

One Sacrifice for Sins Forever:

All ancient cultures practiced some type of sacrifice to their gods; whether the god was an idol, a creature, a person, or the natural world itself. Sacrifices were made in the hope of bringing good fortune such as abundant crops or fertility, for appeasement in the attempt to avoid the wrath of their god or gods, or to express thanksgiving for their god's supposed beneficence. Blood sacrifices in which animals, and often other humans, even children, were sacrificed to the gods, was widely practiced.

Ancient Hebrews had a very specific set of rules for their sacrifices. There were three voluntary sacrifices: 1) the burnt offering, which was an act of worship to express devotion and commitment to God; 2) the grain offering was made to express thanksgiving, acknowledging God's provision; and 3) the peace offering, which was the sacrifice of an unblemished animal. This sacrifice was made for thanksgiving and fellowship followed by a shared meal. Two mandatory sacrifices were also established: 1) the sin offering for the atonement of sin, and to cleanse from defilement. Either a young bull, a goat, a dove, or 1/10 ephah of fine flour were offered, depending upon the status and wealth of the giver; 2) the trespass offering in which the sacrifice was a ram. This sacrifice was made for atonement of unintentional sins, as well as for cleansing from defilement.

Scripture makes it clear that a blood sacrifice is necessary for the atonement for sins. In the OT it is written: For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. Leviticus 17:11. The writer of Hebrews, in the NT makes the same claim: And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. Hebrews 9:22.

But the Bible also informs us that God has no need for the sacrifices which are made to him. Several passages of Scripture from the OT state this truth: For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. Hosea 6:6. To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice. Proverbs 21:3. To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. Isaiah 1:11.

Similarly, in the NT, it is reinforced that God desires our submission to his will, and not sacrifices: But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Matthew 9:13. And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. Mark 12:33. For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. For then would they not have ceased to be offered? Because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins. But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God. Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; Hebrews 10:1-8.

The Mosaic Law in regard to sacrifices was established, not because the blood of animals could ever provide atonement for sins, but to bring the people into communion with God, and to establish a pattern concerning the shedding of blood for atonement, so that God's ultimate plan for the salvation of mankind would be understood in the death upon the cross of the perfect sacrifice, Jesus Christ, the Son of God. The sacrifices which were performed according to the Law were a foreshadowing of the one sacrifice that provided atonement for sins forever.

That which is written in the Bible concerning the one sacrifice for sins forever is shown to be true by gematria. Gematria involves using the numerical value of words to discover associations between words, phrases, or sentences, of equal numerical value; a practice used from ancient times by Jewish scholars. The numerical value of words is easily determined for Hebrew as well as Greek, the languages of the OT and NT, because each of these written languages uses a letter to signify a number.

A variety of methods using the numerical value of words to find hidden truth in the words of Scripture have been used. The method which I have employed is unique in that the gematria value of a sentence is determined by calculating the total numerical value of each Hebrew root word, and not the proper grammatical spelling of the word, that is used in a sentence of scriptural truth. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words (sometimes other Hebrew root words as well) from the Bible which have the same value. In the gematria evidence to be presented in this paper, each Hebrew root word in a sentence will be identified by its reference number according to Strong's Concordance. Each Greek word associated with the sentence will be identified in like manner.

Jesus offered himself as the one sacrifice for sins forever: But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God... For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Hebrews 10:12,14. In Scripture, "this man" can be written in three ways: using only the word for "man," only the word for "this," or using both words. These alternatives are used in the gematria evidence to follow.

The Messiah, which means "the anointed one," and is also the meaning of the word "Christ," is the one who offered one sacrifice for sins forever.

This man (H376) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice. (H2077)

אִישׁ זָבַח אֶחָד זָבַח

17 + 13 + 17 + 311 = 358

But (H3588) this (H2088) man offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever, (H5769) and then (H227) sat down (H3427) on the right hand (H3225) of God. (H430)

כִּי זֶה זֶבַח אֶחָד זֶבַח עַל חַטָּאָה עוֹלָם

$$146 + 23 + 100 + 17 + 13 + 17 + 12 + 30 = 358$$

CHRIST (THE MESSIAH) (H4899) = מְשִׁיחַ = 358

The Messiah, known as the Christ, is Jesus. (The reader will note that in the next sentence, as written above, the Hebrew root word which means “for” is used, whereas in the second sentence this word is not used. In Scripture it is found that the Hebrew word meaning “for” may or may not be used.)

