

Image of the Invisible God:

The Bible makes the claim that God himself came to earth in the form of a man, Jesus Christ. The great mystery of godliness according to Paul in his first letter to Timothy, is that God was manifest in the flesh: And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1Timothy 3:16. Jesus Christ, the Son, was sent by God, the Father, so that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in order to make men free: There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Romans 8:1-4.

According to Scripture, Jesus, made in the likeness of men, even though he was God, humbled himself and became our sacrifice upon the cross: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Philippians 2:5-8. Through the blood Jesus shed we have been redeemed, and those who believe in him become partakers of the inheritance of the saints: Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: Colossians 1: 12-15.

Is the man called Jesus, God manifest in the flesh, the image of the invisible God, as the Bible claims? The numerical value of words confirms this essential truth of Christian faith. Gematria involves using the numerical value of words to discover associations between words, phrases, or sentences, of equal numerical value; a practice used from ancient times by Jewish scholars. The numerical value of words is easily determined for Hebrew as well as Greek, the languages of the Old Testament and New Testament, because both of these written languages uses letters of the alphabet to signify a number.

A variety of methods using the numerical value of words in the attempt to find hidden truth have been used. The method which I have employed is unique in that the gematria value of a sentence is determined by calculating the total numerical value of each Hebrew root word, and not the proper grammatical spelling of the word, that is used in a sentence of scriptural truth. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words (sometimes other Hebrew root words as well) from the Bible which have the same value. Through this unusual method of gematria, evidence will be shown in this paper that Jesus Christ is, indeed, God manifest in the flesh, the image of the invisible God.

In the modern Hebrew translation of the New Testament, the Hebrew root word for “invisible” which is used is עלם (Strong’s H5956), and means “to veil from sight, to hide or conceal,” and has a gematria value of 140. This Hebrew root word will be used for “invisible” in the following sentences for which gematria values are determined. The first gematria evidence to confirm that Jesus is the image of the invisible God is found in relation to the Hebrew name which has the same value as a short phrase using Hebrew root words.

Image (H6754) of the invisible (H5956) God. (H430)

צלם עלם אלהים

$$86 + 140 + 160 = 386$$

YESHUA (JESUS) (H3442) = ישוע = 386

The Greek word “Christ” means “the anointed,” which is the meaning of the Hebrew word for “messiah.” When the Hebrew root word for “messiah,” H4899, is added to the above phrase, we have the following gematria association. Again, the numerical values for Hebrew root words confirm that Jesus Christ is the image of the invisible God.

Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) is the image (H6754) of the invisible (H5956) God. (H430)

משיח צלם עלם אלהים

$$86 + 140 + 160 + 358 = 744$$

YESHUA (JESUS) (H3442) THE MESSIAH (CHRIST) (H4899) = משיח ישוע = 358 + 386 = 744

The claim that Christ, the Messiah, is the only begotten Son of God, and the image of the invisible God, is confirmed by the following gematria evidence. The first two examples of numerical word association were in relation to Hebrew words with the same value as the statement of scriptural truth. Now, the numerical associations will be shown as a result of Greek words from the Bible with equal gematria values to the truth from Scripture in which Hebrew root words are used to determine the gematria value for the sentences.

Jesus Christ is the image of God; the only begotten Son of God, who is God manifest in the flesh.

Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) is the image (H6754) of God. (H430)

As quoted at the beginning of this article, Paul wrote the following concerning Jesus: ...was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Philippians 2:8. The first of two sentences to follow which have the same gematria value of 1341 states this truth, with the Hebrew word H1823 used for “fashion,” which is another way that it is translated in the Bible.

The only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) was found (H4672) in fashion (H1823) as (H834) a man. (H120)

$$45 + 450 + 9 + 26 + 358 = 888$$

JESUS (G2424) = Ἰησοῦς = 888

Paul wrote in his letter to the Philippians that Jesus is equal with God, but humbled himself unto death upon the cross: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Philippians 2:5-8.

CHRIST (G5547) = Χριστός = 1480

Although Jesus was equal with God, he humbled himself, becoming a servant, and became obedient even unto death upon the cross. In several verses in the NT the cross upon which Jesus was crucified is called a “tree,” as in this verse from the Book of Acts: And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: Acts 10:39. Since the word for “cross” is not found in the OT, the Hebrew root word for “tree” is used instead of “cross” in the gematria evidence to follow.

Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the Son (H1121) of God, (H430) humbled himself, (H3665) and becoming (H1961) a servant (H5650) became obedient (H8085) unto (H413) the death (H4194) of the cross (tree). (H6086)

Only the word for “upon” is added to the sentence above, and is the first of two sentences which have a gematria value of 1879, which further confirms the truth of Philippians 2:8.

Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the Son (H1121) of God, (H430) humbled himself, (H3665) and becoming (H1961) a servant (H5650) became obedient (H8085) unto (H413) the death (H4194) upon (H5921) the cross (tree). (H6086)

A different gematria value

A different gematria value provides additional evidence to confirm that Jesus Christ humbled himself, and became obedient unto death upon the cross.

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the Son, (H1121) humbled himself, (H3665) and became obedient (H8085) unto (H413) death. (H4194)

The only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) being found (H4672) in the likeness (H1823) as (H834) a man, (H120) humbled himself (H3665) and became obedient (H8085) unto (H413) death. (H4194)

Jesus, through his sacrifice upon the cross, is the one in whom we have redemption through his blood. He is the image of the invisible God, as Paul proclaimed in the verses quoted earlier: Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: Colossians 1: 12-15.

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) in whom (H834) we have redemption (H1353) is the image (H6754) of the invisible (H5956) God. (H430)

The same was in the beginning with God.... And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.* John 1:1-2,14. The one in whom we have redemption and forgiveness of sins is “the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature,” as written in Colossians 1:15. The root word that is used in the Hebrew translation of the verse for “creature,” is the word meaning “to create.” The gematria value of the following sentence confirms that Jesus Christ is the image of the invisible God when this root word is used.

Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) is the Son (H1121) of man, (H120) and only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God, (H430) in whom (H834) we have redemption (H1353) through (H5921) his blood, (H1818) even the forgiveness (H5547) of sins. (H2403) He (H1931) is the image (H6754) of the invisible (H5956) God, (H430) the firstborn (H1060) of every (H3605) creature. (H1254)

At the end of the first chapter in 1Timothy, Paul said of Jesus that he is “the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God.” The word for “immortal” is not used in the OT. There are several Hebrew root words which can be used for “immortal.” One of these words is, אלמותי, which has a gematria value of 487. A different way of writing “immortal” is, בן אלמותי, which has a gematria value of 539. Yet another way of writing “immortal” is, בן אלמוות, which has a gematria value of 535. The use of these options for “immortal” provide an abundance of gematria evidence to confirm that Jesus is the image of the eternal, immortal, invisible, only wise God.

We are warned in Scripture to beware of those who do not confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh: Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. 1John 4:1-3. At the beginning of this paper, a rhetorical question was asked: is Jesus Christ the image of the invisible God, God manifest in the flesh, as proclaimed in Scripture? Is he the Word of God who was manifest in the flesh? Is Jesus the image of the invisible God in whom we have redemption, and forgiveness of sins through this blood? Is he the eternal, immortal, invisible, only wise God, who humbled himself to be a servant, and became obedient unto death upon the cross? Although the state of one's faith is the ultimate determinant in the answer to these questions, the gematria findings which have been shown certainly seem to confirm that which the Bible proclaims.
