

Chapter 9

The Resurrection of Jesus

Jesus was delivered unto the Gentiles, who mocked him as the King of the Jews, tortured him, and ultimately crucified him. However, no one took Jesus' life; he laid it down of his own free will, as a manifestation of God's love for all mankind. The death of Jesus was not the end, because he arose from the dead, as he had told his disciples beforehand. The resurrection of Jesus Christ is paramount to Christian doctrine. Paul made this point perfectly clear in his first letter to the Church at Corinth when he wrote: Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: and if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: and if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. 1 Corinthians 15:12-19. Jesus had said that he would arise again on the third day, but did Jesus really arise from the dead? There are many who doubt the resurrection. However, Christ was, indeed, raised from the dead. Earlier in Paul's letter to the church in Corinth, he wrote: For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: 1 Corinthians 15:3-4.

Those who place their trust in Jesus Christ will be raised with him in the end: But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 1 Corinthians 15:20-23. Christianity is not simply a humanistic philosophy which guides one to live according to the teachings of Jesus concerning charity and love for one's neighbor, as some would claim. It is the belief that Jesus Christ is God in the flesh, who died for our sins, and arose from the dead. Anything less and our faith is in vain, because if Christ did not arise, then the promise that those who believe in him will also be raised, is a false hope.

Each of the four Gospels tells of a man named Joseph from the town of Arimathea who took the body of Jesus down from the cross and buried him in his own sepulcher. This is how it is recorded in the Gospel of Matthew: When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: he went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. Matthew 27:57-60.

Gematria confirms that Joseph of Arimathea buried Jesus in his own tomb.

The body of Jesus was laid in the tomb provided by Joseph of Arimathea, and according to the Bible, on the third day after the crucifixion of Christ, the stone was rolled away from the sepulcher, and Jesus arose from the dead. That which is written in the Bible is true. Three days after Jesus was crucified, and placed into a sepulcher with a great stone in front of the door, the stone was miraculously rolled away, Jesus arose from the dead, and came forth out of the tomb. Although there are slight variations in how the four Gospels describe this event, the salient feature of each narrative is that the stone was rolled away, Jesus Christ arose, and the tomb was found to be empty.

Jesus had told his disciples that he would be put to death: Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on: and they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. Luke 18:31-33. If Jesus was only mocked, and abused, and spit upon, and scourged, and put to death, there would be no reason for hope of our own resurrection when Christ returns. However, the final thing that Jesus said would occur is that on the third day he would be raised again. What Jesus said would occur after he was put to death; that he would be raised from the dead, is confirmed by gematria.

Jesus told his disciples that he would be crucified, and rise again the third day. Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. Luke 24:7. When the Hebrew words for “hung upon the tree (cross)” are used for “crucified,” the truth of Scripture is made apparent.

Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) the only (H3173) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) said, (H559) The Son (H1121) of man (H120) must be delivered (H5414) into the hands (H3027) of sinful (H2400) men, (H120) and be hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the tree (cross), (H6086) and the third (H7992) day (H3117) rise (H6965) again. When Jesus told his disciples what was about to happen concerning his crucifixion and resurrection, he spoke metaphorically of the temple being destroyed, only to be raised after three days: Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of his body. When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. John 2:19-22. Gematria using Hebrew root words to state what was written in Greek confirms that Jesus Christ is the temple of God which was raised up three days after being destroyed.

Jesus said that he would be put to death, and he was crucified.

The LORD (H3068) answered (H6030) and said (H559) unto (H413) them, Destroy (H8045) this (H2088) temple (H1964) and in three (H7969) days (H3117) I will raise it up (H6965) again. (H3254)

CRUCIFY (G4717) = σταυροῦνται = 1832

Jesus said that the temple, which is representative of his body, would be raised up in three days.

The Son (H1121) of God (H430) answered (H6030) and said, (H559) Destroy (H8045) this (H2063) temple (H1964) and after (H310) three (H7969) days (H3117) I will raise it up. (H6965)

When a different root word for “destroy” is used the truth is still confirmed.

The only (H3173) Son (H1121) of God (H430) answered (H6030) and said, (H559) Destroy (H7843) this (H2088) temple (H1964) and after (H310) three (H7969) days (H3117) I will raise it up. (H6965)

The Greek word that is used for “raise it up” has the meaning of “to awaken” or “to rise up.” An equivalent Hebrew root word, different from the one used above, is used in the following sentence regarding Jesus’ response to the questions from the Jews.

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) answered (H6030) and said (H559) unto (H413) the Jews, (H3064) Destroy (H7843) this (H2088) temple, (H1964) and in three (H7969) days (H3117) I (H589) will raise it up. (H5782) But (H3588) he spoke (H559) of the temple (H1964) of his body. (H6106)

The only (H3173) Son (H1121) of God (H430) said, (H559) Destroy (H7843) the temple (H1964) of God, (H430) which (H834) is my body, (H6106) and after (H310) three (H7969) days (H3117) I will raise it up (H6965) again. (H3254)

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) was hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the tree (cross) (H6086) and died, (H4191) and arose (H6965) again. (H5750)

Jesus was crucified and died, and then he was buried in the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea. A description of what occurred on the morning of the first day of the week following Christ's crucifixion and burial is slightly different in each of the four Gospels. In Matthew, the events are described in the following way: In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. Matthew 28:1-6.

The Gospel of Mark describes it a bit differently: And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. Mark 16:1-6.

In Luke, it is written: Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: and as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. Luke 24:1-7.

