

The Son of Man has the Power to Forgive Sins:

Scripture informs us that after the resurrection of Jesus, he last spoke to his disciples before ascending into heaven, when he met them in Galilee. Jesus said that he had been given all power in heaven and upon earth. Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted. And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen. Matthew 28:16-20.

What power was given to Jesus? He was given the power to heal the sick, and more importantly, the power to forgive the sins of men. Gematria confirms that these powers were given to Jesus, just as the Bible proclaims. The numerical value of words in Hebrew and Greek are able to be determined, because characters of each alphabet are also used as numbers. Evidence to support that which is written in Scripture is found through numerical word associations. The method of gematria that is used in this article involves using the Hebrew root word spelling, and not the proper grammatical spelling, for each word in a sentence that is consistent with what is written in Scripture. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words from the Bible which have the same numerical value as the sentence. In the gematria evidence to follow, each Hebrew root word that is used in a sentence is identified by its reference number according to Strong's Concordance. Associated Greek words, which may be alternate spellings of the words which change according to rules of grammar, are also identified by their Strong's reference numbers.

A story is told in the Bible about a lame man being brought to Jesus so that he might be healed, and Jesus first said to the man, "Thy sins are forgiven." This angered the scribes who witnessed what Jesus said, and accused him of blasphemy, as only God can forgive sins. Then, so that they might know that Jesus, the Son of man, had the power to forgive sins, he healed the lame man. And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four. And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee. But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God only? And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion. Mark 2:3-12.

Luke 5:24. In this verse from the Gospel of Luke, Jesus told the man sick with the palsy to “take up thy couch,” (meaning a small bed) instead of “take up thy bed,” as it is written in Matthew, Mark, and John. Gematria confirms the truth of the story, whether the Greek word for “couch,” or “bed,” is used to demonstrate numerical word associations.

And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk? As shown in the prior passages of Scripture, Jesus was given all power in heaven and earth; the power to heal and the power to forgive sins. It is also written in the Bible that God has exalted Jesus to be a Prince and Savior in whom we have redemption, and the forgiveness of sins. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. Acts 5:30-31. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: according as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; Ephesians 1:3-7.

The root word for “Messiah” that I have used has a gematria value of 358. In proper Hebrew grammar, when referring to a definite article, the letter ה preceding the root word means “the.” Therefore, the spelling for “the Messiah” when using proper grammar is המשיח which has a gematria value of 363 instead of 358. The gematria value for YESHUA, THE MESSIAH, is then 749.

Because we have the forgiveness of sins through the blood of Jesus Christ, there is now no condemnation. Jesus has freed us from the law of sin and death. There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. Romans 8:1-2. Gematria reveals that it is Christians who are no longer condemned, and whom Jesus has made free from the law of sin and death.

Indeed, God the Father gave Jesus, the Son of man, and Son of God, all power in heaven and upon the earth. Jesus Christ was given the power to heal the sick, the lame, and the blind; and he performed these miracles to make known to men that he was also given the power to forgive sins. In Christ we have redemption and forgiveness of sins by the grace of God. The forgiveness which is offered through faith in the cleansing power of Jesus' blood, frees those who believe from the law of sin and death. Through the numerical word associations shown in this article these truths of Scripture are confirmed.
