

Macon Trax Jeff Antonovich 2003-04 game worn jersey, size XXL.

Coleraine, Minnesota native Jeff Antonovich had a fourteen year minor pro hockey career before retiring at the end of the 2005-06 season. His dad Mike played in the NHL and WHA for 11 seasons. Jeff played 38 games for the Macon Whoopee during the '99-00 season and 28 games for the Trax, scoring 11 goals and registering 14 assists. This Athletic Knit white jersey has an embroidered primary team logo sewn on the front and the shoulders have a pair of embroidered secondary logos. The numbers and Antonovich's alternate captain A are sewn three color twill. The sewn fabric nameplate has single color twill letters. Other features include embroidered AK and WHA2 logo patches sewn on the back hem. There are stick marks and paint but it is missing the ASP webhosting sponsor patch on the back. Antonovich left mid-season so the patch may have been removed and added to an incoming player's jersey. I acquired the jersey from another collector.
