

Gwinnett Gladiators Ryan Donald 2012-13 game worn jersey, size 58.

This maroon SP FloKnit jersey was created to commemorate the Gladiator's tenth season and is the first lace-up Gwinnett jersey. The front side has sewn twill letters spelling GWINNETT in the same style of font that has been a characteristic of the Gladiator jerseys. Due to the placement of the letters, the embroidered Kroger sponsor patch was moved from its usual upper right chest position to the left side, just below the embroidered SP logo and close enough to the neckline to allow room for Donald's alternate captain's A, also in white twill. The right sleeve sports the sewn on embroidered ECHL 25th anniversary patch, and the left sleeve bears the team's embroidered 10th anniversary patch. Sewn on the shoulders is a pair of embroidered Gladiator sword and shield patches. The numbers and letters are also sewn white twill, with the sewn on nameplate consisting of cloth matching the jersey. On the back hem is the Meigray embroidered patch, the SP logo embroidered directly to the jersey and the sewn on ECHL embroidered patch. The jersey was purchased from Meigray.

