

A Gift for All

Salvation Is for All

⁵ Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that “the person who does these things will live by them.” ⁶ But the righteousness that comes from faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) ⁷ “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸ But what does it say?

“The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart”

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); ⁹ because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

¹¹ The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” ¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. ¹³ For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

¹⁴ But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? ¹⁵ And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!” ¹⁶ But not all have obeyed the good news; for Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?” ¹⁷ So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

SALVATION FOR ALL WHO BELIEVE

ZION: Paul stresses the importance of telling others the Good News – “Jesus saves.” This gives them the opportunity to receive the free gift of salvation.

ZAYA: I had never looked at salvation as a gift before.

ZION: That’s not hard to believe because salvation is often talked about as if it is something we can earn by our good works, which we cannot, rather than receive by faith in Jesus Christ.

ZAYA: Plus, being saved is often explained as something that is complicated and confusing.

ZION: Anyone who calls on the Lord to be saved, will be saved. And anyone who makes the decision to give their heart and soul to Christ will not regret it. The key is believing.

It's time to work with Zion and Zaya on this week's Superhero Challenge: "I'M A BELIEVER."
 Help Zion and Zaya create a book with images and scriptures of persons accepting Christ as their Savior.
