

A Lively Hope:

At the time of this writing, the people of this country, and indeed, the entire world, have been filled with a sense of fear and despair. The coronavirus pandemic has resulted in widespread serious health problems, and millions of deaths, affecting the inhabitants in every nation of the world. Lockdowns which were instituted in the attempt to slow the spread of the virus, have led to devastating economic consequences, with many people losing their jobs and small businesses. In addition to this, there has been a great social upheaval, which has resulted in destructive riots in many cities. Inflation has risen to heights not seen in over 40 years. Crime is rampant, and people do not feel safe. These things have left many people feeling hopeless, and concerned for the future.

Despite the sense of doom, there is hope for the future, and it is only found in Jesus Christ; as proclaimed in 1Peter: Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; as obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: but as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: but the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you. 1Peter 1:13-25.

Those who believe in Jesus Christ are often referred to as “born again Christians.” Jesus himself said the following: Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. John 3:3. According to what is written at the beginning of 1Peter Chapter 1, God the Father has begotten us again unto a lively hope and an inheritance: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1Peter 1:3-5. Christians are born again unto a lively hope, and an inheritance that does not fade away, and we are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

The truth of 1Peter 1:3-5, is confirmed through the numerical value of words with a unique method of gematria. Gematria involves using the numerical value of words to discover associations between words, phrases, or sentences, of equal numerical value; a practice used from ancient times by Jewish scholars. The numerical value of words is easily determined for Hebrew as well as Greek, the languages of the Old Testament and New Testament, because each of these written languages use a letters of the alphabet to signify a numbers.

A variety of methods using the numerical value of words to find hidden truth have been used. The method which I have employed is unique in that the gematria value of a sentence is determined by calculating the total numerical value of each Hebrew root word, and not the proper grammatical spelling of the word, that is used in a sentence of scriptural truth. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words (sometimes other Hebrew root words as well) from the Bible which have the same value. In the gematria evidence to follow, each Hebrew root word that is used in a sentence is identified by its reference number according to Strong's Concordance. Associated Greek words, which may be alternate spellings of the words according to rules of grammar are also identified by their Strong's reference numbers. All of the gematria evidence contained in this article are related to just three verses: 1Peter 1:3-5.

Peter declared the blessedness of God the Father.

Blessed (H1288) be God (H430) the Father (H1) which has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope. (H3176)

Peter declared God the Father, blessed because, according to his abundant mercy, he has begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son.

God (H430) and Father (H1) of our Lord (H113) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) according to his abundant (H7227) mercy (H2617) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto a lively (H2416) hope. (H3176)

48 + 18 + 80 + 44 + 72 + 202 + 358 + 386 + 61 + 3 + 86 = 1358

The word “resurrection” means to raise up, and so the Hebrew root word for “raise up” (H6965) will be used in every instance for “resurrection.”

Blessed (H1288) be God (H430) the Father (H1) which has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H4480) the resurrection (H6965) of the only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God. (H430)

LIVE / BE ALIVE / LIVELY (G2198) = ζῶντες = 1362

So far, I have used the Hebrew word H3176 for “hope.” There is another Hebrew word with the meaning of “hope,” (H8615) and the root word spelling of this word is used in the following sentence. In the remainder of this paper, either of these words for “hope” will be used in sentences.

According to the mercy (H2617) of God (H430) the Father, (H1) we are begotten (H3205) again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H8615) by (H4480) the resurrection (H6965) of his Son. (H1121)

A different Hebrew word for “again” (H3254) is used in the next sentence, and will be used in place of H5750 in some other sentences.

Blessed (H1288) be the God (H430) and Father (H1) of Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) which according to his abundant (H7227) mercy, (H2617) has begotten (H3205) us again (H3254) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H4480) the resurrection (H6965) of the only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God. This same sentence is now written with the use of the other Hebrew word for “hope” (H8615)

God (H430) the Father (H1) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope. (H8615)

Sometimes in Scripture the Hebrew word for “according to” is not used, and at other times the word that is commonly used as a preposition in a variety of instances (H5921) is used, as in the next sentence.

Blessed (H1288) be God (H430) the Father (H1) which according to (H5921) his abundant (H7227) mercy (H2617) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto a lively (H2416) hope. (H3176)

$$52 + 146 + 90 + 48 + 18 + 31 + 150 + 44 + 3 + 86 + 422 = 1090$$

Each of these two sentences has a gematria value of 1090. The two Greek words below, which have the same value, provide confirmation of the truth that we are born again unto a lively hope because God has shown his abundant mercy to us.

