

Isaiah and Micah Prophesied the Coming of Christ:

The Old Testament prophets Isaiah and Micah were contemporaries, and lived in the 8th century BCE, around 700 years before the birth of Christ. Contained within the prophecies of both these prophets concerning the things which were to come to pass pertaining to the nation of Israel, are embedded prophecies related to the coming of Christ, the Messiah. Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would come as a child, who would be equal to God: For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be on his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6. Isaiah also prophesied that a virgin would conceive and bear a son: Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Isaiah 7:14. As a sign from the Lord of the divine nature of the Messiah, not only would the child be born of a virgin, but he would be called Immanuel, which means “God with us.” The prophet Micah, prophesied that out of Bethlehem would come a ruler, who is everlasting: But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel, whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. Micah 5:2.

The Gospels of the New Testament make the claim that the Old Testament prophecies regarding the Messiah were fulfilled in the birth of Jesus. The Bible claims that the virgin Mary conceived and gave birth to a son, Jesus, who is the Son of the Highest, meaning the Son of God, and will reign upon the throne of David forever: And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Luke 1:26-27, 31-33.

According to the Gospels of Matthew, Luke, and John, Jesus was born in Bethlehem, as the prophet Micah had prophesied: And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. Luke 2:4-6. The ruler in Israel which Micah had prophesied to come forth out of Bethlehem, is Jesus, as the people proclaimed as King when he entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, according to the Gospels of Matthew and John: And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. Matthew 21:8-9. On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. John 12:12-13.

In a 100+ page article which I wrote, “The Birth of Jesus,” a great volume of gematria evidence was shown which confirms the truth that is written in the Bible concerning the nativity narrative. In this present article, new gematria findings confirm the truth that the coming of Christ was prophesied by Isaiah and Micah seven hundred years before Jesus came. The method of gematria is the same as I have used before; in that sentences which state biblical truth are written using the root word spelling in Hebrew of each word (identified by Strong’s reference number) from which the gematria value of the sentence is determined. The numerical value of the sentence is then shown to be equal to that of Greek words from the Bible which are associated with what is stated in the sentence, and confirm the truth of Scripture. As I have discovered numerous times in the past, the gematria values of sentences that are written as described; and which state scriptural truth, but not taken directly from verses in the Bible, nevertheless, confirm the truth. This is made apparent through the numerical word associations to be revealed.

Isaiah prophesied that a child would be born, the Messiah, and he would be called by several names: Jesus Christ is the child that was prophesied.

The prophet (H5030) prophesied (H5012) the coming (H935) of Christ (the Messiah): (H4899) Unto us a child (H3206) is born, (H3205) and he shall be (H1961) called (H7121) Wonderful, (H6382) Counselor, (H3289) The mighty (H1368) God, (H410) The everlasting (H5703) Father, (H1) The Prince (H8269) of Peace. Isaiah prophesied that the child would be born to a virgin. The virgin Mary conceived and gave birth to Jesus Christ.

The prophet (H5030) Isaiah (H3470) prophesied: (H5012) Behold, (H2009) a virgin (H5959) shall conceive, (H2029) and bear (H3205) a son. (H1121) The virgin (H5959) Mary (Miriam) (H4813) conceived (H2029) and brought forth (H3205) Christ (the Messiah). (H4899)

A VIRGIN (H3933) SHALL CONCEIVE (G4815) = παρθένος συλλαμβάνω = 515 + 1554 = 2069

In the Gospel of Matthew, it is written that the prophecy of Isaiah was fulfilled when the Virgin Mary conceived and brought forth a son: But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Matthew 1:20-23.

Isaiah (H3470) prophesied (H5012) that a virgin (H5959) would conceive, (H2029) and bear (H3205) a son, (H1121) and would call (H7121) his name (H8034) Immanuel. (H6005) The virgin (H5959) mother (H517) conceived (H2029) and brought forth (H3205) Christ (the Messiah) (H4899) the Son. (H1121)

The gematria value of 2587 is the same as that for the following Greek root words that are used in Matthew 1:23.

A VIRGIN (G3933) SHALL BE WITH CHILD (G1722) (G1064) (G2192) = παρθένος ἐν γαστήρ ἔχω = 515 + 55 + 612 + 1405 = 2587

(H6005) The virgin (H5959) Mary (Miriam) (H4813) conceived (H2029) and brought forth (H3205) a son, (H1121) to fulfill (H34390) Isaiah's (H3470) prophecy (H5016)

The Lord gave a sign that Jesus is the Messiah that was prophesied: the Virgin Mary conceived and brought forth a son.

The LORD (H3068) himself (H1931) gave (H5414) a sign (H226) of Immanuel: (H6005) the virgin (H5959) Mary (Miriam) (H4813) conceived (H2029) of (H4480) the Holy (H6944) Spirit, (H7307) and brought forth (H3205) a son. (H1121)

The prophet (H5030) Isaiah (H3470) prophesied, (H5012) saying, (H559) A virgin (H5959) shall conceive, (H2029) and bear (H3205) a son, (H1121) and shall call (H7121) his name (H8034) Immanuel. All Holy Scripture is inspired by God, and holds absolute truth. The Old Testament prophets received inspiration from God to prophesy future events in relation to the nation of Israel, and God's plan for the redemption of all mankind. Their prophecies were not of their own, but as they were inspired by the Holy Spirit: We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2Peter 1:19-21. Seven hundred years before the birth of Jesus Christ, the prophets Isaiah and Micah were moved to prophesy of his coming. There was a delay of seven hundred years before the prophecy of a Messiah was fulfilled, but Jesus came at the appointed time according to God's plan. We can be certain, that even though there has been a greater span of time since Jesus promised to return, that promise will be kept as well.