But (H3588) this (H2088) man, Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever, (H5769)

כִּי זֶה יֵשׁוּעַ זֶבַח אֶחָד זֶבַח עַל חַטָּאָה עוֹלָם

$$146 + 23 + 100 + 17 + 13 + 17 + 386 + 12 + 30 = 744$$

This (H2088) man offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for sins (H2403) forever, (H5769) and then (H227) sat down (H3427) on the right hand (H3225) of God. (H430)

זֶה זֶבַח אֶחָד זֶבַח חַטָּאָה עוֹלָם אִז יֵשֵׁב יְמִין אֱלֹהִים

$$86 + 110 + 312 + 8 + 146 + 23 + 17 + 13 + 17 + 12 = 744$$

The numerical value of the prior two sentences is the same as that for the Hebrew root words for “Yeshua the Messiah,” Jesus Christ.

JESUS (YESHUA) (H3442) CHRIST (THE MESSIAH) (H4899) = יֵשׁוּעַ מְשִׁיחַ = 358 + 386 = 744

The numerical value of the next sentence of scriptural truth is that for the Greek spelling of “Jesus.”

But (H3588) this (H2088) man offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever, (H5769) and then (H227) sat down (H3427) on the right (H3225) hand (H3027) of God. (H430)

כִּי זֶה זֶבַח אֶחָד זֶבַח עַל חַטָּאָה עוֹלָם זֶה יֵשֵׁב יְמִין יַד אֱלֹהִים

$$86 + 14 + 110 + 312 + 8 + 146 + 23 + 100 + 17 + 13 + 17 + 12 + 30 = 888$$

This man, Jesus Christ, called the Son of man, offered one sacrifice.

The Son (H1121) of man, (H120) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice. (H2077)

בן אדם ישוע משיח זבח אחד זבח

$$17 + 13 + 17 + 358 + 386 + 45 + 52 = 888$$

Jesus, who offered one sacrifice for sins forever, is the Son of man, and also the only begotten Son of God.

Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever. (H5769)

משיח יחיד ילד בן אלהים זבח אחד זבח על חטאה עולם

$$146 + 23 + 100 + 17 + 13 + 17 + 86 + 52 + 44 + 32 + 358 = 888$$

Jesus offered one sacrifice for the sins of the whole world: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1John 2:2.

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for the sins (H2403) of the world. (H8398)

ישוע זבח אחד זבח חטאה תבל

$$432 + 23 + 17 + 13 + 17 + 386 = 888$$

JESUS (G2424) = Ἰησοῦς = 888

The exaltation of Jesus to sit on the right hand of God was prophesied in the OT book of Psalms: The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. Psalms 110:1. The understanding that this prophecy is related to Jesus is explained in the NT book of Acts: Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thy foes thy footstool. Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Acts 2:33-36. After Jesus, through his crucifixion, offered one offering for the sins of the world forever, he sat down on the right hand of God.

But (H3588) this (H2088) man, (H376) Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) the only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) after (H310) he offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for the sins (H2403) of the whole (H3605) world (H8398) forever, (H5769) sat down (H3427) on the right hand (H3225) of God. (H430)

JESUS (G2424) CHRIST (G5547) = Ἰησοῦς Χριστός = 888 + 1480 = 2368

The one offering for sins by the Lord Jesus has perfected forever them that are sanctified, which are those who are set apart as holy.

The Son (H1121) of God (H430) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) the sins (H2403) forever. (H5769) His offering (H4503) has perfected (H3634) forever (H5769) them that (H834) are sanctified. (H6942)

מנחה ישוע משיח כלל עולם אשר קדש

404 + 501 + 146 + 80 + 358 + 386 + 103 = 1688

LORD (G2962) JESUS (G2424) = Κύριος Ἰησοῦς = 800 + 888 = 1688

The one offering of Jesus was his own life.

Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) the Son (H1121) of man, (H120) and only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) offered (H2076) his own life (H2416) as the one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever. (H5769) By (H4480) one (H259) offering (H4503) he has perfected (H3634) forever (H5769) them that (H834) are sanctified. (H6942)

JESUS (G2424) CHRIST (G5547) = Ἰησοῦς Χριστός = 888 + 1480 = 2368

The next four examples of gematria correlation have the numerical value for “Lord Jesus Christ” in Greek. Each sentence states what is written in the Bible in slightly different ways.

But (H3588) this (H2088) man, whose name (H8034) is Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) after (H310) he offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever, (H5769) and sat down (H3427) on the right hand (H3225) of God. (H430) For (H3588) by (H4480) one (H259) offering (H4503) he perfected (H3634) forever (H5769) them that (H834) are sanctified. (H6942)

In each of the next three sentences a different Hebrew root word from the one found in the gematria evidence above is used for “perfected.”

