

Christians According to Scripture

There are many who believe that there is a deity, but belief in any god except the one God who is revealed in the Bible is of no benefit, and does not lead to salvation. Belief in “a god” is not equivalent to belief in the one true God. There is only one true God; the God who made himself known to the Jewish patriarchs, and who was manifested in the flesh as the Son of man, and Son of God. To the Hebrew people his name was Yahweh (Jehovah). This one true God is three persons in one: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Old Testament of the Bible foretold of a coming Messiah, a shepherd and a Savior of the people. This is Jesus Christ (Yeshua Hamashiach), the Son of God, who is God himself in the flesh. Jesus Christ came to earth in the form of a man and is proclaimed in the New Testament as the fulfillment of the Old Testament messianic prophecies.

The reason Christ came was to fulfill the Law that a blood sacrifice of a spotless lamb was required for a sin offering. Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God who was without sin, fulfilled the Law by laying down his life upon the cross. He gave his life as the one sacrifice for the sins of the world forever, so that all who repent of sin and believe in him might be saved.

For those who do not believe in Jesus Christ, the preaching of the cross is foolishness. For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. 1 Corinthians 1:18. Preaching of the cross is proclaiming the message of the gospel, which is the power of God unto salvation for all that believe. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. Romans 1:16.

The truth of Scripture regarding believers in Jesus Christ, Christians, is confirmed through gematria. Since both Hebrew, the language of the Old Testament, and Greek, the language in which the New Testament was originally written, use characters of the alphabet for numbers, each word has a numerical value. Gematria is a term for using the numerical value of words to reveal truth. The method of gematria that is used in this article involves using the Hebrew root word spelling, and not the proper grammatical spelling, for each word in a sentence that is consistent with what is written in Scripture. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words from the Bible which have the same numerical value as the sentence. In the gematria evidence to follow, each Hebrew root word that is used in a sentence is identified by its reference number according to Strong's Concordance. Associated Greek words, which may be alternate spellings of the words which change according to rules of grammar, are also identified by their Strong's reference numbers.

While using two different root word options for “foolishness” it can be shown through the numerical value of words that it is believers in Christ who are saved by the power of God through the preaching of the cross.

In Romans, Paul wrote very succinctly about the requirement for one to be saved: That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Romans 10:9. The numerical value of Hebrew root words which restate what is necessary for salvation confirms what one must do, and also reveals the identity of those who will be saved.

One verse from Scripture proclaims the gospel message more clearly than any other: For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life. John 3:16. The love of God for mankind is so great that he sent his Son to be the one sacrifice for sins forever, so that all who believe in him might be saved by grace through faith. Those who believe in Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, are promised eternal life.

God (H430) so (H3651) loved (H157) the world (H8398) that he gave (H5414) his Son, (H1121) that whosoever (H3605) believeth (H539) in him should not (H3808) perish, (H6) but (H3588) have (H1961) everlasting (H5769) life. (H2416)

Paul wrote that we are justified by faith, and have peace with God through Jesus Christ:

Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:1. The numerical value of Hebrew root words which proclaim this scriptural truth confirms that Christians are those who are justified by faith. This is made apparent as the result of the gematria values for two alternate Greek spellings.

Therefore (H5921) (H3651) being justified (H6663) by faith, (H529) we have peace (H7965) with (H5973) God (H430) through Christ (the Messiah). (H4899)

The term “born again” is one that is often used in reference to Christian believers. This term is related to the following passage of Scripture: Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. John 3:3-6. Being “born again” is not in reference to a physical birth, but a spiritual birth which comes when one acknowledges Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit, whom Jesus said would come to dwell within us, enters our hearts to guide us in our lives. The gematria value of Hebrew root words for what Jesus said to Nicodemus confirms that Christian believers are those who are born again and will enter the kingdom of God.

Verily, (H403) verily, (H403) I say (H559) unto (H413) you, Except (H3884) a man (H376) be born (H3205) again (H5750) of the Spirit (H7307) he cannot (H3808) enter (H935) into the kingdom (H4467) of God. (H430)

The Greek word that is used in John 3:3, for “see,” in reference to the Kingdom of God, by implication means “to know.” When the Hebrew root word for “know” is used in the next sentence, the truth is again revealed.

I say (H559) unto (H413) you, Except (H3884) a man (H120) be born (H3205) again (H5750) he cannot (H3808) know (H3045) the kingdom (H4467) of God; (H430) and except (H3884) he be born (H3205) of water (H4325) and of the Spirit (H7307) he cannot enter (H935) in.

