

Second Weekend of Christmas

Sunday, January 4, 2026 9:00am

Within the gospel reading's profound words lies the simple message that God is revealed in a human person. Though we may try to understand how the Word existed with God from the beginning of time, the wonder we celebrate at Christmas is that the Word continues to dwell among us. Christ comes among us in the gathered assembly, the scriptures, the waters of new birth, and the bread and the wine. Through these ordinary gifts we receive the fullness of God's grace and truth.

Confession and Assurance of Forgiveness

Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God,
Wonderful Counselor,
Mighty Savior,
Prince of Peace. Amen.

Trusting in God's steadfast love and faithfulness, let us confess our sin.
Reconciling God, we yearn for your presence to transform our grief, pain, and despair. We confess that we have not always prepared room in our hearts for your love; we have not always recognized your presence among us; we have not always embraced your message of peace.

We cry out, weary with the burden of violence, oppression, and fear. We confess our failure to make room for those seeking refuge; our participation in violent systems that harm your innocent ones; our reluctance to embody your good news.

Be born in us today and teach us to sing the joyful song of your salvation. Amen.

God's grace upon grace flows over you.

Christ's presence redeems the whole creation.

Your sins are forgiven. Let the earth rejoice and be glad! Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you have filled all the earth with the light of your incarnate Word. By your grace empower us to reflect your light in all that we do, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Scripture Jeremiah 31:7-14

<sup>7</sup>For thus says the Lord:

Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,
"Save, O Lord, your people,
the remnant of Israel."

<sup>8</sup>See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth,
among them the blind and the lame,

those with child and those in labor together;
a great company, they shall return here.
<sup>9</sup> With weeping they shall come,
and with consolations I will lead them back;
I will let them walk by brooks of water,
in a straight path where they shall not stumble,
for I have become a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my firstborn.
<sup>10</sup> Hear the word of the Lord, O nations,
and declare it in the coastlands far away;
say, "He who scattered Israel will gather him
and will keep him as a shepherd does a flock."
<sup>11</sup> For the Lord has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.
<sup>12</sup> They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion,
and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the Lord,
over the grain, the wine, and the oil,
and over the young of the flock and the herd;
their life shall become like a watered garden,
and they shall never languish again.
<sup>13</sup> Then shall the young women rejoice in the dance,
and the young men and the old shall be merry.
I will turn their mourning into joy;
I will comfort them and give them gladness for sorrow.
<sup>14</sup> I will give the priests their fill of fatness,
and my people shall be satisfied with my bounty,
Word of God. Word of Life. Thanks be to God.

Psalms 147:12-20

12 Extol the Lord, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!
13 For he strengthens the bars of your gates;
he blesses your children within you.
14 He grants peace within your borders;
he fills you with the finest of wheat.
15 He sends out his command to the earth;
his word runs swiftly.
16 He gives snow like wool;
he scatters frost like ashes.
17 He hurls down hail like crumbs—
who can stand before his cold?

18 He sends out his word and melts them;
he makes his wind blow, and the waters flow.

19 He declares his word to Jacob,
his statutes and ordinances to Israel.

20 He has not dealt thus with any other nation;
they do not know his ordinances.

Praise the Lord!

Here ends the reading of the Psalm.

Ephesians 1:3-14

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, 4 just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. 5 He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, 6 to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. 7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace 8 that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight 9 he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, 10 as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. 11 In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, 12 so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. 13 In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; 14 this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.
Word of God. Word of Life. Thanks be to God.

Children's Message

Song Love Has Come ELW 292

Gospel John 1:1-18

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being 4 in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it.

6 There was a man sent from God whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. 8 He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. 9 The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world came into being through him, yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. 12 But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, 13 who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God. 14 And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. 15 (John testified to him and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' ") 16 From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. 17 The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God. It is the only Son, himself God, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known. The Gospel of our Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Christmas Creed

I believe in Jesus Christ and in the beauty of the gospel begun in Bethlehem.

I believe in the one whose spirit glorified a little town; and whose spirit still brings music to persons all over the world, in towns both large and small.

I believe in the one for whom the crowded inn could find no room, and I confess that my heart still sometimes wants to exclude Christ from my life today.

I believe in the one whom the rulers of the earth ignored and the proud could never understand; whose life was among common people, whose welcome came from persons of hungry hearts.

I believe in the one who proclaimed the love of God to be invincible: I believe in the one whose cradle was a mother's arms,

whose modest home in Nazareth had love for its only wealth, who looked at persons and made them see what God's love saw in them, who by love brought sinners back to purity, and lifted human weakness up to meet the strength of God.

I confess my ever-lasting need of God:
The need of forgiveness for our selfishness and greed,
the need of new life for empty souls, the need of love for hearts grown cold.

I believe in God who gives us the best.
I believe in Jesus, the son of the living
God, born in Bethlehem this night, for me and for the world.
I believe in the Holy Spirit who mysteriously leads us to transformation and a new life.

ANONYMOUS INSPIRATIONAL NOTE FROM A CALVARY MEMBER

May we all start 2026 with a fresh slate and live life as GOD would like us to live

Dear siblings in Christ at Calvary-

After careful consideration, your Church Council has decided to withdraw the proposed Bylaw change and vote from the January 25 Annual Meeting agenda.

The proposed change was recommended by interim Pastor Rick Hoyme. He suggested that the bylaw, as currently written, is a process that he has not seen churches use for several years. Most churches have amended their bylaws to take the onus off the pastor of the church to make individual visits to people who have not been active in the life of on congregations for multiple years. Interim Pastor (former Bishop) Hoyme wrote the amended version of this bylaw prior to his departure. Church council moved forward with placing this on the agenda for the annual meeting, but we realize now that more discussion within the congregation is necessary prior to holding such a vote.

We apologize for any confusion or frustration that this has caused. We thank Paula and Marie in the church office for doing their best to alleviate people's worries. We appreciate those congregation members who have asked questions and brought concerns in a loving and constructive manner.

In His humble service.
