

Isaiah Chapter 53

The Bible is an amazing piece of literature, and is proven to be much more than simply the product of man's imagination through the numerical value of words. In Hebrew, the language in which the Jewish Tanach, which is the Old Testament of the Christian Bible, was written, the characters of the alphabet are also used as numbers. Similarly, in Greek, the language in which the New Testament was originally written; the characters of the alphabet are also used as numbers. Therefore, each letter has a numerical value, and the numerical value of both Hebrew and Greek words is then determined by simple addition of the value for each letter of the word.

For centuries Jewish scholars have used the numerical value of Hebrew words to study Scripture, and have thought that an equal numerical value of two words demonstrates an association between them. More recently, Christian investigators have used the numerical value of Hebrew words from Scripture to show a remarkable symmetry, in which geometric shapes such as triangles, the star of David, and snowflakes, are created using the number of pixels according to the numerical value of the words in Hebrew taken from passages in the Bible; and associated Greek words, primarily related to the names Jesus, Jesus Christ, and Lord Jesus Christ. The gematria value of words has also been shown to reveal relationships to mathematical constants, such as π (pi) and Euler's constant e . If there is truly a relationship between words of Scripture based upon their numerical values, then this can only be the result of divine origin of what is written in the Bible, and, in fact, divine inspiration in the development of written language. In general terms, the use of the numerical value of words to discover hidden truth is referred to as gematria.

Many of those who have done research using gematria in relation to Scripture employ advanced mathematical concepts, and computer investigative software to make their discoveries in relation to the Hebrew words of Scripture as they appear in the original text. I am illiterate in Hebrew and Greek. Therefore, I was unable to evaluate the words of Scripture in the original languages. Also, being unfamiliar with advanced math, and a novice in using the computer, I was unable, and uninterested, in using gematria to study Scripture in the same way as others. Through what I can only describe as an unexplained inspiration, I began to use Hebrew root words (the primary spelling of words before they are altered due to rules of grammar) that are found in passages of Scripture, or simply in sentences which state biblical truth, to compose sentences. I then determined the gematria value of the phrases or sentences. Repeated instances were discovered in which the numerical values of sentences written in such a manner, confirmed the truth of what is written in the Bible, through Greek words from the Bible having the same gematria value. Without the need for Hebrew and Greek literacy, computer software, or anything more than simple addition, this method has led me to several thousand numerical word associations.

The Old Testament prophet, Isaiah, foretold the birth and sacrificial death of Jesus Christ through his prophecies more than any other prophet. I have previously written an article which reveals gematria evidence providing confirmation that Isaiah did indeed prophesy the birth of Christ, the Messiah, and how it his prophecy relates to the New Testament account of Jesus' birth. Isaiah Chapter 53, is a portion of the Old Testament which prophesies the coming of Christ, his rejection by the Jewish people, his suffering, and sacrificial death in which he bore the sins of many; and which provides justification, and reconciliation to God. This article will demonstrate gematria evidence which confirms the truth of what Isaiah prophesied concerning these things.

The gematria evidence to be shown uses the root word spelling of Hebrew words according to Strong's Concordance, in sentences either taken directly from Scripture, or paraphrased sentences which state scriptural truth, to determine numerical values. The numerical value of sentences written in such a manner (Hebrew is written from right to left) is then shown to be equal to that of Greek words which confirm the truth of the sentence.

Isaiah 53, begins with a prophecy of the coming of the Messiah, who is called the “arm of the Lord.” Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. Isaiah 53:1-2. Isaiah asked, “Who has believed our report?” The report is the prophecy of Isaiah and other prophets regarding the coming of the Messiah. The Hebrew word for “Messiah” means “the anointed one.” The Greek word Χριστός from which the English word “Christ” arises, has the same meaning. The “arm of the Lord” is the Messiah, the anointed one.

Who (H4100) has believed (H539) the prophecy? (H5016) For he shall grow up (H5927) before (H6440) you as a tender plant. (H3126)

Who (H4100) has believed (H539) the report (H8052) of the prophets (H8052) to (H5921) whom (H4100) the arm (H2220) of the LORD, (H3068) the Messiah, (H4899) has been revealed? (H1540)

In Chapter 52 of Isaiah, it is written: Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. Isaiah 52:9-10. The “holy arm of the Lord” who brings salvation is in reference to the prophesied Messiah. When “holy” is added to “arm of the Lord,” in the words from Isaiah 53:1, the identity of the arm of the Lord is revealed by gematria.