The Gospel of John describes the events in the following way: The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. John 20:1-2. After telling Peter and the other disciples what they found, Mary then returns to the sepulcher, and John writes: But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, and seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. John 20:11-13. Each of the narratives in the Gospels is essentially the same, except for slight variations. Whatever the exact circumstances of the events described in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, the truth of the resurrection and the empty tomb is confirmed by gematria.

Mary and the other women came to the sepulcher seeking the body of Jesus, and according to Luke, two men in shining garments, i.e. angels, asked them why they were seeking the living among the dead, because the risen Jesus Christ was not there.

Why (H4100) do you seek (H1245) the living (H2416) among (H8432) the dead? (H4191) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) is not (H3808) here, (H6311) he is risen. (H6965)

Whereas in Luke, it is written that “two men in shining garments” spoke to the women at the tomb, in Matthew, it says that there was one angel of the Lord, and in Mark, it was one “young man.” John wrote that it was two angels. When the Hebrew word for “angel(s)” is used in place of “two men in shining garments,” which is what the men who spoke to the women were, scriptural truth is confirmed by gematria.

They came (H935) and found (H4672) the stone (H68) rolled away, (H1556) and an angel (H4397) said (H559) unto (H413) them, He (H1931) is not (H3808) here, (H6311) but (H3588) is risen. (H6965)

In the Gospel of Matthew, instead of the angel asking the women why they were seeking the living among the dead, it is written that he told them that he knew they were seeking Jesus, but he was not there because he had risen. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. Matthew 28:5-6. In the following re-statement of what is written in this passage of Scripture, the Hebrew words for “hung upon the cross (tree)” are used in place of “crucified.”

The angel (H4397) said (H559) unto (H413) the women, (H802) Fear (H3372) not, (H3808) I (H589) know (H3045) that you seek (H1245) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) who (H834) was hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the cross (tree). (H6086) He (H1931) is not (H3808) here. (H6311)

It was on the third day after Jesus died that an angel of the Lord came and rolled away the stone, and Jesus arose from the dead.

On the third (H7992) day (H3117) after (H311) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) was buried (H6912) the angel (H4397) of the LORD (H3068) rolled away (H1556) the stone, (H68) and Jesus (Yeshua) (H3443) arose. (H6965)

Jesus said that he would arise after three days, and it is written in Scripture that the resurrection of Christ occurred as he had foretold.

It is written, (H3789) the body (H6106) of Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) was raised (H6965) from (H4480) the dead (H4191) the third (H7992) day. (H3117)

They did not find the body of Jesus in the tomb because of his resurrection, which is confirmed by the Greek words which have the same numerical value as the following four sentences, even when a different Hebrew root word is used for “sepulcher/tomb” in each sentence.

The stone (H68) was rolled away (H1556) from (H4480) the sepulcher, (H6900) and he was not (H3808) in (H5921) the sepulcher. (H6900)

The death of Jesus Christ upon the cross was not the end, because he was raised from the dead to be our Savior. It is written in the Bible that God raised Jesus from the dead after he was slain upon the cross, and exalted him to be Prince and Savior: The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. Acts 5:30-31.

LORD JESUS CHRIST

In Scripture, Jesus is said to be the firstborn of the dead: And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have preeminence. Colossians 1:18. Confirmation that Jesus is the firstborn from the dead is apparent from the following gematria evidence.

God (H430) raised up (H6965) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) from (H4480) the dead (H4191) the third (H7992) day. (H3117)

A simple statement of truth according to what is written in the Bible is confirmed by the numerical value of the following sentence.

Christ (H4899) was hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the cross (tree) (H6086) and died (H4191) as a sacrifice, (H2077) and arose (H6965) the third (H7992) day. (H3117)

Further evidence that what is proclaimed in the Bible concerning the death and resurrection of Jesus is true, and that gematria confirms the truth, can be found in the following.

It is written, (H3789) Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) died (H4191) upon (H5921) the cross (tree), (H6086) God (H430) raised (H6965) him the third (H7992) day, (H3117) and he came forth (H3318) out of (H4480) the grave. (H6913)

Just as Jesus told his disciples, after he was crucified and died, he arose again the third day.

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) offered (H2076) himself the one (H259) sacrifice (H2077) for sins, (H2403) and was hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the cross (tree) (H6086) and died; (H4191) but (H3588) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) arose (H6965) again (H5750) the third (H7992) day. (H3117)

The world continues to deny the truth that is written in Holy Scripture which tells us that Jesus was crucified and died for our sins, but arose from the dead; after which he ascended to heaven where he sits upon the throne at the right hand of God. The numerical value of words provides confirmation of what the Bible proclaims.

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) was hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the cross (tree), (H6086) and arose (H6965) from (H4480) the dead. (H4191)

CRUCIFY (G4717) = σταύρωσον = 2121

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) was hung (H8518) upon (H5921) the cross (tree), (H6086) arose (H6965) from (H4480) the dead, (H4191) and Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) sits (H3427) upon (H5921) the throne (H3678) at the right hand (H3225) of God. (H430)

= LORD JESUS CHRIST

Jesus Christ, God manifest in the flesh, sacrificed himself, and died upon the cross at Calvary. His death upon the cross fulfilled the Law which required a blood sacrifice for the forgiveness of sins. All previous sacrifices which had been performed by priests were not able to take away sins, but served as a pattern for Jesus' one sacrifice for sins forever. As a result, all mankind is offered the opportunity to be considered righteous in the eyes of God by the acknowledgement Jesus' sacrificial death upon the cross. The only requirement for salvation is for one to believe that Jesus is the Son of God, that he died for our sins, and that he arose again the third day.
