

Chapter 11

Jesus Revealed Throughout the Bible

Jesus came to fulfill the Law and the Prophets, and the numerical word associations which have been shown so far in this book provide evidence to confirm that he fulfills everything that was prophesied concerning the Messiah in the Old Testament, and all that was written about him in the New Testament: including his birth, his human and divine nature, his crucifixion, and resurrection. The purpose of the Bible is to bring men to the knowledge of Jesus Christ as the only pathway to salvation. Jesus is revealed for whom he is, through the gematria values of sentences consistent with what is written in a variety of verses throughout both the Old and New Testaments, which will be demonstrated in this chapter.

Isaiah prophesied that God would send a savior who would deliver the people: And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them. Isaiah 19:20. Jesus is confirmed as the Savior which the Lord God promised to send.

It was prophesied in the Old Testament that God would send a Savior. In the New Testament it is written that God sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Jesus was sent by the Father so that through his sacrifice we might have propitiation for our sins, and all men might be saved: In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. 1 John 4:9-10, 14.

Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, was the manifestation of God's love toward mankind.

Jesus is the Messiah, the Christ, sent by the Father to be the Savior of the world. (As noted previously, the name John in Hebrew versions of the New Testament is Yochanan, and is written as יוֹחָנָן which has a gematria value of 124, and will be used in the following gematria example. Also, in this passage of Scripture from 1 John, no word is used for “to be” in “to be the Savior,” and the Hebrew word for “to be” is not used in the following sentence as well.)

John (no Strong's #) wrote, (H3789) And we have seen (H7200) and do testify (H6030) that (H3588) the Father (H1) sent (H7971) the Son, (H1121) to be the Savior. (H3467)

In the context of what is written in 1 John 4:9-10, 14, the following clearly states the message which John conveyed in these verses. The Hebrew word for “we” (H587) is only used occasionally in the Old Testament, and will be used in the sentence.

God (H430) manifested (H7200) his love (H157) of toward (H413) us. And we (H587) have seen (H7200) it, and do testify (H6030) that the Father (H1) sent (H7971) Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) his Son, (H1121) to be the Savior (H3467) of the world. For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. Isaiah 43:3. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Holy One of Israel, is the Savior whom God sent, to give himself for a ransom. When the prophecy of Isaiah is altered to state this biblical teaching, while using the same Hebrew root words, the truth of Scripture is confirmed.

For (H3588) I (H589) am the Son (H1121) of God, (H430) the Holy One (H6918) of Israel, (H3478) thy Savior: (H3467) I gave (H5414) myself for a ransom, (H3724) for (H8478) thee.

The word for “God” that is used first in this verse is the shortened form of Elohim which is El, אל, with a gematria value of 31. The more commonly used word for “God” is Elohim, אֱלֹהִים, which has the gematria value of 86. Truly, Jesus is the God of Israel, the Savior, and this is confirmed when the word for “God” with a value of 31 is used.

SINNER / SINFUL (G268) (root word spelling) = ἁμαρτωλός = 1542

When the truth of both Matthew 15:24, and Luke 19:10, is combined, gematria confirms what Jesus said.

The prophet Isaiah proclaimed that the Lord is he who blots out the transgressions of man, and through whom we are justified: I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for my own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified. Isaiah 43:25-26. The prophet Jeremiah wrote that God promised to make a new covenant: Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and will remember their sin no more. Jeremiah 31:31-34.

The writer of Hebrews referred to the passage of Scripture from Jeremiah in relation to Jesus: But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more. Hebrews 8:6-12. The new covenant is salvation through the shed blood of Christ which blots out our iniquities, and our sins are remembered no more.

The Old Testament promise that our sins would be forgiven and remembered no more is fulfilled in Jesus, by whose blood our sins are blotted out, and we are justified in the sight of God as proclaimed in the New Testament: For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. Matthew 26:28. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from the wrath through him. Romans 5:9. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Ephesians 1:7. In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins. Colossians 1:14.

In the passage from Isaiah, God says that to be justified we must "put him in remembrance." In the New Testament it is written: And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 1 Corinthians 11:24-25. Gematria confirms that it is through the blood of Jesus, the Son of God, by which our transgressions are blotted out, our sins are forgiven, and by acknowledgement and remembrance of his sacrifice for our sins we are justified.

It was written by the prophet Isaiah that the outward appearance of the Messiah would not be such that he would be desired: Who hath believed our report? And to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of the dry ground: he hath no form or comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. Isaiah 53:1-3. In the Gospel of John, there is reference made to this passage of Scripture in relation to Jesus: But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: that the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? John 12:37-38. Jesus performed many miracles which revealed that he was the Messiah, but still many would not believe because his appearance was not that which they expected of the promised savior.

By using the Hebrew root words found in the Old Testament, gematria confirms the prophecy of Isaiah regarding the appearance of the Messiah. The word translated in the KJV of The Bible as “form” means “figure or external appearance.” The appearance of Jesus was not such that it would draw people to him.