Who (H4100) has believed (H539) our report? (H8052) and to (H5921) whom (H4100) is the holy (H6944) arm (H2220) of the LORD (H3068) revealed? (H1540) For he shall grow up

Each of the next three sentences for which gematria values are determined has the same value.

Isaiah 53:1-2, prophesies the coming of the “arm of the Lord,” the Messiah; and in earlier chapters of Isaiah the birth of a special son was prophesied: For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6. The son that was prophesied is the “arm of the Lord,” the Messiah, Jesus Christ.

As with 888 for the Greek spelling of Jesus, since there will be many other sentences which have a numerical value of 2368 and 3168, equal to the Greek spelling of Jesus Christ and Lord Jesus Christ, respectively, the Greek spelling of these words will not be shown in those instances.

Isaiah, the prophet of old, prophesied the birth of Jesus, and this is proven by the following sentence which uses the root word spelling of each word that is found in Isaiah 53:1-2.

The prophet (H5030) of (H4480) old, (H5769) Isaiah, (H3470) prophesied (H5012) of Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) saying, (H559) Who (H4100) has believed (H539) our report? The “arm of the Lord,” the prophesied Messiah of the Jews, Jesus Christ, came, but the Jews rejected and persecuted him. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Isaiah 53:3-5.

The prophet Isaiah prophesied that the “arm of the Lord” would be despised and rejected.

In the Old Testament, when a translation of “to be” is given, the Hebrew word H1961 may or may not be used. In the two sentences to follow, each of these options is used, and the gematria value confirms that the Son of God is the arm of the Lord.

The arm (H2220) of the LORD (H3068) was revealed (H1540) to be the Son (H1121) of God (H430) and according to prophecy, (H5016) he was despised (H959) and rejected. (H2310)

As noted previously, in Chapter 52 of Isaiah, the redeemer of Jerusalem is referred to as the Lord’s holy arm. Jesus Christ, the Son of man, and Son of God, is the holy arm of the Lord, who was despised and rejected.

Who (H4100) has believed (H539) our report? (H8052) and to (H5921) whom (H4100) is the arm (H2220) of the LORD (H3068) revealed? Through four different gematria values in the following examples, it is confirmed that Jesus Christ was rejected.

In the next seven numerical word associations, the truth of Isaiah's prophecy is confirmed by gematria values related to the name of Jesus.

The arm (H2220) of the LORD (H3068) was revealed, (H1540) but (H3588) he was despised (H959) and rejected (H2310) of men. (H376)

68 + 311 + 42 + 14 + 26 + 283 = 744

The numerical value of 744 is that of the Hebrew root word spelling of Yeshua Messiah, which is translated Jesus Christ.

YESHUA (JESUS) (H3442) MESSIAH (CHRIST) (H4899) = ישוע משיח = 358 + 386 = 744

Jesus fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah regarding the rejection of the Messiah.

According to the prophet (H5030) Isaiah, (H3470) the Son (H1121) of man, (H120) and Son (H1121) of God, (H430) would be despised (H959) and rejected. (H2310)

נביא ישעיה בן אדם בן אלהים בזה חדל

42 + 14 + 86 + 52 + 45 + 52 + 395 + 63 = 749

The root word for "Messiah" that I have used has a gematria value of 358. In proper Hebrew grammar, when referring to a definite article, the letter ה preceding the root word means "the." Therefore, the spelling for "the Messiah" when using proper grammar is המשיח which has a gematria value of 363 instead of 358. The gematria value for YESHUA, THE MESSIAH, is then 749.

YESHUA HA-MASHIACH (YESHUA THE MESSIAH / JESUS CHRIST) = ישוע המשיח = 363 + 386 = 749

The Son (H1121) of God (H430) came, (H935) and he was despised (H959) and rejected (H2310) of men; (H376) a man (H376) of sorrows. (H4341)

68 + 48 + 351 + 12 + 31 + 310 + 42 + 14 + 12 = 888 = JESUS

The Son (H1121) of God (H430) came, (H935) and he was despised (H959) and rejected (H2310) of men; (H376) a man (H376) of sorrows (H4341) and acquainted (H3045) with grief. (H2483) Surely (H403) he (H1931) has borne (H5375) our griefs, (H2483) and carried (H5445) our sorrows: (H4341) yet we (H587) did esteem (H2803) him smitten (H5221) of God, (H430) and afflicted. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Isaiah 53:6. In Isaiah it is written that the iniquity of us all was laid on the “arm of the Lord,” and in the New Testament it proclaims that the sacrifice of Jesus Christ redeems us from all iniquity. For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Titus 2:11-14. Gematria confirms that the iniquity of us all was laid upon Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

All (H3605) we like sheep (H6629) have gone astray; (H8582) we have turned (H6437) everyone (H376) to his own way; (H1870) and the Son (H1121) of God (H430) has had laid (H6293) on him (H853) the iniquity (H5771) of us all. (H3605)

In the Old Testament, the English translation of “according to,” is often written in Hebrew without any word being used for “according to.” It is also written with the Hebrew word H5921 in many instances. In the following sentence, H5921 is used for “according to;” and either of these options will be used in gematria examples to follow.