This (H2088) man, (H376) Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever, (H5769) and then (H227) sat down (H3427) on the right hand (H3225) of God. (H430) By (H4480) one (H259) offering (H4503) he perfected (H8003) forever (H5769) them that (H834) are sanctified. (H6942)

386 + 311 + 12 = 3168

After (H311) Christ (the Messiah) (H3442) the LORD, (H3068) the only (H3173) Son, (H1121) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever, (H5769) he sat down (H3427) on the right hand (H3225) of God. (H430) For (H3588) by (H5921) one (H259) offering (H4503) he perfected (H8003) forever (H5769) them that (H834) are sanctified. (H6942)

This man, (H376) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever, (H5769) and then (H227) sat down (H3427) on the right hand (H3225) of God. (H430) For (H3588) by (H5921) one (H259) offering (H4503) he has perfected (H8003) forever (H5769) them that (H834) are sanctified. (H6942)

1480 = 3168

The one offering of Jesus Christ for our sins was his own death by crucifixion, which is confirmed by the following three gematria word associations.

This man, (H376) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for sins (H2403) forever. (H5769)

The one offering for sins of Jesus Christ has perfected forever them that are sanctified; that is, them that are set apart as holy. The sanctified are those who believe in Jesus and call upon his name, Christians.

By (H4480) one (H259) offering (sacrifice) (H2077) he has perfected (H8003) forever (H5769) them that (H834) are sanctified. (H6942)

The one offering of Jesus Christ for sins forever has perfected them that are sanctified, and this is confirmed by the next three gematria associations using two different numerical values.

This (H2088) man, (H376) Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever. (H5769) His one (H259) offering (H4503) perfected (H8003) forever (H5769) them that (H834) are sanctified. (H6942)

Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the Son (H1121) of man, (H120) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) the sins (H2403) of the world (H8398) forever, (H5769) and then (H227) sat down (H3427) on the right hand (H3225) of God. In his first letter to Timothy, the Apostle Paul wrote that through his one offering as a ransom for our sins, Jesus is the one mediator between God and men. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. 1Timothy 2:5-6. Gematria confirms that this man, Jesus, who offered one sacrifice for sins forever is the one mediator between God and men which Paul proclaimed.

This (H2088) man, (H376) Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) offered (H2076) one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for (H5921) sins (H2403) forever. (H5769)

In the Hebrew translation of Paul's letter to Timothy, the root word that is used for "mediator" is: סָרְסוֹר. This word for mediator which has a gematria value of 526 will be used in the gematria evidence that will be presented. (You will note that, as found in Scripture, when something is said to be between two subjects, the Hebrew word for "between" may be used only before the first subject, or before the word for each subject.)

Jesus Christ is the one mediator who offered one sacrifice for sins forever.

In Genesis there is a somewhat mysterious priest named Melchizedek who blessed Abraham upon his return from saving his brother Lot: And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God. Genesis 14:18. This same priest, Melchizedek, is again mentioned in the OT as a foreshadowing of Jesus Christ: The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. Psalms 110:4.

The writer of Hebrews, in the NT, speaks of Jesus Christ as a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek, who is the author of eternal salvation. So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared; though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec. Hebrews 5:5-10.

Jesus Christ, the great high priest offered himself as the one sacrifice for all men, and lives forever to make intercession for men before God, eliminating the need for repeated sacrifices by Levitical priests. If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood. And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest: (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:) by so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: but this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore. Hebrews 7:11-28.

Jesus, the high priest who offered one sacrifice for sins, is the only begotten Son of God.

It is written in Hebrews that Jesus is the high priest forever over the house of God: Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having an high priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Hebrews 10:19-22. By one offering Jesus has perfected forever them that are sanctified through his crucifixion. Jesus, our high priest, offered himself for a ransom, and laid down his life upon the cross. In the OT a Hebrew word for “cross” is not found. However, in the NT, when speaking of the cross, it is frequently called “the tree,” as in the following verse: Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Galatians 3:13. In the gematria evidence to follow, the Hebrew root word for “tree” is used instead of “cross.”

Jesus Christ is the one mediator between God and men, and he is our high priest forever. But, does Jesus have any relationship to Melchizedek, the mysterious priest mentioned in the OT? Is Jesus the priest after the order of Melchizedek, who was prophesied in Psalms, and proclaimed in Hebrews? The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. Psalms 110:4. For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. Hebrews 7:17. Gematria provides a plethora of evidence to support the proclamation in Hebrews that Jesus is the high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God. Genesis 14:18. The shortened form of the Hebrew word for God, which is found in this verse, is used in the following sentence.

