

A Lively Hope:

Due to recent events, the people of this country, and indeed, the entire world, have been filled with a sense of fear and despair. The coronavirus pandemic has resulted in widespread serious health problems, and many thousands of deaths, affecting the inhabitants in every nation of the world. Lockdowns which have been instituted in the attempt to slow the spread of the virus, have engendered devastating economic consequences, with many people losing their jobs. In addition to this, there has been a great social upheaval following the death of an unarmed black man at the hands of a white policeman. These things have left many people feeling hopeless, and concerned for the future.

There is hope for the future, and it is found in Jesus Christ, as proclaimed in 1Peter: Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; as obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: but as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: but the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you. 1Peter 1:13-25.

Those who believe in Jesus Christ are often referred to as “born again Christians.” According to what is written at the beginning of 1Peter Chapter 1, God the Father has begotten us again unto a lively hope and an inheritance: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1Peter 1:3-5. Christians are born again unto a lively hope, and an inheritance that does not fade away, and we are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

The truth of 1Peter 1:3-5, is confirmed through the numerical value of words with a unique method of gematria. Gematria involves using the numerical value of words to discover associations between words, phrases, or sentences, of equal numerical value; a practice used from ancient times by Jewish scholars. The numerical value of words is easily determined for Hebrew as well as Greek, the languages of the OT and NT, because each of these written languages uses a letter to signify a number.

A variety of methods using the numerical value of words to find hidden truth have been used. The method which I have employed is unique in that the gematria value of a sentence is determined by calculating the total numerical value of each Hebrew root word, and not the proper grammatical spelling of the word, that is used in a sentence of scriptural truth. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words (sometimes other Hebrew root words as well) from the Bible which have the same value. In the gematria evidence to follow, each Hebrew root word that is used in a sentence is identified by its reference number according to Strong's Concordance. Associated Greek words, which may be alternate spellings of the words according to rules of grammar are also identified by their Strong's reference numbers.

Peter declared the blessedness of God the Father.

It is by grace, according to God's abundant mercy, that we are begotten again unto a lively hope; that of becoming heirs of God, and obtaining eternal salvation by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Titus 2:11-14. For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus 3:3-7.

The hope which is provided by the resurrection of Jesus Christ is the promise of an eternal inheritance. Because of this inheritance we are called sons of God: Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. 1John 3:1-3.

The promised inheritance is said to be incorruptible. The word for “incorruptible,” which means “immortal,” is not used in the OT. There are several modern Hebrew root words which can be used for “immortal.” One of these words is, אַלְמוֹתִי, which has a gematria value of 487. A different way of writing “immortal” is, בֵּן אַלְמוֹתִי, which has a gematria value of 539. Yet another way of writing “immortal” is, בֵּן אַלְמוֹת, which has a gematria value of 535. In the following sentence the word for immortal with a gematria value of 487 is used. The gematria value for the sentence confirms that the incorruptible, undefiled, inheritance that does not fade away, is the basis for our lively hope.

An inheritance, (H5159) incorruptible, (not Strong’s #) undefiled, (H8535) and does not (H3808) fade away. (H5034)

נחלה אלמותי תם לא נבל

LIVELY (G2198) HOPE (G1680) = ζῶω ἔλπις = 808 + 325 = 1133

The next two numerical word associations have the same gematria value which is equal to that of Greek words which confirm the nature of the promised inheritance. In the first instance, the two Hebrew words used together to mean “immortal or incorruptible,” and which has a combined gematria value of 535 are used.

The Father (H1) of our Lord (H136) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) has begotten us (H3205) again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H5921) his resurrection (raise up), (H6965) from (H4480) the dead, (H4191) and unto (H413) an inheritance, (H5159) incorruptible, (no Strong’s #) and undefiled, (H8549) and that does not (H3808) fade away. JESUS (G2424) CHRIST (G5547) = Ἰησοῦς Χριστός = 888 + 1480 = 2368

In Scripture, sometimes a Hebrew word for “according to” is used, while at other times it is omitted. These options are used in the next two gematria associations.

Blessed (H1288) be the God (H430) and Father (H1) of our LORD (H3068) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) which according to his abundant (H7227) mercy (H2617) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H5921) the resurrection (raise up) (H6965) of Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the Son (H1121) of man, (H120) from (H4480) the dead. God the Father has offered all of mankind a lively hope, and an eternal inheritance which allows us to become an heir of God through Jesus Christ: Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. Galatians 4:7. Why, then, should anyone live in fear and despair, for there is hope in God: Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God... Psalms 42:5. The way in which fear and despair can be overcome is to put one's hope in God and our Savior, Jesus Christ: For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee. Titus 2:11-15.

In these troubled times people should realize that there can be no hope in men, or the actions of men, but instead hope in God, and give praise unto the Lord who is the answer to all strife, just as it is written in Psalms 146. Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul. While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God: which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever: which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. The LORD looseth the prisoners: the LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous: the LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down. The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD. Psalms 146:1-10.
