

Hullett Marsh Geocache Hunt

Follow the coordinates and clues to find a small geocache at each location. They are all different colours and some are more challenging to find than others. You will need to bring a pencil with you to sign the logs. Please be considerate of all users and make sure geocaches are closed tightly and hidden once again after you find them.

Whistler Pool Cut

43°37'22"N
81°27'12"W

Geocache Colour:
Silver

A large metal fence, use your common sense. Take a look at the back, near the large crack.

Bluewing Pool

43°36'37"N
81°26'51"W

Geocache Colour:
Green

Another link in the chain, we don't need to explain. When walking by, you'll see it with your eye.

Bluebird Boxes

43°37'20"N
81°25'59"W

Geocache Colour:
Blue

Boxes for birds, there aren't many words. Bring into view box 602.

Satellite Pond 5

43°37'40"N
81°29'35"W

Geocache Colour:
Gold

Another long hike, it might have been easier to bike. This isn't a fake, think about the intake.

MOTUS

43°38'56"N
81°28'10"W

Geocache Colour:
Purple

On top of a large hill, this one won't take much skill. You made it to the top, a perfect place to stop.

Main Viewing Stand

43°38'37"N
81°27'23"W

Geocache Colour:
Black

Up the stairs you go, just so you know. You may like sailing, but look near the railing.

Conservation Bridge

43°37'58"N
81°28'36"W

Geocache Colour:
Blue

Take a walk on the bridge, this one won't make you cringe. Looking for a host? Find the post.

Sanctuary Bridge

43°36'50"N
81°27'40"W

Geocache Colour:
Silver

The river may make you shiver, but in this case look near the base.