Melchizedek (H4442) was the priest (H3548) of God. (H410) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) is the high (H1419) priest (H3548) after (H5921) the order (H1700) of Melchizedek. (H4442)

JESUS (G2424) CHRIST (G5547) = Ἰησοῦς Χριστός = 888 + 1480 = 2368

Jesus Christ is the mediator of the new covenant (referred to as “new testament” in Hebrews) between God and men through the offering of his blood. But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. Hebrews 9:11-15. Gematria provides confirmation that Jesus is the mediator of the new covenant, and the priest after the order of Melchizedek, through three different numerical values.

The root word for “Messiah” that I have used has a gematria value of 358. In proper Hebrew grammar, when referring to a definite article, the letter ה preceding the root word means “the.” Therefore, the spelling for “the Messiah” when using proper grammar is המשיח which has a gematria value of 363 instead of 358. The gematria value for YESHUA, THE MESSIAH, is then 749.

The writer of Hebrews alludes to Jesus as a priest after the order of Melchizedek, and also a priest “after the similitude of Melchizedek.” And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. Hebrews 7:15-16. While using two different Hebrew root words for “similitude,” gematria confirms that Jesus is a priest after the similitude of Melchizedek.

Melchizedek was a priest of the most high God before there was a nation of Israel. According to the Bible, during the exodus from Egypt, Aaron and his sons were made the first priests of Israel. And take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. Exodus 28:1. Aaron, and his brother Moses, were the great grandsons of Levi. Levi was one of the twelve sons of Jacob, whose name was changed to Israel, after whom the nation was named. The other descendants from the tribe of Levi, aside from the descendants of Aaron who were the priests, were appointed to serve the priests, and to minister in the tabernacle, and later the Temple of the Lord. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him. And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle. And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. Numbers 3:5-8. For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying, Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel: but thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle. Numbers 1:48-50. Upon reaching the promised land, the tribe of Levi was given no property for their inheritance, because their inheritance was the Lord. At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day. Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him. Deuteronomy 10:8-9. The priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel... For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever. Deuteronomy 18:1,5.

Every Hebrew priest, and those who served in the house of the Lord, from the time of the exodus onward arose from the tribe of Levi, but Jesus, the high priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek, came from the tribe of Judah. For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood. And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. Hebrews 7:14-16. Jesus was not a Levitical priest, but a priest after the power of an endless life, after the order of Melchizedek.

Does the method of gematria which I have used provide evidence to support the scriptural history of the Hebrew priesthood, and the claim that Jesus, our high priest forever, was the only priest who arose out of Judah, and not the tribe of Levi? It surely does.

Aaron (H175) and his sons (H1121) were priests, (H3548) and men (H120) from (H4480) the tribe (H4294) of Levi (H3878) ministered unto (H8334) the priests. (H3548)

The gematria evidence which further confirms that Jesus is the priest after the order of Melchizedek out of Judah, has the numerical values of the sentences equal to that of the Greek words for Christ, Jesus Christ, and Lord Jesus Christ.

For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; Hebrews 7:14. The Hebrew root words which have the same meaning as the Greek words from this verse have a gematria value for sentences which prove that Jesus is the one to whom the writer of Hebrews was referring. (As in the two sentences to follow, no Hebrew word is used for “things” or for “pertaineth” which is commonly how it is written in the OT.)

In Hebrews, the following is written regarding Melchizedek. For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him; to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually. Hebrews 7:1-3. Jesus, a priest after the order of Melchizedek, is the eternal priest of God. He is the Son of God who abides continually.

Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) the priest (H3548) forever (H5769) after (H5921) the order (H1700) of Melchizedek, (H4442) but made like unto (H1823) the Son (H1121) of God, (H430) abides (H5975) continually. (H8548)

The Bible proclaims that Jesus is the high priest who offered one sacrifice for the sins of the world forever. The sacrifice which Jesus offered was his own life which he laid down upon the cross. Through his sacrifice Jesus is the one mediator between God and men, the mediator of a new covenant. He is an eternal priest, after the order of Melchizedek. He is also the only high priest out of Judah, and not out of the tribe of Levi. The greater than 150 numerical word associations which have been presented provide evidence to support the truth of all these things which are stated in the Bible. Is this coincidence, or proof of the divine nature of numbers and the written language in relation to statements of scriptural truth? Let the reader come to their own conclusion.
