

The Son of Man Betrayed to be Crucified:

Jesus told his disciples several times that he would be betrayed and put to death. In the Gospel of Matthew, it is written that Jesus foretold his betrayal and death, and that he would be raised again the third day. From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Matthew 16:21. Jesus later prophesied the same thing: And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men: and they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry. Matthew 17:22-23. Jesus told his disciples that his betrayal would occur at the time of the Passover. And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified. Matthew 26:1-2. In the Gospel of Mark, it is also written that Jesus foretold his betrayal three times: And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. Mark 8:31. And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it. For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day. Mark 9:30-31. And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him, Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles: and they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. Mark 10:32-34. Judas betrayed Jesus, and just before Judas led the servants of the high priest to arrest him, Jesus said to Peter, James, and John., ... the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. Mark 14:41-42. Gematria which employs the numerical value of Hebrew root words that are used in sentences which restate what is written in the above quoted verses, confirms the truth of Scripture through equal gematria values of Greek words that are found in the Bible.

Hebrew words that correspond to the Greek words from Mark 14:41, reveal the following numerical word association.

Jesus (Yeshua) (H3442) said, (H559) Behold, (H2009) the Son (H1121) of man (H120) is betrayed (H5414) into the hands (H3027) of sinners. (H2400)

Jesus said that he would be betrayed, and be killed, but would arise again the third day. Each of the next two numerical word associations which have the gematria value of 3168, use the equivalent Hebrew root words for what was written in Greek for Matthew 17:22-23, using a different Hebrew root word than in the last example for “betray.”

Jesus, the Son of man, was betrayed to be crucified. The Hebrew words for “crucify” and “cross” are not used in the OT of the Bible. In the NT, the cross is often referred to as the “tree.” Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Galatians 3:13. This verse from the NT is in reference to the following that is written in the OT: And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree: his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance. Deuteronomy 21:22-23. In sentences to follow, the Hebrew root words for “hung upon a tree” are used in place of “crucified.”

Jesus was betrayed to be crucified at the time of Passover.

The Son of man is Jesus Christ, the promised Messiah, who was sent from God to lay down his life as the atonement for all sins. Just as Jesus prophesied his betrayal, death, and resurrection; the Son of man was betrayed to be crucified, but arose again the third day.

Christ (the Messiah), (H4899) the Son (H1121) of man (H120) was betrayed (H5414) to be hung (H8518) upon (H5921) a tree (cross), (H6086) and the third (H7992) day (H3117) was raised (H6965) again, (H5750) as (H834) he prophesied. (H5012)