ABUNDANT (G4183) MERCY (G1656) = πολὺς ἔλεος = 780 + 310 = 1090

Until now, I have used the Hebrew word H4480 for “by.” Another Hebrew word that is used in a variety of ways as a preposition (H5921) can also be used for “by.” Either of these two words will be used in various sentences.

God (H430) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a living (H2416) hope (H8615) by (H5921) the resurrection (H6965) of Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) his only (H3178) Son, (H1121) from (H4480) the dead. (H4191)

A Greek word (G4056) that is different from the one used in 1Peter 1:3 (G4183), for “abundant,” which means “more abundant,” is used in the confirmatory numerical word association below, which has the same numerical value as the two prior sentences.

ABUNDANT (G4056) MERCY (G1656) = περισσοτέρως ἔλεος = 2070 + 310 = 2380

The resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead is the reason for a lively hope.

God the Father has begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, as is clearly demonstrated by the following numerical word association.

God (H430) the Father (H1) of our LORD (H3068) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) according to his abundant (H7227) mercy (H2617) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H5921) the resurrection

(H6965) of Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the only (H3173) begotten (H3205) Son (H1121) of God. (H430)

The Greek word G313 means “begotten again,” and so a word for “again” is not used in the verse from 1 Peter.

BEGOTTEN (G313) US (G2248) AGAIN UNTO (G1519) A LIVELY (G2198) HOPE (G1680) = ἀναγεννάω ἡμᾶς εἰς ζάω ἐλπίς = 961 + 249 + 215 + 808 + 325 = 2558

Most commonly in the OT, “blessed be” is written with only the word for “blessed.” At times, however, it is written with the word for “be” used after “blessed,” as in the following sentence, which exactly restates in Hebrew root words what is written by Peter in Greek.

Blessed (H1288) be (H1961) the God (H430) and Father (H1) of our Lord (H136) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) which according to (H5921) his abundant (H7227) mercy, (H2617) has begotten (H3205) us again (H3254) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H5921) the resurrection (H6965) of Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) from (H4480) the dead. GOD (G2316) THE FATHER (G3962) HAS BEGOTTEN (G313) US (G2248) AGAIN UNTO (G1519) A LIVELY (G2198) HOPE (G1680) = Θεός Πατήρ ἀναγεννάω ἡμᾶς εἰς ζάω ἐλπίς = 284 + 489 + 961 + 249 + 215 + 808 + 325 = 3331

Not only does this gematria value of 3331 confirm that God the Father has begotten us again unto a lively hope, but also confirms that it is by the resurrection of Jesus Christ; as demonstrated by the numerical value of the following words in Greek.

RESURRECTION (G386) OF JESUS (G2424) CHRIST (G5547) = ἀνάστασις Ἰησοῦς Χριστός = 963 + 888 + 1480 = 3331

Jesus Christ is the source of our lively hope, and his resurrection is the only way to obtain the promised eternal inheritance.

According to his abundant (H7227) mercy (H2617) the Father (H1) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H5921) the resurrection. (H6965)

$$52 + 44 + 32 + 146 + 90 + 48 + 18 + 31 + 150 + 44 + 3 + 86 = 744$$

The gematria value for these two sentences is the same as that for the Hebrew root words for Jesus Christ.

JESUS (YESHUA) (H3442) CHRIST (the MESSIAH) (H4899)

ישוע משיח

$$358 + 386 = 744$$

The next example of gematria confirmation has the same numerical value as the name of Jesus in Greek.

Blessed (H1288) be LORD (H3068) God (H430) the Father (H1) which has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H5921) the resurrection (H6965) of his only (H3173) Son. (H1121)

JESUS (G2424) = Ἰησοῦς = 888

Additional gematria confirmation of scriptural truth is found in association with the gematria value of “Jesus Christ” and “Lord Jesus Christ” in Greek, 2368 and 3168, respectively.

Blessed (H1288) be God (H430) the Father (H1) of our LORD (H3068) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) which according to his abundant (H7227) mercy (H2617) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H4480) the resurrection (H6965) of Jesus (Yeshua), (H3442) the only (H3173) Son (H1121) of God. The hope which is provided by the resurrection of Jesus Christ is the promise of eternal life. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus 3:4-7. It is by the grace of God, and the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, that we have this hope. For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Titus 2:11-14.

