Scripture Summary Acts 2:37-47

This speech by Peter was made to Jewish listeners. He wanted them to do three things: repent, be baptized, and live a new life as a follower of Jesus. These believers started the practices of listening to apostles teach, eating meals together, and worshiping as a community. Christians still do these things today.

Verse to Remember

Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people.

ADVENTURES OF THE FAITHFUL FIVE

EPISODE 4: FRIDAY NIGHT FELLOWSHIP

“Yes! Friday is finally here!” exclaimed Akeem. He had been looking forward to the Friday Night Fellowship all week. The church planned a fun-filled time at the Go-Kart Track.

When Akeem arrived at the Go-Kart Track he, saw the rest of the Faithful Five under a tent with a lot of people. “Wow! A lot of people showed up today,” he said as he greeted his friends.

Aaliyah saw one of their church school teachers, Mr. Williams. “Let’s go over and greet him.”

“Hi Mr. Williams. It seems like more people than usual are here today,” said Tori.

“What’s poppin’” F5!” That’s what Mr. Williams called the Faithful Five whenever he saw them together. “I’m glad you made it. We invited the church that just opened, West Tabernacle Church, to come and fellowship with us. Everyone is a part of the fellowship tonight – children, youth, young adults, and seniors. The pastor thought this would be a good way for us to get to know our new neighbors.”

Pastor Davis used a megaphone to greet everyone. “Thank you for coming to our Friday Night Fellowship. Today is extra special because we are welcoming the West Tabernacle family to the neighborhood. We look forward to worshipping together on other occasions. Tonight is all about having fun and enjoying each other’s company. And don’t let this clergy collar fool you. I’m “fast and furious.” See you on the track!”

The Faithful Five happily followed the pastor as he got in the go-kart line. Everyone had a great time racing and meeting fellow believers.
