Second Sunday of Easter—Sunday of Divine Mercy

This Sunday, we continue to rejoice for the Lord's victory over sin, evil, and death through His Resurrection, showing us hope and the way out from the tyranny of sin and evil. We are reminded that our faith in the Lord must be firm and strong, even among the mysteries of His Resurrection.
Let us renew our faith in the Lord's Resurrection, in His great love and compassion, that He, as the Divine Mercy, forgives us when we come back to Him with sorrow for the sins we have committed. We must embody this faith and belief in our own actions, words, and deeds in our lives.

Praying from Within—A Mini Retreat on Prayer will be held Sat., April 27, at St. Thomas Parish Hall in Manson from 9 am to 12 noon. This retreat is open to all, is hosted by lay men & women, and guided by Fr. Brian Feller. The retreat will be preceded by light breakfast and followed by lunch.
Register by emailing Fr. Feller at CatholicPassage@gmail.com or by calling the parish office, 712-464-3395.