According to (H5921) the prophecy (H5016) of Isaiah, (H3470) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the Son (H1121) of man, (H120) and Son (H1121) of God, (H430) was despised (H959) and rejected. (H2310)

The “Passion of Christ” is the period of suffering which Jesus endured from the night before his crucifixion until his death on the cross. A Greek word which has a gematria value of 946 is a word from which the English word for “passion” arises.

SUFFER (G3958) = πάσχειν = 946

Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the only (H3173) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) was wounded (H2490) for (H4480) our transgressions. (H6588)

450 + 90 + 68 + 86 + 52 + 32 + 358 = 1136

PUT TO DEATH (G2289) = θανατοῦτε = 1136

The reason that Jesus Christ endured suffering and was crucified, was so that there would be remission of sins; which is attested to by the words of Jesus: For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Matthew 26:28. This truth was emphasized by Paul in his letter to the Romans: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; Romans 3:23-25. This scriptural truth is confirmed by the following numerical word association.

The Son (H1121) of man (H120) was wounded (H2490) for our transgressions, (H6588) and bruised (H1792) for our iniquities. (H5771)

$$126 + 25 + 450 + 68 + 45 + 52 = 766$$

REMISSION / FORGIVENESS (G859) = ἄφεσις = 766

Jesus Christ was despised and rejected. He was afflicted and wounded for our transgressions; and was ultimately crucified. The following gematria example confirms this truth.

Isaiah (H3470) prophesied (H5012) that the LORD (H3068) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) would be despised (H6031) and rejected (H2310) of men, (H376) smitten (H5221) of God, (H430) and afflicted. (H6031)

Each of the next three sentences has the same gematria value of 1879, which further confirms that Isaiah 53 prophesies the crucifixion of Jesus. In the first two examples below, the Hebrew word H4480, translated as “for” in relation to transgressions and iniquities in the verse from Isaiah, is not used. This is consistent with Scripture, as often in the Old Testament a word for “for,” either H4480 or H5921, is not used.

The Son (H1121) of man (H120) and Son (H1121) God (H430) was despised (H6031) and rejected (H2310) of men; (H376) we did esteem (H2803) him smitten (H5221) of God, (H430) and afflicted. Isaiah wrote the following: All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. Isaiah 53:6-7. In the New Testament book of Acts, there is a story of the apostle Philip meeting a man from Ethiopia while traveling, and referred to this passage of Scripture in relation to Jesus: And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him. The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: in his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus. Acts 8:27-35. Gematria evidence confirms that the prophecy of Isaiah 53:6-7, was fulfilled in Jesus.

Jesus was brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and was crucified, which is referred to in the New Testament as being “hanged on a tree.” The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Acts 5:30. In the Old Testament it is written that anyone hanged on a tree is cursed of God: And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree: his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) Deuteronomy 21:22-23. In the New Testament, Paul wrote in Galatians that Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law because his sacrifice upon the cross for our sins has redeemed us: Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Galatians 3:13. Gematria confirms that Jesus Christ was crucified, and “hanged on a tree.”

In the New Testament, the apostle Peter's first letter relates closely to the prophecy of Isaiah: For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. 1Peter 2:21-25. Jesus bore our sins in his own body on the tree.

The LORD (H3068) was despised (H959) and rejected; (H2310) a man (H376) of sorrows, (H4341) who (H834) bore (H5375) our sins (H2403) in his own body (H6106) on (H5921) the tree. (H6086) He was wounded (H2490) for (H4480) our transgressions, (H6588) and was bruised (H1792) for (H4480) our iniquities: (H5771) and with his stripes (H2250) the LORD (H3068) has healed (H7495) us.

Isaiah 53, concludes with the following three verses. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin... He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Isaiah 53:10-12.

