

The Story of Jonah

The Old Testament book of Jonah, considered one of the minor prophets, is one that is often overlooked, except for its popularity in children's Sunday School lessons. It is viewed by many as a fantastic fable, and simply an allegorical teaching. The story of the prophet Jonah, swallowed by a whale and kept alive in the belly of the beast for three days and three nights before being spewed out by the whale upon dry land, is simply too unbelievable to be taken seriously by modern thinking.

The miracle of the story is the backdrop for the two main points of instruction which the book provides. First, Jonah was told by God to go to Nineveh and give warning that the city would be destroyed if the people did not turn from their wicked ways. Jonah did not want to do this, and tried to flee from the Lord on a ship. A great storm came and the mariners threw Jonah into the sea in an attempt to appease the God of Jonah. God saved Jonah in the miracle of the story, and Jonah then obeyed God and went to Nineveh to warn the city. This part of the story teaches that no one can thwart the plans of God. Even though mankind has free will, God is sovereign, and He is still in control of His creation. The second, and most important message of the story, is that it reveals the merciful and forgiving nature of God, and we should also have compassion for the lost. When the inhabitants of Nineveh heard the warning from God through Jonah, they repented of their sins and worshipped God. Because of their repentance, God granted mercy upon the people and spared the city from destruction.

The final chapter of Jonah tells us that the prophet was angry because God did not destroy Nineveh and its people. When Jonah became angry and depressed over the death of a plant which was offering him shade in the sun, God's response to Jonah's anger reveals His merciful nature: And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death. Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: and should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle? Jonah 4:9-11. Jonah was upset because Nineveh had not been destroyed, and that the plant had been. God made it clear to Jonah that saving the people was much more important.

Gematria evidence that is related to the book of Jonah may bring the reader of this paper a new perspective of the miraculous story. The method of gematria that is used in this article involves using the Hebrew root word spelling, and not the proper grammatical spelling, for each word in a sentence that is consistent with what Paul originally wrote in Greek. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words from the Bible which have the same numerical value as the sentence. In the gematria evidence to follow, each Hebrew root word that is used in a sentence is identified by its reference number according to Strong's Concordance. Associated Greek words, which may be alternate spellings of the words according to rules of grammar are also identified by their Strong's reference numbers.

The following is the story of Jonah and the great fish as written in the KJV of the first chapter of the book of Jonah: Now the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? Arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine occupation? And whence comest thou? What is thy country? And of what people art thou? And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land. Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging. Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. Jonah 1:1-10, 15, 17. Is the story of Jonah a true story of a miracle which saved Jonah so that he would obey God's command, go to Nineveh, and call the inhabitants of that city to repentance; or simply a fictional story which provides a message of God's sovereignty and compassion?

Whichever it is, the divine inspiration of Scripture is made apparent by the following gematria association in which the same Hebrew root words as found in this passage of Scripture are used in the sentence. In this first gematria example the same Hebrew root word for "go" that is used in the verse is employed. The Lord wanted Jonah to go to Nineveh to cry out against the wickedness in the city.

The LORD (H3068) said (H559) to Jonah, (H3124) Go (H3212) to Nineveh. (H5210)

יהוה אמר יונה ילך נינוה

121 + 60 + 71 + 241 + 26 = 519

WICKEDNESS (G4189) = 519

The next sentence uses a different Hebrew root word which means "go."

The LORD (H3068) said (H559) to Jonah, (H3124) Go (H1980) to Nineveh. (H5210)

יהוה אמר יונה הלך נינוה

121 + 55 + 71 + 241 + 26 = 514

SPEAK AGAINST (G483) = 514

Jonah did not want to go to Nineveh, and so he boarded a ship in a futile attempt to flee from the Lord.

The LORD (H3068) said (H559) to Jonah, (H3124) Go (H1980) to Nineveh, (H5210) and Jonah (H3124) fled (H1272) on a ship. (H591)

יהוה אמר יונה הלך נינוה יונה ברח אניה

66 + 210 + 71 + 121 + 55 + 71 + 241 + 26 = 861

JONAS (JONAH) (G2495) = Ιωνα = 861

Jonah was not able to flee from God. God had a plan for Jonah that could not be opposed, and Jonah was cast from the ship into the sea where he was swallowed by a great fish. (As found in Scripture, sometimes the Hebrew word for “into” is used, and at times not. These alternatives will be employed in the gematria associations to be shown.)

