings and decisions made by its board of directors.

The CCHS Excel Club banner, bell and gavel will be given to the student club during the charter banquet in April, when the Exchange Club charter awards will be presented.

Club officers also will be inducted during the banquet and bylaws will be approved at a later date.

The charter members of the Excel Club are Elijah Santos, Lily Drever, Emily Drever, Chevonne Charmont, Niomi Charmont, Chris Hastings, Selena Romero, Destiny Frank, Jeremiah Rest, Carlee Duran, Amanda Arrisola, Kamryn Mayberry, Nathan Posey, Mackensi Holt, Anthony May, Isaac Griffin, and Makara Stofferahn.