For (H3588) the LORD (H3068) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) shall grow up (H5927) as a root (H8328) out of the dry (H6723) ground: (H4480) (H776) and when we shall see (H7200) him, there is no (H3808) beauty (H4758) that (H3588) we should desire (H2530) him.

Isaiah wrote that the Messiah would grow up “as a root out of the dry ground.” In an earlier chapter of Isaiah, it is written that the Messiah would be “a root of Jesse”: And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious. Isaiah 11:10. In his letter to the Romans, Paul wrote that Jesus fulfilled this prophecy of Isaiah: And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. Romans 15:12. Gematria confirms that Jesus fulfills the prophecy found in both Isaiah 11, and Isaiah 53. Jesus is the promised root of Jesse to whom the Gentiles shall seek.

According to Isaiah, God promised that the Messiah would not only restore Israel, but he would also be the salvation of the Gentiles: And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. Isaiah 49:6. In the New Testament, Jesus Christ is proclaimed as the God of both Jews and Gentiles: Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Romans 3:29-30. Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles? Romans 9:24. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1 Corinthians 12:12-13. Gematria confirms that Jesus Christ, the servant of God, is the Savior of all men, both the Jews and also the Gentiles.

Isaiah prophesied that God would come to save the people: Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save you. Isaiah 35:4. It is confirmed through gematria that Jesus is God our Savior who will come in the end with vengeance to save those who call upon his name. Those who are afraid are told to fear not because God will come to save them.

The first time that Jesus came it was to be the one sacrifice for the sins of the whole world forever, so that all men might be justified and reconciled to God. When Jesus Christ comes again it will not be as the humble servant of his first appearance, but as a conquering King, to gather the elect, and also render God's judgment upon those who have rejected God's gift of salvation.

In Jeremiah, it is written that the righteous Branch will execute judgment: Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Jeremiah 23:5-6. Jesus Christ is the Branch of righteousness from the lineage of David, and in the Gospel of John it is written that God has given his Son the authority to judge the earth: For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. John 5:22-29. When the Lord comes again in the end, he will execute judgement.

In Psalms, it speaks of the stone which the builders rejected: The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. Psalms 118:22-23. Jesus spoke of this prophecy: And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner: Mark 12:10. Jesus is the promised Messiah, whom the Jews did not acknowledge. That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith. But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. Romans 9:30-33. The Lord God is the first and the last: *Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. Isaiah 44:6. In John's vision that is recorded in Revelation, Jesus speaks to him: ...Fear not; I am the first and the last: I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive forever more, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death. Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter. Revelation 1:17-19. Jesus is the first and the last, and also he that lives and was dead, and is alive forever.

I (H589) am the Son (H1121) of God (H430) that lives (H2416) and was dead (H4191) and I (H589) am alive (H2416) forever more. (H5769)

Jesus fulfills the prophecies of Scripture; the most critical of which is that by his sacrifice, and the shedding of his blood, it is possible for all of one's sins to be forgiven, and to be justified in the sight of God. Each of the prophecies mentioned has already been fulfilled. Although some believe that the events which are prophesied in the Book of Revelation already transpired in the first century AD, most Christians are of the opinion that they are yet to occur. The vision John describes in Revelation includes that of a book with seven seals, which when opened initiates the final judgment of God upon ungodly men. According to Scripture, there is only one who is worthy to open the book: And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book... sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and loose the seals thereof? And no man in heaven, nor in the earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and loose the seven seals thereof. And I beheld, and, lo... a Lamb as it had been slain... And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. And when he had taken the book... they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God, by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. Revelation 5:1-10. Only the Lamb of God is worthy to loose the seven seals of the book.

Only (H3173) the Lamb (H3532) of God (H430) is worthy. (H2428)

Jesus, the Lamb that was slain, is the only one who is worthy to loose the seven seals, and open the book.

The Hebrew word for "loose" is also used for "open." If this meaning of the word is used, then it is again proven that only Jesus is able to open the book.

The Book of Revelation is a prophecy of events which will occur in the end times. Gematria confirms that in the end Jesus will be found worthy to open the book with seven seals.

For many different prophecies regarding the Messiah, and New Testament claims regarding Jesus, gematria confirms that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was written about him. He is the root that has come forth out of the dry ground, the Root of Jesse, the root and offspring of David. The one who was rejected and despised, and was wounded for our transgressions, is Jesus. By his stripes we are healed because he has borne our iniquities. God has given Jesus as a covenant of the people, and he is the light of the Gentiles among whom he has become great. Jesus is the Savior that the Lord promised to send. He is confirmed as the stone that was rejected, and who has become the head stone of the corner, and he is also the stone of stumbling to the Jews. Jesus is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. He is the one that lives and was dead. Gematria confirms that Jesus is the Branch, the Lord our Righteousness. Jesus is the one who is able to blot out the sins of men with his blood. He is the Lamb of God who is the only one worthy to open the book with seven seals in a prophecy yet to be fulfilled. In the end Jesus, the LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS will also come to execute God's judgment. Jesus is revealed throughout Scripture to be the Messiah our Savior. This truth has been made known to mankind through the inspiration of God upon the authors of the Bible, and the truth is confirmed in an incomprehensible way by the numerical value of words.