By the grace of God the Father we are begotten again unto an inheritance that does not fade away, and we become heirs with Christ. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Romans 8:14-17. We are saved by grace because of God's great love and mercy toward mankind: But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Ephesians 2:4-8.

The lively hope to which God has begotten us again by the resurrection of Jesus, is to become heirs with Christ, and receive eternal life. We hope for something we cannot see, but patiently wait for it. For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. Romans 8:24-25. The lively hope to which we have been born again is the hope of an inheritance reserved in heaven, and eternal life.

God, the Father, according to his abundant mercy has begotten us again unto a lively hope, and, also unto an inheritance.

Peter wrote that the inheritance into which believers are born again is “incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away.” The Greek word that is used for “incorruptible” has the meaning of “undecaying,” and implies that it is immortal or everlasting. In the following gematria example, “incorruptible” is written with the Hebrew root words that mean “will not decay.”

As noted, the Greek word for incorruptible means “immortal,” or “undecaying.” A Hebrew word for “immortal” is not used in the OT. There are several modern Hebrew words which can be used for “immortal.” One of these words is, אַלְמוֹתִי, which has a gematria value of 487. A different way of writing “immortal” is, בֵּן אַלְמוֹתִי, which has a gematria value of 539. Yet a third way of writing “immortal” is, בֵּן אַלְמוֹת, which has a gematria value of 535.

Breaking from my usual method of gematria in which only Hebrew root word spellings are used, in the following sentence the modern Hebrew word for immortal, with a gematria value of 487 is used. The gematria value for the sentence confirms that the incorruptible, undefiled, inheritance that does not fade away, is the lively hope that comes by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

An inheritance, (H5159) incorruptible, (no Strong's #) undefiled, (H8535) and does not (H3808) fade away. (H5034)

נחלה אלמותי תם לא נבל

82 + 31 + 440 + 487 + 93 = 1133

LIVELY (G2198) HOPE (G1680) = ζῶν ἔλπις = 808 + 325 = 1133

In the next two instances of numerical word associations, the two Hebrew words used together to mean “immortal or incorruptible,” and which has a combined gematria value of 535 are used. Also, a different Hebrew word for “undefiled” (H8549) is used.

The Father (H1) of our Lord (H136) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899)

In the following numerical word association, the two Hebrew words used together to mean “immortal or incorruptible,” and which has a combined gematria value of 539 are used.

God (H430) the Father (H1) has begotten (H3205) us again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope (H3176) by (H4480) the resurrection (H6965) of the Son (H1121) Of man, (H120) Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) his only (H3173) Son, (H1121) and unto (H413) an inheritance (H5159) in heaven (H8064) that is incorruptible, (no Strong's #) and undefiled, (H8535) and that does not (H3808) fade away. In the next three examples of gematria evidence, the first two use the modern Hebrew spelling for “immortal” which has a gematria value of 535, and the third sentence uses the other option with a value of 487. The numerical values for the sentences confirm that it is Jesus Christ by whom we are born again unto an inheritance that is incorruptible, undefiled, and does not fade away.

Whosoever (H3605) believes (H539) in Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) is born (H3205) again (H5750) unto (H413) a lively (H2416) hope, (H3176) and an inheritance, (H5159) incorruptible, (no Strong's #) undefiled, (H8549) and that does not (H3808) fade away. (H5034)

While being questioned in his trial before king Agrippa, Paul responded concerning the promise of God: And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead? Acts 26:6-8. The promise of God for resurrection to eternal life is the lively hope and inheritance which is made available by the death as a sacrifice for our sins, and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. That which is written in 1Peter 1:3-5, is the promise of God.

God the Father has offered all of mankind a lively hope, and an eternal inheritance which allows us to become an heir of God through Jesus Christ: Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. Galatians 4:7. Why, then, should anyone live in fear and despair, for there is hope in God: Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God... Psalms 42:5. The way in which fear and despair can be overcome is to put one's hope in God and our Savior, Jesus Christ: For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee. Titus 2:11-15.

In these troubled times people should realize that there can be no hope in men, or government, but instead hope in God, and give praise unto the Lord who is the answer to all strife, just as it is written in Psalms 146. Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul. While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God: which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever: which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. The LORD looseth the prisoners: the LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous: the LORD

preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down. The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD. Psalms 146:1-10.