Jonah, (H3124) the son (H1121) of Amittai (H573) fled (H1272) from (H4480) the LORD (H3068) on a ship, (H591) and was cast (H2904) into the sea. (H3220)

Jonah (H3124) did not (H3808) obey (H8085) the LORD, (H3068) and fled (H1272) on a ship. (H591) He was cast (H2904) into the sea, (H3220) and a great (H1419) fish (H1709) swallowed (H1104) him.

In the following sentence an uninterpretable Hebrew word that has a gematria value of 401 is used along with the word for “swallow up,” as found in Scripture.

The men (H376) cast (H2904) him into (H413) the sea (H3220) and a great (H1419) fish (H1709) swallowed up (H1104) (H853) Jonah. (H3124)

JONAS (JONAH) (G2495) (root word spelling) = Ιωνας = 1061

God had a plan for Jonah to go to Nineveh and to prophesy a warning of destruction if the people did not turn from their wickedness. Jonah had tried to flee from God, and in order for the purpose of God to be fulfilled, Jonah was saved from drowning in the sea in a miraculous way.

Jonah (H3124) was cast (H2904) into the sea (H3220) but (H3588) then (H227) the LORD (H3068) sent (H7971) a great (H1419) fish (H1709) to save (H3467) Jonah. (H3124)

JONAS (JONAH) (G2495) (root word spelling) = Ιωνας = 1061

I have used the word for “cast into” that is found in the book of Jonah. There is a different Hebrew root word with the same meaning, and this other word is used in the next two sentences.

Jonah (H3124) was cast (H7993) into the sea. (H3220) Now the LORD (H3068) had prepared (H4487) a great (H1419) fish (H1709) to swallow (H1104) him.

102 + 7 + 43 + 95 + 26 + 50 + 350 + 71 = 744

SWALLOW (G2666) = καταποθησαν = 744

The men (H120) cast (H7993) the prophet (H5030) Jonah (H3124) into the sea. (H3220) Now the LORD (H3068) had prepared (H4487) a great (H1419) fish (H1709) to come (H935) and swallow (H1104) him.

JONAS (JONAH) (G2495) = 861

The reason that Jonah was cast into the sea was because the Lord sent a furious storm and the mariners were afraid that their ship would sink. They cast Jonah overboard in their attempt to appease God and calm the storm.

The men (H120) cast (H2904) Jonah (H3124) into the sea. (H3220)

The mariners (H4419) were afraid (H3392) because (H3588) there was a great (H1419) tempest (H5591) upon (H5921) the sea. (H3220)

$$50 + 100 + 330 + 43 + 30 + 211 + 78 = 842$$

FEAR/TERROR (H5401) (root word spelling) = φοβος = 842

The LORD (H3068) God (H430) sent out (H2904) a great (H1419) wind (H7307) upon (H413) the sea, (H3220) and the mariners (H1419) feared (H3392) their ship (H591) might be broken (H7665) in the tempest. (H5591)

SHIPMAN/MARINER (G3492) = ναυτων = 1601

The next two sentences have the same gematria value, and have a direct numerical word association with two Greek words.

The mariners (H4419) were afraid (H3392) because (H3588) there was a great (H1419) tempest. (H5591)

מלח ירא כי גדול סער

$$330 + 43 + 30 + 211 + 78 = 692$$

מלח אניה ירא כי גדול רוח ים

$$50 + 214 + 43 + 30 + 211 + 66 + 78 = 692$$

FEAR (G5401) = φοβον = 692

SEA (G3882) = παραλιου = 692

Now, two more sentences having equal numerical values show direct association with two Greek words of the same value.

The mariners (H4419) were afraid (H3392) because of (H5921) a great (H1419) tempest. (H5591)

WAVE (ON A SEA OR LAKE) (G2949) = κυματα = 762

SHIPMAN/MARINER (G3492) = ναυται = 762

Jonah was cast into the sea, and would have drowned, if not for the miracle of the great fish that swallowed him.

They were afraid (H3392) and they cast (H2904) Jonah (H3124) into (H413) the sea. (H3220) A great (H1419) fish (H1709) swallowed (H1104) him.

