Goal Setting

While driving through the community, we can see many different buildings. Some are buildings where people work. Some buildings are hospitals, and others are schools. There is no way to miss the fire house because of the big red truck outside.

In a community, there are houses of all kinds. Some houses are big with many stairs and rooms. Other houses are small with a tiny porch and flowers outside.

In a community, there is usually a church. Most of them have a cross. The inside is different from any other house. Usually there are many rooms but mostly one big room where lots of people can gather to worship together. That area is called ??? Questions ???

1. Who is the church?
2. What are some things that are done in a sanctuary?

a sanctuary, a sacred place where Scriptures are read, and songs of praise are sung in worship. This is God's house and we call it a church when all the people gather there to give thanks to God for all our blessings.

Find the four differences and then color them.

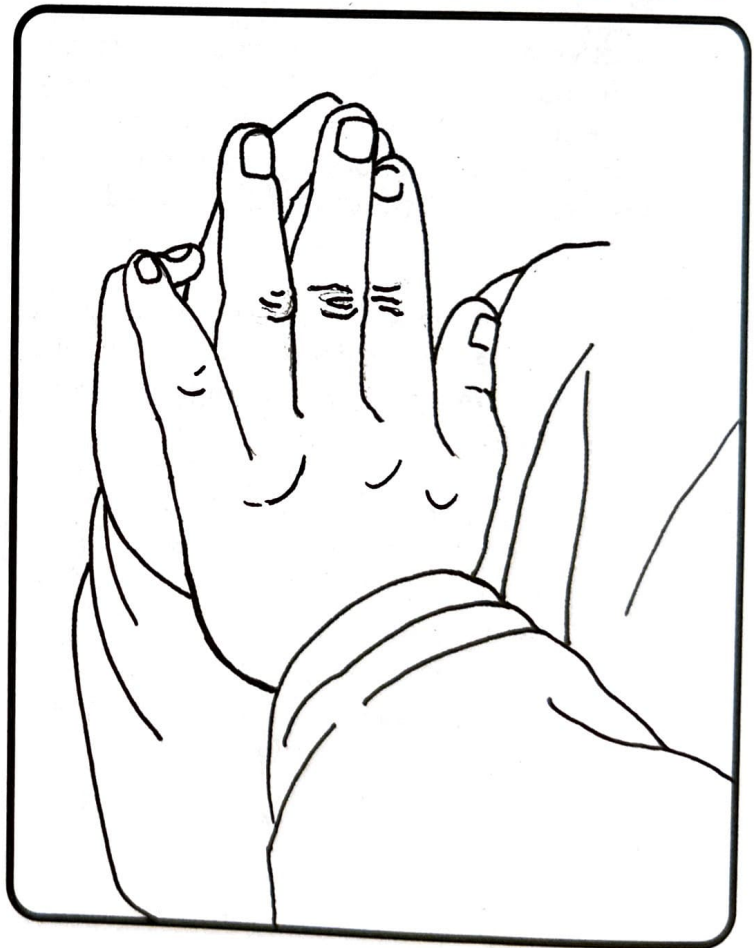

WORD BANK

- Sacred: Things we do not touch but use to give honor to God
- Worship: Giving honor to God with songs, prayers and praise
- Cross: A symbol to represent Jesus Christ

Help the Faithful Five say a prayer to dedicate your temple. Write your prayer below and then recite it to your class.
