

God Was Manifest in the Flesh:

In his letter to the believers in Rome, Paul proclaimed that God sent his Son, Jesus, who came in the likeness of flesh, to be our path to salvation: There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Romans 8:1-4.

We are warned in 1John to “try the spirits,” as only those that confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh is of God. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. 1John 4:1-3.

Paul, in his first letter to Timothy, declares the great mystery is that God was manifest in the flesh as Jesus Christ. And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. 1Timothy 3:16.

Gematria can be used to confirm the truth of that which is written in Scripture. Gematria involves using the numerical value of words to discover associations between words, phrases, or sentences, of equal numerical value; a practice used from ancient times by Jewish scholars. The numerical value of words is easily determined for Hebrew as well as Greek, the languages of the Old Testament and New Testament, because each of these written languages uses a letter to signify a number.

A variety of methods using the numerical value of words to find hidden truth have been used. The method which I have employed is unique in that the gematria value of a sentence is determined by calculating the total numerical value of each Hebrew root word, and not the proper grammatical spelling of the word, that is used in a sentence of scriptural truth. The gematria value of the sentence determined in this way is then shown to have direct correlation with a Greek word or words from the Bible which have the same value. The idea that this gematria method could confirm the truth of Scripture is rightly viewed with skepticism. However, as the gematria evidence in this paper will show, the findings seem to be much more than coincidence.

The gematria evidence in this paper will demonstrate amazing numerical word associations which provide confirmation of the truth that is written in 1Timothy 3:16. The word “mystery” in this verse, means something hidden or secret. There are several different Hebrew root words with this same meaning: Strong’s H5475, H6383, H6845, and H5643. These four words have gematria values, respectively, of 70, 121, 220, 660. Two different Hebrew root words can be used for “manifest,” Strong’s H7200 and H1305, with gematria values of 206 and 402, respectively. There are also two different Hebrew root words that can be used for “preached.” One of these words (Strong’s H7121) has the meaning of “preach, or proclaim,” with a gematria value of 301. The other word (Strong’s H1319) means “preach, or to bear tidings,” and has a gematria value of 502. There are also three Hebrew root words that can be used for “received up.” These options are Strong’s H7311, H3947, and H5375. The respective gematria values of these three words are: 246, 138, and 351. Finally, there are a number of Hebrew root word options for “glory,” of which I have used two, Strong’s H1935, which has a gematria value of 15, and Strong’s H3519, with a numerical value of 32. With the use of these various root word values in sentences that are consistent with Scripture, there is abundant evidence to confirm that which is written in the Bible to be true.

Another word for “godliness” in 1Timothy 3:16, is “holiness.” When the Hebrew root word of this meaning is used, the following gematria associations are discovered.

Great (H1419) is the mystery (secret) (H5475) that (H3588) God (H430) was manifest (H1305) in the flesh (H1320) of a man. (H120)

The next two sentences for which gematria values are determined are identical in English except that in the second instance, “Christ” is not included. When written using Hebrew root words, different words are used for “mystery (secret)” and for “likeness.” The same gematria value for each sentence confirms the truth of the great mystery that is revealed in Holy Scripture.

In the Gospel of John, it is written that Jesus, the Word of God, became flesh. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God.... And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. John 1:1-2,14.

God in the flesh, Jesus, humbled himself: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Philippians 2:5-8.

The great mystery of godliness, that God was manifest in the flesh, was preached unto the Gentiles, and believed on in the world. Those who believe what has been preached are identified by the numerical values of the last two gematria associations, in which the sentences in English are exactly the same, but different Hebrew root words for “mystery (secret)” are used to determine the gematria values.

The great (H1419) mystery (secret) (H5475) of godliness (holiness) (H6944) was preached (H7121) unto (H413) the Gentiles, (H1471) and believed (H539) on in the world. (H8398)

The gematria findings which have been shown provide an abundance of evidence to confirm what Paul wrote in his letter to Timothy. The great mystery of godliness has been revealed. God was manifest in the flesh in the likeness of sinful men. The manifestation of God in the flesh is Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and Son of man.
