So who exactly are these “prophets” Jesus is talking about?

In the early Church, it was common for men and women to be commissioned by the Church as traveling prophets. Their calling was to visit other churches and speak God’s word to them, just as Jesus sent out his disciples in today’s Gospel. They were called prophets because they were recognized as being able to speak God’s words under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. It was considered an honor to welcome such a person into your home and care for him while he ministered to your church—as the woman in today’s first reading cared for the Old Testament prophet Elisha.

As time went on, however, false prophets began to set themselves up in opposition to the local church leaders. Their presence and their messages caused division and confusion. Because it was fraught with controversy, the practice faded, and the official role of prophet fell to local bishops instead.

But that doesn’t mean that ordinary prophets disappeared from the Church. In fact, they’re all around us today. You may even be one! That’s because a prophet is nothing more—and nothing less—than someone through whom the Holy Spirit speaks.

That means that your spouse might be speaking prophetically when he or she encourages you to keep up with your prayer time. Or a child coming to you in the middle of the night might be bearing a prophetic message: Time to deny yourself, take up your cross, and care for this little one. And you may be a prophet when you tell a coworker about God’s work in your life.

God is always speaking to us. He’s always trying to get our attention. He’s always asking us to welcome his messengers into our lives. Even the ones we least expect.

“Holy Spirit, help me to hear you speaking through the people you will place in my path today.”

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

The following are precautions and changes necessary to resume Mass.

Seat reservation: There is a limited amount of seating available because of social distancing requirements. Please reserve your seat on our web page at calhouncatholic.org and click on “Sign Up for Weekend Mass.” Click on select date. Select date and Mass time, then click Register. Select “1” in the drop-down box, then click Register. Fill in contact information and select type of Attendee in drop-down box, then click Register. I recommend that you alternate weekend attendance to allow other parishioners the opportunity to attend.

- Ushers will seat you. You are to enter the church from the main entrance only (rear of the church). Tell the usher your name and the number in your household, and they will seat you. People who live in the same household may sit together.
- Face masks: Face masks are to be worn by all adults and children over the age of two years old. You are asked to provide your own face mask. If you do not have a face mask, one will be given to you prior to entering the church.
- Distribution of Holy Communion: Communion will be distributed only in one form—the Host.
- Communion will be distributed after the conclusion of Mass—after the concluding blessing and dismissal.
- For each minister distributing communion, parishioners receiving communion will form a single line that incorporates the six-foot social distancing with the help of the ushers.
- As you approach to receive communion, you should form your hands into a throne to receive the Eucharist. Then step at least six feet away, pull down your mask with one hand while inserting the host into your mouth with the other hand.
- Upon receiving the host, immediately make your way toward the nearest exit of the church. Although you are not able to remain in the church after receiving communion, you are highly encouraged to say prayers of thanksgiving in your vehicle.
