

Tom Lysiak Sherwood game used hockey stick.

Tom Lysiak was the #1 draft pick for the Atlanta Flames in the 1973 NHL draft. He played five full seasons for Atlanta and was traded to Chicago during the 1978-79 season. While I had hopes that this stick was from his time in Atlanta, the evidence clearly points to his days with the Blackhawks by the 4NOV1982 date on the stick and the photo here taken during the 1983 playoffs. The Feather-Lite logo is on the wrong side but it is clearly not a stick from his playing days in Atlanta. Lysiak ended his NHL career with Chicago and remained the all-time leading point getter for the Flames.
