

The Kingdom of Heaven

My five year old grandson asked, Where is heaven? He also asked, Is heaven real? The answer to my grandson's questions are not so simple. In the OT of the Bible the word for heaven is used for the sky, the expanse above which contains the sun, moon, and stars, and the spiritual realm beyond the stars. In the OT, heaven is said to be the dwelling place of God and his angels, and the location of the throne of God. God is the ruler over both heaven and earth.

In the NT much is written concerning heaven, and Jesus had much to say on the topic of the kingdom of heaven. Heaven of the NT is still considered to be the dwelling place of God and his angels, but it is much more. In the NT, heaven is not only referred to as a specific place, but also represents the kingship of God, specifically Jesus Christ, and his righteousness abiding within the soul of men in order to accomplish the will of God. It is called the kingdom of heaven, the kingdom of God, and also the kingdom of David, and the kingdom of Christ; each being equivalent in meaning. The kingdom of heaven is the condition of God's people, the church, who have been redeemed, and submit themselves to the sovereignty of God, and acknowledge Jesus Christ as their Savior. It is also prophesied in the final book of the NT, Revelation, that heaven will come down to earth at the end of time, and earth will become the new heaven.

The simple questions that were posed by my grandson inspired me to use gematria to evaluate passages in Scripture related to heaven. The word for "heaven" is used nearly 600 times in the KJV of the Bible, and so this became quite an undertaking. However, through the inspiration of the Spirit, the gematria findings in this paper were uncovered in just 10-14 days. The method of gematria that is used in this article involves using the Hebrew root word spelling, and not the proper grammatical spelling, for each word in a sentence that is consistent with what is written in Scripture. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words (or occasionally other Hebrew words) from the Bible which have the same numerical value as the sentence. In the gematria evidence to follow, each Hebrew root word that is used in a sentence is identified by its reference number according to Strong's Concordance. Associated Greek words, which may be alternate spellings of the words which change according to rules of grammar, are also identified by their Strong's reference numbers.

The Lord God is in heaven above:

The Lord God is the God in both heaven and earth. Heaven is said to be on high, or above the earth. Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else. Deuteronomy 4:39. And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath. Joshua 2:11. It should be noted that in Scripture, "above" can be written in several ways: either of two Hebrew root words, with or without being combined with the Hebrew word for "from," are appropriate ways in which to write "above." As the Bible proclaims, the Lord

God is the God in heaven and earth. The word for “Lord” being the unpronounceable name of God in Hebrew, which can be translated as “Yahweh” or “Jehovah.”

The gematria value of a recapitulation of what was said to king Ahab confirms the truth of the prophet's vision of the Lord upon his throne in heaven.

There is a God in heaven that reveals secrets:

In the book of Daniel it is written that there is a God in heaven that reveals secrets: Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king; but there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; as for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. Daniel 2:27-29. This portion of Daniel is written in Aramaic, a very similar language to Hebrew which uses the same alphabet, and many of the words are the same.

The God who reveals secrets is in heaven.

Scripture refers to God as “the Lord God of heaven.” The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence. Genesis 24:7. God is also referred to as “the God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.” And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath. Joshua 2:11. Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else. Deuteronomy 4:39. As noted earlier, the prophet Micaiah had a vision of the Lord sitting upon his throne in heaven: Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. 2Chronicles 18:18. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.* Revelation 21:5.

Jesus is the bread from heaven:

In the OT, it is written that God promised to send bread from heaven: Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no. Exodus 16:4. In the NT, Jesus proclaimed that he is the living bread sent from the Father in heaven: Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. John 6:32-33. I am that bread of life. John 6:48. God rained down manna from heaven for the Hebrew people to eat in the desert, but the living bread, Jesus Christ, was rained down from heaven to give life to the world.

Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.* John 18:33-36.

Parables concerning the kingdom of heaven:

Jesus taught concerning the kingdom of heaven through a number of different parables. Most of these parables were about heaven as a condition of the heart, and its affect on the lives of men leading to the fulfillment of God's will upon earth, rather than a place.

The Son (H1121) of God (H430) spoke (H559) in parables (H4912)

בן אלהים אמר משל

$$370 + 241 + 86 + 52 = 749$$

The root word for "Messiah" that I have used has a gematria value of 358. In proper Hebrew grammar, when referring to a definite article, the letter ה preceding the root word means "the." Therefore, the spelling for "the Messiah" when using proper grammar is המשיח which has a gematria value of 363 instead of 358. The gematria value for YESHUA, THE MESSIAH, is then 749.

Jesus told the following parable of the sower And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow; and when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up: some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: and when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: but other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Matthew 13:3-9.

