

Macon Mayhem Nicholas Kuqali 2015-16 game worn skates, size 10D.

After a four-year college career at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Kuqali started his pro career in 2010-11 with the New York Aviators in the Federal Hockey League. Following his professional debut, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native saw ice time with Mississippi, Louisiana and Huntsville in the SPHL and Orlando, South Carolina and Wheeling in the ECHL. The Mayhem acquired Kuqali in February from Louisiana, where he had been on loan to Fort Wayne, Evansville and Adirondack of the ECHL. After coming to Macon, he was loaned to Manchester and Greenville before being added to the Macon Mayhem playoff roster, playing in all three playoff games. This pair of Bauer Supreme One.8 skates show a ton of wear from two-plus seasons, including repairs to the left Achilles guard. These skates were retired following Kuqali's last appearance for Macon in the 2016 playoffs. I acquired these skates directly from the player.

