

The Word of Life:

The Gospel of John begins with the proclamation that Jesus, the Word, was present in the beginning, was with God, and is God. John referred to the Word as “the life,” and also, “the light of men.” In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. John 1:1-4. In the First Epistle of John, he writes concerning the Word of life, who was manifested.

John also wrote in his first epistle that “God is light.” In the Gospel of John, it is written that Jesus said that he is the “light of the world.” God is light, and Jesus, who is God manifested in the flesh, is also light. John proclaims in the epistle that those who walk in the light have fellowship with one another, and with God the Father, and with Jesus his Son; and are cleansed from all sin and unrighteousness through the blood of Christ. John goes on in the epistle to speak of God’s love toward men, which is demonstrated by the cleansing power of the blood of Jesus, and by which we can be called sons of God.

Using the method of gematria which I have now employed for many years to evaluate Scripture, the numerical word associations related to that which is written in 1John, Chapter 1, reveals confirmation of scriptural truth. This method involves using the Hebrew root word spelling, and not the proper grammatical spelling, for each word in a sentence that is consistent with what is written in Scripture. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words from the Bible which have the same numerical value as the sentence. In the gematria evidence to follow, each Hebrew root word that is used in a sentence is identified by its reference number according to Strong’s Concordance. Associated Greek words, which may be alternate spellings of the words which change according to rules of grammar, are also identified by their Strong’s reference numbers.

The opening verses of 1John Chapter 1, expand upon what John wrote about the Word in the first chapter of his Gospel regarding the manifestation of the Word. That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; (for the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;) that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1John 1:1-3.

The Word life which was from the beginning, and was manifested to his followers, is Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, which is confirmed in the first three numerical word associations which have equal gematria values.

In the Gospel of John, it is written concerning the Word of God, Jesus, who was with God in the beginning, and is God; that in him is life, which is the light of men: In him was life; and the life was the light of men. John 1:4. From 1John Chapter 1, we know that Jesus is the Word of life. Jesus is the “light of men” because through the blood of his sacrifice, those who believe in him do not walk in darkness, have their sins forgiven, and are given the promise of eternal life.

John wrote about the love of God toward us in his Gospel with the following often quoted verse: For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John 3:16. In 1John, it is written that because of God's great love we can be called the sons of God: Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. 1John 3:1. Gematria provides evidence of who it is that the world does not know, and who can be called sons of God.

This article has demonstrated numerical word associations which provide evidence to confirm the truth of that which John wrote in Chapter 1 of his first epistle. Jesus Christ is the Word of life, who was with the Father in the beginning, and was manifested in the flesh. He is the light of men, and for those who follow the light, there is fellowship with each other, and more importantly, fellowship with God the Father, and Jesus his Son. Through the blood which Jesus shed, if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive our sins, and we can be cleansed of all sin and unrighteousness. Those who are cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ become the sons of God.
