

The Lord is Merciful:

Throughout the Old Testament of the Bible, the God of the Hebrew people is said to be a merciful God. Attributes which are attributed to the Lord God are that he is merciful, gracious, slow to anger, and of great mercy toward them who hold him in reverence. God is also said to be ready to forgive the iniquity and sins of those who repent and call upon him. The New Testament proclaims that God sent a Savior, his only Son, Jesus Christ, to lay down his own life, and become an atonement for the sins of men, as a manifestation of God's great mercy.

Gematria, which uses the numerical value of Hebrew and Greek words from the Bible to discover word associations, provides confirmation that God, indeed, is merciful, and that Jesus Christ is the manifestation of that mercy. The method of gematria that is used in this article involves using the Hebrew root word spelling, and not the proper grammatical spelling, for each word in a sentence that is consistent with what is written in Scripture. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words from the Bible which have the same numerical value as the sentence. In the gematria evidence to follow, each Hebrew root word that is used in a sentence is identified by its reference number according to Strong's Concordance. Associated Greek words, which may be alternate spellings of the words which change according to rules of grammar, are also identified by their Strong's reference numbers.

The following passage of Scripture from Psalms is how the Lord God is repeatedly described in the OT: The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him. Psalms 103:8-13.

The first four gematria associations confirm the greatness of God's mercy.

So great (H1396) is his mercy (H2617) toward (H5921) them that fear (H3373) him.

גבר חסד על ירא

211 + 100 + 72 + 205 = 588

GREATER (G3186) (root word spelling) = μειζοτερος = 588

In the next example of a numerical word association, a different Hebrew root word for "great" than that which is used in Psalms 103:11, is used.

So great (H1419) is the LORD's (H3068) mercy (H2617) toward (H5921) them that fear (H3373) him.

גדול יהוה חסד על ירא

$$211 + 100 + 72 + 26 + 43 = 452$$

GREAT (G3173) = $\mu\epsilon\iota\zeta\omicron\nu\omicron\varsigma$ = 452

Now, this other word for “great” is used in a sentence along with a different Hebrew root word for “toward.”

So great (H1419) is the LORD’s (H3068) mercy (H2617) toward (H413) them that fear (H3373) him.

גְּדוֹלַת יְהוָה חֶסֶד אֶל יִרְאָה

$$211 + 31 + 72 + 26 + 43 = 383$$

GREAT (G3173) = $\mu\epsilon\iota\zeta\omicron\nu\alpha\varsigma$ = 383

As heaven (H8064) is high (H1361) above (H5921) the earth, (H776) so great (H1396) is the mercy (H2617) of the LORD. (H3068)

GREAT (G3173) MERCY (G1653) = $\mu\epsilon\gamma\acute{\alpha}\varsigma \acute{\epsilon}\lambda\acute{\epsilon}\omega$ = 249 + 845 = 1094

So great (H1396) is the LORD’s (H3068) mercy. (H2617) He (H1931) is merciful, (H7349) gracious, (H2587) slow (H750) to anger, (H639) and plenteous (H7227) in mercy. (H2617)

HAVE COMPASSION (G4834) = $\sigma\upsilon\nu\epsilon\pi\alpha\theta\eta\sigma\alpha\tau\epsilon$ = 1259

The merciful attributes of God are confirmed by the following numerical word association.

The LORD (H3068) is a merciful (H7349) God. (H430) He (H1931) is merciful, (H7349) gracious, (H2587) and slow (H750) to anger. (H639)

HAVE MERCY ON/PITY (G1653) = $\epsilon\lambda\epsilon\eta\sigma\omega$ = 1048

The greatness of the Lord’s mercy is compared to heaven being high above the earth.

As heaven (H8064) is high (H1361) above (H5921) the earth, (H776) so great (H1396) is his mercy (H2617) toward (H413) them that fear (H3373) him.

ABUNDANCE/A THING THAT COMES IN ABUNDANCE (G4052) = περισσευετε = 1310

As the next two examples of gematria word associations demonstrate, the greatness of the Lord's mercy is directed toward them that fear him.

As heaven (H8064) is high (H1361) above (H5921) the earth, (H776) so great (H1419) is his mercy (H2617) toward (H413) them that fear (H3373) him.

In the Book of Psalms, we are encouraged to give thanks to the Lord for his mercy unto us: O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Psalms 107:1. This reality is confirmed by three different gematria values that are calculated for the next three numerical word associations.

Give thanks (H3034) unto the LORD, (H3068) for (H3588) he is good: (H2896) his mercy (H2617) endures forever. (H5769)

The Bible teaches that because of God's great mercy, he is ready to forgive us if we call upon him. For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee. Psalms 86:5.

The LORD (H3068) God, (H430) the Father, (H1) is merciful, (H7349) gracious, (H2587) slow (H750) to anger, (H639) and ready to forgive (H5546) them that fear (H3374) him.

In Psalms 103:13, it says that the Lord pities them that fear him. This verse uses two Hebrew words for “pity,” (H7355) and (H5921). These two words used together has the meaning of: have pity upon, or have compassion upon, which is to show mercy.

The great mercy of God, of which it is written repeatedly in the OT, is proclaimed in the NT as being made manifest in the coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. A merciful God has provided the way unto salvation and justification by grace through faith in Christ, who died for the atonement of our sins.

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: but now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Romans 3:21-24.

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ... But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. Romans 5:1, 8-9.

Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Galatians 2:16.

But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Ephesians 2:4-9.

Because the Lord pities (i.e. has compassion upon) them that fear him, he sent Christ, his Son.

Because (H3588) the LORD (H3068) pities (H7355) (H5921) them that fear (H3374) him, he sent (H7971) his Son. (H1121)

In both the OT and the NT, the Bible teaches that the Lord will remove our transgressions and sins, and remember them no more. But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Jeremiah 31: 33-34.

But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: and they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more. Hebrews 8:6-12.

Our transgressions and sins are removed, and remembered no more, through faith in Jesus Christ as our Savior.

As the Bible proclaims, God is merciful, gracious, slow to anger, and great in mercy toward them that fear him. The great mercy of God became manifest in the coming of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who gave his own life as the one sacrifice forever for our sins. Our sins have been washed away by the blood which Christ shed upon the cross, and we are saved by God's grace through faith in the sacrificial death and resurrection of Jesus. Numerical word association which have been revealed in this article provide confirmatory evidence to support the truth of Scripture in regard to the great mercy of God.
