Chapter 14
The Apostle Paul

Aside from Jesus himself, one man was perhaps the person most instrumental in establishing the doctrine of Christianity, and for spreading the gospel message outside of the Jewish community. That man was the Apostle Paul. His Jewish name was Saul, and was not changed to Paul when he converted to Christianity, as many believe. It was common in his day to have different names in Jewish, Roman, and Greek communities. Paul (Paulus) is the name by which he was known to Latin speaking Gentiles, and in Greek he was known as either Saulos or Paulos. Authorship of thirteen out of the 27 books that together compose the New Testament is attributed to the Apostle Paul.

The teachings of Paul emphasize the divinity of Jesus Christ, and the primacy of salvation by grace through faith as a result of the sacrificial death and resurrection of Christ. There are many that view Jesus as merely a good man and teacher through the prism of his Sermon on the Mount, and delegitimize the remainder of the New Testament. Jesus is seen as merely a man, and not the Son of God; and so, they reject the doctrine which Paul taught. Their argument is that Paul deviated from the teachings of Jesus, and instituted his own religion. In doing so, they deny that the words of Scripture were inspired by God, and particularly, they deny Paul's supernatural revelation from Jesus himself that took place on the road to Damascus.

In view of his beginnings, it would seem unlikely for this man to have become a leader of the early Christian movement. Paul was a Jew, a Pharisee, and as a member of this sect insisted upon strict adherence to Mosaic Law. He persecuted Christians as heretics before he was converted on the road to Damascus, where he was travelling to continue his persecution of Jewish Christians in that city. The story of his conversion is told in the Book of Acts: And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished. And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. Acts 22:4-11. Gematria in relation to what is written about Paul, and what he taught, confirms the truth of Scripture, and provides further evidence for divine inspiration of the Bible, and in particular, Paul's letters which establish Christian doctrine.

Before his conversion on the road to Damascus Saul, as called by the Jews, or Paul as known by Latin speaking Gentiles, persecuted Jews who were followers of Jesus Christ. In giving his testimony Paul said: And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. Acts 22:4.

Saul tormented the followers of Christ with his persecution. (In the gematria associations to follow, the Hebrew name of Saul will be used for "Saul/Paul.")

DELIVER UP / DELIVER ONE UP TO BE JUDGED (G3860) = παραδίδοται = 581

There is another word which has the gematria value of 581 and is especially pertinent to this scriptural truth. Later in the Book of Acts, Paul relates his story of conversion again*: I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having* received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, Acts 26:9-12. As Saul said, he was "exceedingly mad against" the followers of the way, and that is why he persecuted them.

MAD AGAINST / TO RAGE AGAINST ONE (G1693) = ἐμμαινόμενος = 581

Gematria confirms that Saul/Paul is the man who persecuted Jews that believed in Jesus.

 A follower of Christ in Damascus by the name of Ananias was told in a vision to look for Saul: And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. Acts 9:10-14. When Ananias was reluctant to approach Paul because he had heard of Paul's persecution against the followers of Christ, he was told the following: But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: for I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. Acts 9:15-17. Upon his conversion Paul was appointed a preacher and a teacher to the Gentiles: For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God; who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. 2 Timothy 1:7-11. Paul was appointed to be both a preacher and a teacher of the Gentiles, and this is shown to be true while using different Hebrew root words for "appointed."

When Saul returned to Jerusalem he was praying in the temple and went into a trance in which he heard Jesus speaking to him. Christ told him that the Jews in Jerusalem would not receive his testimony, and for that reason he was sent to proclaim the gospel to the Gentiles: And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; and saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me. And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: and when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. Acts 22:18-21.

The Christians in Jerusalem knew that Saul had imprisoned believers.

In a different passage of Scripture Paul relates his story of conversion, and what he was sent to do: And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Acts 26:14-18. While on his travels preaching the gospel, Paul was warned by a prophet that if he went to Jerusalem he would be bound and delivered into the hands of the Gentiles: And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus. And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Acts 21:10-13. Paul would not be deterred from going to Jerusalem, and said that he was ready to be bound or even die for the name of Jesus, and fulfilling his mission to preach the gospel to the Gentiles.

Saul was appointed a teacher of the Gentiles for one reason; to testify to what he had experienced so that all men; Jews and Gentiles alike, might receive the gospel message of salvation through Jesus Christ, and be saved. The writings of Paul are the foundation of Christian doctrine: According to the grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 3:10-11. By the grace of God, Paul was given the wisdom to lay the foundation of the one true faith that is able to save all men, and that foundation is Jesus Christ. Just as gematria has confirmed the truth of Paul's story of conversion and appointment to be a preacher and teacher to the Gentiles, it confirms that the doctrine which Paul taught is from the Lord, and not his own invention.

Paul was the masterbuilder who laid the foundation of the one true faith, which is Jesus Christ. As unbelievable as it may seem, the gematria association which decisively proves this truth was found simply as the result of inspiration from the Holy Spirit which led me to compose the following sentence. As with nearly every other random value correlation shown in this chapter, I had no prior knowledge of the calculated value for the sentence or what words might have the same numerical value.

Saul (H7586) laid the foundation (H3245) to unite (H3161) Jews (H3064) and Gentiles (H1471) in one (H259) truth (H571) which (H834) is Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah). (H4899)

358 + 386 + 501 + 441 + 13 + 19 + 35 + 22 + 74 + 337 = 2186

The Greek word that has a gematria value of 2186 is used only once in the Bible, and that one instance is in 1 Corinthians 3:10, where Paul refers to himself as the "wise masterbuilder." Even those who remain skeptical of the validity regarding the method of gematria which I have used must consider the random finding to be one of amazingly low probability to have occurred by chance.

MASTERBUILDER (G753) (root word spelling) = ἀρχιτέκτων = 2186

Saul, the wise masterbuilder, laid the foundation which is Jesus Christ.

The Old Testament prophet Zephaniah wrote: For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent. Zephaniah 3:9. There have been many interpretations as to what connotes "the pure language." The prophecy in Zephaniah is that the pure language will be given to the people so that all will call upon the name of the Lord and serve him with one consent. The implication is that all will come to know the one true God as a result of the pure language. Perhaps this pure language is the message of the gospel which has been made perfectly clear in the writings of Paul, and which, if accepted, will unite Jews and Gentiles in faith and worship of the one true God, and Christ his Son.

Paul was not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, because he had confidence that his sins were forgiven as Jesus had promised: For the which cause I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know in whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Timothy 1:12.

Saul was converted on the road to Damascus as the result of a supernatural appearance of Jesus Christ, who appointed him to be a preacher and a teacher among the Gentiles. The foundation upon which Paul built the doctrine of salvation by grace through faith is the belief in Jesus Christ and his sacrificial death upon the cross, and resurrection from the dead. This salvation is available for all who believe in Jesus Christ, both Jew and Gentile. There are some who try to delegitimize the doctrinal teachings of Paul as merely ideas coming from a man. However, Paul received a revelation of truth directly from Jesus, and was guided by the Holy Spirit in his writings. The gematria associations related to Paul which have been shown in this chapter should reveal conclusively that God ordained him to spread the gospel of Christ.

Paul, the servant of Jesus Christ, was committed to spreading the gospel message so that all men, both Jews and Gentiles, might be saved. Through the gematria correlations which are shown in this book, it is my desire to proclaim the gospel message, and attempt to convince the reader that what is written in the Bible is the one absolute truth which originates from the inspiration of God. It is my prayer that everyone who reads this will be persuaded that there is a Savior, Jesus Christ, who will keep that which is committed unto him against that Day of Judgment.
