ADVENTURES OF THE FAITHFUL FIVE

EPISODE 8: THE MOST IMPORTANT ACTION

"Grandma can you teach me what the word love really means?" asked Aaliyah during her weekly call with her grandmother.

Aaliyah's grandmother talked with her about everything so she proceeded to explain, "Well, Sweetie, some people think love is a feeling only, but that's not true. Love is also an action. It's a choice. We show faith in God by the way we love God and others. Love is the most important action God requires. We all have a choice to love, whether it is for a pet, a friend, or a family member. Jesus threw a wringer in there though. Do you know what that is?"

Aaliyah answered, "I think I do grandma. In Church School we learned Jesus wants us to love our enemies, too."

"You got it, Aaliyah!" her grandmother said with excitement. "I know that's a hard thing to understand and the hardest action to choose. Since God is still loving to us when we mess up, we have to demonstrate that kind of love too."

Aaliyah likes to listen to the things her grandmother teaches her. "Thanks, Grandma, for sharing your wisdom with me. I love you."

Aaliyah's words made her grandmother smile. "I love you too, Honey, I'll talk to you next week."