The prophet Isaiah lived in the 8th century BCE. His prophecies regarding the Messiah came approximately 700 years before the coming of Christ. In a previous article pertaining to Isaiah's prophesied birth of a son, who would be conceived of a virgin (Isaiah 9:6 and Isaiah 7:14), I demonstrated gematria evidence which confirms that those prophecies came 700 years before the birth of Jesus Christ. It can also be shown that the prophecy of Isaiah 53 predicted the sufferings, and crucifixion of Jesus, 700 years before it occurred.

Isaiah's prophecy regarding the sufferings of Jesus Christ was made seven hundred years before it came to pass.

The prophet (H5030) Isaiah (H3470) prophesied, (H5012) saying, (H559) He was despised (H6031) and rejected. (H2310) He was wounded (H2490) for our transgressions, (H6588) and bruised (H1792) for our iniquities. (H5771)

נביא ישעיה נבא אמר בזה חדל חלל מן פשע דכא מן עון

126 + 90 + 25 + 450 + 90 + 68 + 42 + 14 + 241 + 53 + 395 + 63 = 1657

SEVEN (G2033) HUNDRED (G1540) YEARS (G2094) BEFORE (G4253) = ἑπτὰ ἑκατόν ἔτος πρό = 386 + 446 + 575 + 250 = 1657

Seven (H7651) hundred (H3967) years (H8141) after (H310) it was prophesied, (H5012) the only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) poured out (H6168) his soul (H5315) unto death, (H4194) and bore (H5375) the sin (H2399) of many. (H7227)

18 + 351 + 446 + 430 + 275 + 52 + 44 + 32 + 53 + 209 + 355 + 46 + 372 = 2683

ESAIAS (ISAIAH) (G2268) PROPHESED (G2263) = Ἡσαΐας προοφητεύω = 420 + 2263 = 2683

The prophet (H5030) Isaiah (H3470) prophesied, (H5012) saying, (H559) He was despised (H6031) and rejected (H2310) of men, (H376) smitten (H5221) of God, (H430) and afflicted. (H6031) He (H1931) was wounded (H2490) for (H4480) our transgressions, (H6588) and bruised (H1792) for (H4480) our iniquities; (H5771) and with his stripes (H2250) he has healed (H7495) us. The prophecy (H5016) was fulfilled (H4390) after (H310) seven (H7651) hundred (H3967) years, (H8141) when (H3588) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the only (H3173) Son, (H1121) was hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the tree (cross). 90 + 25 + 450 + 90 + 68 + 12 + 125 + 86 + 311 + 42 + 14 + 241 + 53 + 395 + 63 = 5022

PROPHESIED (G4395) JESUS (G2424) WOULD BE CRUCIFIED (G4717) = προφητεύω
Ἰησοῦς σταυρώω = 2263 + 888 + 1871 = 5022

The final gematria association which uses the words that are found in several verses of Isaiah 53, confirms the most important aspect of the prophecy.

Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) the Son (H1121) of God, (H430) was despised (H959) and rejected; (H2310) he was wounded (H2490) for (H4480) our transgressions, (H6588) and bruised (H1792) for (H4480) our iniquities. (H5771) For (H4480) the transgressions (H6588) of the people (H5971) he was stricken. (H5061) He was brought (H2986) as a lamb (H7716) to the slaughter, (H2874) and was made (H7760) an offering for sin. (H817) He poured out (H6168) his soul (H5315) unto death, (H4194) and bore (H5375) the sin (H2399) of many, (H7227) and made intercession (H6293) for the transgressors. (H6586)

Devout Jews believe that the Tanach, the Old Testament of the Christian Bible, is the word of God that was spoken to men. Christians believe that all Scripture, both the Old and New Testaments, were written by men as they were inspired by God. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: 2Timothy 3:16. It is also a foundation of Christian doctrine that every prophecy of Scripture is from God, and not from men: Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2Peter 1:20-21.

Isaiah was inspired by the Spirit of God to write prophecies which foretold the coming of Jesus Christ, and the sufferings which he would endure, seven hundred years prior to the incarnation of God in the flesh. The prophecies of Isaiah pertaining to Jesus, the Messiah, were fulfilled, and the numerical value of Hebrew and Greek words lends support to this claim. Of greatest importance is the reason for the sufferings and sacrifice of Jesus which Isaiah proclaimed in his prophecy. The righteous servant, Jesus Christ was made an offering for sin; we are justified, because he has borne our iniquity and sins, and makes intercession for transgressors. Just as the rejection of Jesus by the Jews, and his death as a sin offering occurred as it was prophesied, the justification of men is a reality for all who acknowledge Jesus' sacrifice upon the cross.
