Any parent will tell you what it's like to be heard but not understood: "In one ear and out the other" or "it's like talking to a brick wall." This is how it feels when they can't seem to connect with their children. Jesus had a similar experience. Despite all his time teaching and performing miracles, he had little to show for it. Of course, Mary Madelene and Peter had left everything to follow him. They were trying to listen closely and put his teachings into practice. They had heard him talk about his Father's mercy, but many didn't seem to hear his words about loving their enemies. It involves making sure that our hearts are like the good soil in today's parable—listening intently and prayerfully to his words so that they can change our hearts. Try to do this today. Carve out fifteen minutes and focus on hearing Jesus speak to you. Find a quiet spot, choose one of the readings from today's Mass, and read it. Really read it. Ask the Holy Spirit to be with you and help you understand what God is saying. When a word or phrase leaps out at you, let it sink into your heart like seed in good soil. Ask Jesus what he wants you to do about it. Then do it. Let his word bear fruit in your life.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

- Ushers will seat you. You are to enter the church from the main entrance only (rear of the church). Tell usher your name and number in your household, and they will seat you. People who live in the same household may sit together.
- Face masks: Face masks are to be worn by all adults and children over the age of two years old. You are asked to provide your own face mask. If you do not have a face mask, one will be given to you prior to entering the church.
- Distribution of Holy Communion: Communion will be distributed only in one form—the Host.
- Communion will be distributed after the conclusion of Mass—after the concluding blessing and dismissal.
- Form a single line that incorporates the six-foot social distancing with the help of the ushers.
- As you approach to receive communion, you should form your hands into a throne to receive the Eucharist. Then step at least six feet away, pull down your mask with one hand while inserting the host into your mouth with the other hand.
- Upon receiving the host, immediately make your way toward the nearest exit of the church. Although you are not able to remain in church after receiving communion, you are highly encouraged to say prayers of thanksgiving in your vehicle.
