REVIEWS

Review Excerpts, Palm Beach (Music by David Gursky), La Jolla Playhouse (2005)

"Combining the snappy humor of great farce with the screwball movies of the '30s, this show is blessed with a breezy, often gorgeous score by David Gursky. Toss in clever lyrics by Robert Cary that whimsically combine dripping sarcasm, madcap histrionics and sweet sentiment and wed it to a crazy preposterous and irresistible book by Cary and Benjamin Feldman." –-Jeff Britton, The Desert Sun, June 29, 2005

"There are not enough superlatives to describe the participants of this production. The original book by Robert Cary and Benjamin Feldman, music by David Gursky and lyrics by Robert Cary are all genius." --Diana Saenger, La Jolla Light

"The music -- a bouncy, jaunty mélange of 1930s musical styles -- provides the show's high points." -- Daryl H. Miller, Los Angeles Times

"The show thankfully includes zany characters, ridiculous situations, terrific dances, and toetapping tunes to keep you smiling throughout the entire evening." –James Colt Harrison, Buzz Magazine