ירא טול יונה אל ים גדול דג בלע

$$102 + 7 + 43 + 50 + 31 + 71 + 45 + 211 = 560$$

The word that is used in Jonah for “swallow” also means “to devour.”

DEVOUR/TO CONSUME BY EATING (G2719) = κατασθιει = 560

The mariners (H4419) were afraid, (H3372) and they took (H5375) Jonah (H3124) and cast him (H2904) into (H413) the sea, (H3220) and a great (H1419) fish (H1709) came (H935) and swallowed (H1104) Jonah. (H3124)

The gematria value of 1001 is that for a different Greek word which means “fish” than has been shown in prior numerical associations.

FISH (G3795) (root word spelling) = οψαριον = 1001

They were afraid (H3392) and they cast (H2904) Jonah (H3124) into (H413) the sea. (H3220) A great (H1419) fish (H1709) swallowed (H1104) him, and he did not (H3808) perish. (H6)

Jonah was saved by the great fish because God had a purpose for Jonah to fulfill. And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

Jonah eventually did what the Lord wanted him to do, and went to Nineveh to warn the people to repent or the city would be destroyed.

Once again, an extended narrative of the story of Jonah confirms the truth by the numerical value of the narrative.

Jonah, (H3124) the son (H1121) of Amittai (H573) fled (H1272) from (H4480) the LORD (H3068) on a ship. (H591) Jonah (H3124) was cast (H2904) into the sea. NINEVEH (G3536) (root word spelling) = Νινευιτης = 1033

The people of Nineveh believed the word of God which Jonah proclaimed. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. Jonah 3:1-10.

The inhabitants of Nineveh had heeded the warning from God that was given to them by Jonah, and repented of their sins and worshiped the Lord. Instead of being happy with the outcome, Jonah was angry and depressed that the city had been spared. But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. Jonah 4:1-2.

The people of Nineveh believed the prophecy of Jonah.

So (H3651) the people (H5971) believed (H539) Jonah, (H3124) that in forty (H705) days (H3117) God (H430) would overthrow (H2015) Nineveh. (H5210)

The kindness and mercy of God is proclaimed in the story of Jonah. The people of Nineveh repented of their wicked ways, and worshiped the God of creation. Because of this, God spared their city. But what is to be made of the portion of the story related to the miracle of the great fish that swallowed Jonah, and saved him from drowning in the sea? The gematria findings regarding the validity of this part of the narrative is quite interesting, and it will be left to the reader to discern the significance.

The story of Jonah is a story of a miracle regarding a great fish.

It (H1931) was a miracle (H4159) that the LORD (H3068) had prepared (H4487) a great (H1419) fish (H1709) to swallow (H1104) Jonah. (H3124)

It (H1931) was a miracle (H4159) that Jonah (H3124) was cast (H2904) into the sea, (H3220) but LORD (H3068) had prepared (H4487) a great (H1419) fish (H1709) to swallow (H1104) him, and Jonah (H3124) did not (H3808) drown. (H7857)

That God would perform a miracle, and use a great fish to save Jonah so that His plan for the redemption of Nineveh might be fulfilled, is a marvel.

The LORD (H3068) prepared (H4487) a great (H1419) fish (H1709) to swallow (H1104) Jonah, (H3124) and to vomit him out (H6958) upon the dry land. (H3004)

In the NT, the Pharisees asked Jesus to show them a sign to convince them that he was sent from God. Jesus' answer is written in Matthew: Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas: for as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. Matthew 12:38-41. Jesus said that the only sign that would be given to an evil and adulterous generation would be the sign of the prophet Jonah.

The prophet (H5030) Jonah (H3124) shall be (H1961) the sign (H226) that is given. (H5414)

According to the Bible, God had a plan for the salvation of the people of Nineveh. Despite their wickedness, in His great compassion, mercy, and the desire of God that all men be saved, He sent a messenger to give warning to the people of Nineveh that they must repent or the city would be destroyed. Jonah was the chosen messenger of God, but he thought that the people of Nineveh were not worthy to be spared from God's wrath. The prophet attempted to flee from God, but God's plan could not be altered. In a truly unbelievable way Jonah was saved by God, and finally obeyed the Lord and went to Nineveh to prophesy its destruction. Upon hearing the message from Jonah, the people repented and worshiped the Lord, and for that reason were spared. The gematria evidence in this paper confirms the truth of this amazing story.