Jesus then explained to his disciples the meaning of this parable. Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Matthew 13:18-23. The meaning of the parable is that when word of the kingdom of heaven is received by someone who then understands it, it is like seed falling on good ground, and it bears fruit. Gematria confirms what Jesus said in this parable.

The Gospel of Matthew records a number of different parables which Jesus used to teach about the nature of the kingdom of heaven. Gematria related to each of those parables confirms that what is recorded by Matthew is true. An explanation of each parable is not the focus of this paper, but the focus is simply a demonstration of the amazing numerical word associations related to each parable.

Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: Matthew 13:24.

Jesus also said that one's righteousness must be greater than the scribes and the Pharisees in order to enter into the kingdom. The Bible teaches us that we can have that greater righteousness only through Jesus Christ. For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom. Matthew 5:20.

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? At the last supper Jesus said that he would not drink from the cup again until he did so in the kingdom of God. In this instance, the kingdom of God is a place, and not a condition of the heart. And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. Mark 14: 23-25.

Today you will be with me in paradise:

When Jesus was hanging upon the cross, one of the criminals on a cross beside him acknowledged the divinity of Jesus, and asked that he be remembered when Jesus entered into his kingdom. And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. Luke 23:42-43. Jesus promised the man that he would be with him in the paradise (heaven), referring to an actual place.

Heaven the inheritance:

It is said by many that the OT does not speak of heaven as a place where the righteous will dwell in the afterlife. However, there are numerous verses which indicate that heaven is, indeed, a dwelling place for the redeemed. In two instances, Enoch and Elijah, God took the men from earth to be with him, and since the dwelling place of God is in heaven, that is where they went. And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him. Genesis 5:24. And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so. And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 2Kings 2:10-11. In Job, there is an indication that there is life with God after death. For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Job 19:25-26

Several passages in Psalms allude to a place of eternal joy where one will go after death. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. Psalms 16:9-11. (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:) That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption. But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah. Psalms 49:8-9,15.

The prophet Isaiah makes it more apparent that the redeemed will be raised to live forever. He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it. Isaiah 25:8. Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead. Isaiah 26:19. In the book of Daniel, there can be no doubt as to what is proclaimed regarding the afterlife. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days. Daniel 12: 2,13.

Words taken from a verse in Deuteronomy, although in a different context, confirm that the treasures of heaven will be made available to men. The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow. Deuteronomy 28:12.

The prophet Daniel had written of the sign of the Son of man coming in the clouds hundreds of years earlier. I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. Daniel 7:13:14. Daniel prophesied of an eternal kingdom which would come in the end.

In the Book of Revelation, John provides extensive detail regarding a vision which came to him regarding end time events. What John saw in his vision, and described, is open to interpretation as to whether or not the things he describes are literal, figurative, or symbolic. Very likely they are a combination of the three. In the vision John saw an angel flying in heaven, crying out, “Woe to the inhabitants of the earth,” to give warning of a coming destruction. And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound! Revelation 8:13.

And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.* Revelation 21:21-23.

For those who believe in Jesus Christ and put their trust in him, it is. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1Thessalonians 4:14-17. When Jesus was about to ascend to heaven to be with the Father, he said that he was going to prepare a place for his followers, and that he would come again to receive them into his kingdom. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14:2-3. The kingdom to which Jesus will receive believers is the kingdom of heaven.

When Jesus, the Son of man, returns, he will gather the elect out of his kingdom. Jesus said that he would send his angels to gather the elect. And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Matthew 24:31.

The kingdom of heaven is within men:

The kingdom of heaven is a real place, but it is also the righteousness of God within men through the blood of Jesus that cleanses us, and serves to fulfill the will of God. When asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus answered in the following way. And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you. Luke 17:20-21.

The Son (H1121) of man (H120) answered (H6030) and said, (H559) The kingdom (H4467) of God (H430) does not (H3808) come (H935) by (H4480) observation (looking for), (H7200) for, (H3588) behold, (H2009) the kingdom (H4467) of God (H430) is within (H5921) you.

But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Romans 8:11. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. 1John 4:12-15. God dwells within all who believe in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Heaven is the everlasting kingdom of God's people:

Returning to the prophecy of Daniel, the promise that God's people would inherit an everlasting kingdom has been proclaimed. And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. Daniel 7:27.

When Hebrew root words are used in place of the Aramaic words that are found in Scripture, it is confirmed that the kingdom of heaven has been promised for “the people of the saints of the most High.”

I cannot add anything of value to that of the words from Scripture. The gematria evidence is clear: heaven is a real place, as well as a condition of the hearts of believers. The kingdom of heaven, the will of God, can exist within men which benefits our present life on earth, and is necessary for the kingdom to grow. However, the actual kingdom will come to earth in the end, and through the description of the holy city of God in Revelation, we can be assured that heaven is glorious beyond our comprehension.