The bread and the cup of Communion represent the body and the blood of Jesus Christ, and partakers of the sacrament in remembrance of Jesus' sacrifice proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. Jesus promised to raise up in the last day those who eat his flesh and drink his blood: Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. John 6:54. Gematria reveals who will be raised up in the last day.

I will raise him up (H6965) from (H4480) the dead (H4191) at the last (H319) day (H3117) and he shall have (H1961) eternal (H5769) life. (H2416)

Paul, who was appointed a teacher of the Gentiles, proclaimed Jesus Christ as the Savior, and called himself a servant of Jesus Christ: Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, (which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; and declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: by whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: Romans 1:1-6. Paul/Saul was one of the first to be called a Christian.

Perhaps the most important aspect of Christian doctrine which was established by Paul is that we are saved by grace: For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is a gift of God. Not of works, lest any man should boast. Ephesians 2:8-9. Who is saved by grace through faith and not by works? It is everyone who has faith in the Jesus: those who are called Christians.

God (H430) has not (H3808) appointed (H7760) us to that (H1931) day (H3117) of wrath, (H639) but (H3588) to salvation (H3444) by Christ (the Messiah). (H4886)

Christians will not be condemned, instead they will receive everlasting life: Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. John 5:25. When speaking of the “dead” Jesus was referring to those who are separated from God, and “dead in their sins.” Paul used this phrase several times: And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; Ephesians 2:1. Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) Ephesians

2:5. Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; Colossians 2:12-13. Gematria confirms the truth of this verse; those who are dead in their sins will hear the voice of Jesus, and live.

Scripture has promised that when Christ returns he will send his angels to gather the elect: And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he shall send his angels with a great sound of the trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Matthew 24:31.

God has commanded that all men repent of sin, for there will be a day of judgment: And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Acts 17:30-31. The Old Testament prophet Zephaniah wrote: Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD'S anger come upon you. Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD'S anger. Zephaniah 2:2-3. In the Old Testament Book of Daniel, it is prophesied that in the time of tribulation those whose names are found written in the book will be delivered: And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation even to that time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Daniel 12:1-2. In Revelation it is written: And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. Revelation 20:12. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. Revelation 20:15. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight. I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cutoff all wicked doers from the city of the LORD. Psalms 101:7-8. The everlasting New Jerusalem is the city of the Lord: Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. Revelation 3:12. Speaking of the New Jerusalem John wrote in Revelation: And there shall no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. Revelation 21:27. This decree is the same as that of Psalms 101:7-8. Gematria reveals who will be able to enter into the city of the Lord, the New Jerusalem, which God will establish forever.

John saw the New Jerusalem descending “as a bride prepared for her husband”: And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. Revelation 21:2. In a prior chapter gematria associations which confirm that Jesus Christ is the Maker were shown for the following verse found in Isaiah: For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall he be called. Isaiah 54:5. Paul wrote that the church was espoused to one husband, Jesus Christ: For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 2Corinthians 11:2. And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? And whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.* Revelation 7:9-10, 13-14. In the Gospel of John, we are told that Jesus, the Word of God, is the light unto all men: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in the darkness...That was the true light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. John 1:1-5, 9. Jesus himself said that he was the light of the world: Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. John 8:12. If we walk in the light of Jesus, we become children of the light: Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light... John 12:35-36. Gematria confirms that Christians are children of the light.

It is written that the Day of the Lord will not come unawares to those who are in the light: But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. 1 Thessalonians 5:1-5. Whenever the end may come, those who believe in Christ should have no fear because of what has been promised in Scripture. Paul wrote that if we commit ourselves to Jesus Christ, and suffer in his name, we will live and reign with him: Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: if we suffer, we shall also reign with him... 2 Timothy 2:7-12. Those who are dead with Christ will live with him forever.

If (H518) we be dead (H4191) with (H5973) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) we also (H1571) will live (H2421) with (H5873) him.

The gospel has been made known through Holy Scripture which was written by men as they were guided by the inspiration of God. We have all been chosen by Jesus Christ to be called friends and fellow heirs, and to be children of the light. However, the promise of salvation and eternal life is obtained by grace through faith, only as a result of belief that Jesus is the promised Messiah; God himself who became flesh, laid down his life upon the cross for the remission of sins, and was raised from the dead. Just as Christ was raised from the dead, those who believe in him, Christians, will also be raised: But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. Romans 8:11. The promise of eternal life to all that believe is Jesus is a gift of God: For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Ephesians 2:8. Although all have been chosen to be called friends and fellow heirs with Christ, the gift that we have been offered must be first be received by acknowledging the truth of the gospel; for a gift is only a gift if it is accepted.
