

Columbus Cottonmouths Roman Marakhovski 1998-99 game worn jersey, size 56.

Ukraine native Roman Marakhovski played in over 475 professional games across the US and Europe, including with three teams in Georgia: the Columbus Cottonmouths, Augusta Lynx and the Gwinnett Gladiators. In 2013, Marakhovski joined the coaching staff of the Gwinnett Gladiators. This white CCM jersey customized by Custom Crafted is from the Snakes' third season in the CHL. It has the Cottonmouths logo screened onto white twill that has been sewn on the front and a screened SONIC sponsor logo sewn to the upper right chest area. On the upper left chest, the embroidered initials CBM are a tribute to team owner Charlie Morrow who died of cancer in the spring of 1998. The sides and sleeves have unique twin snake logos. The three color back and sleeve numbers are a combination of screened twill and are sewn on. The matching fabric nameplate has sewn on single color letters. On the rear hem is the CCM logo, embroidered directly to the jersey, screened on Custom Crafted logo and a sewn on screened CHL logo patch. It has a great combination stick marks, board burns and tears, heavily concentrated on the sleeves. It bears the player autograph and fan message near the neckline. It was purchased from an eBay auction.
