

Facts about Hitler & the commencement of WW2

FORBIDDEN HISTORY - QUOTE TO REMEMBER

"I lived in Germany during the 1980's when many people who lived during the war were still alive. I sought out anyone who lived near Poland in 1939 and was lucky enough to meet several people. One was a customs official who said it was so bad on the border they were armed and also had grenades in their office ready for attacks. Another told me his farm animals were often stolen by Polish (Jewish?) terrorists. Another told of his niece being raped by a Pole (Jew?) who crossed the border. He told me in 1940 they caught the man and showed me a copy of the death order signed by Heydrich, in which he ordered the man be put to death.

This is just one of many stories told to me by German civilians who witnessed these border incursions just like had happened in 1919-1928. One thing many people fail to see is that Poland openly attacked Germany right after World War I, which led to many border battles. Once Germany started pressing Poland to work out a solution to the corridor, the attacks started again. And one thing that is clear to me is that Germany did not make up these attacks." (4)

- George H. Ohio, USA

Hitler has had about all he could take from Poland.

SEPT 1, 1939	GAME ON! GERMANY INVADES POLAND	As the German army advances eastward, the badly beaten Polish forces withdraw rapidly.
SEPT 3, 1939	'BLOODY SUNDAY' BOLSHEVIKS MURDER 3000+ GERMAN CIVILIANS IN BROMBERG	Red Jewish terrorists rape, torture and massacre 3000+ German civilians in the town of Bromberg, Poland. The Massacre is known as " Bloody Sunday ".
SEPT 3, 1939	UK & FRANCE DECLARE WAR UPON GERMANY	The world press shrieks in horror over Germany's "aggression" as Britain & France declare war! The Bromberg butchery of innocent Germans is ignored.

OCT. 1939 – MAY 1940 HITLER PLEADS FOR PEACE WITH BRITAIN & FRANCE

The German-Polish War has ended quickly. The Allies never had any intention of helping Poland. The French actually invade Germany on September 7th, advancing 8 km before stopping. The quiet period between the end of the Polish war until May 1940, is dubbed by a U.S. Senator as "The Phony War."

During this time, Hitler pleads for the Allies to withdraw their war declarations. Towards France he declares: "I have always expressed to France my desire to bury forever our ancient enmity and bring together these two nations, both of which have such glorious pasts."

To the British, Hitler says: "I have devoted no less effort to the achievement of Anglo-German friendship. At no time and in no place, have I ever acted contrary to British interests.... Why should this war in the West be fought?"

Hitler's pleas for peace are ignored as the allies begin to mobilize more than 2,000,000 troops in Northern France. Plans are openly discussed to advance eastward upon Germany, via "neutral" Belgium and Holland, as well as establishing operations in "neutral" Norway and Denmark, with or without their consent.

During his speech of October 6, 1939, Hitler pleaded for peace. Meanwhile, the British government shamelessly frightened its own people with idiotic tales of imminent German gas attacks.

The Winter War: Soviet divisions consisting of 450,000 Red Army troops, attack and expect to overwhelm Finland in a matter of weeks, but the Fins fought well, and ultimately lost just a small amount of territory.

Stalin (non-Jew front-man for Bolsheviks) has now broken two non-aggression treaties and annexed territory from both betrayed parties (Poland & Finland). The "International Community" verbally condemns the Soviet invasion and makes some symbolic economic gestures, but once again, there are no calls for boycotts, nor any declaration of war against the USSR as there was against Germany. Hitler is also forced to remain silent about Stalin's actions because he does not want a two-front war.

APRIL 9, 1940 The Allied plan of attack is to disrupt Germany's iron ore imports from Sweden by illegally mining Norwegian waters, and then occupying the important Norwegian port of Narvik. Plans are also made for imposing a base of operations in Denmark, Germany's neutral neighbor to its north. A Norwegian politician named Vidkun Quisling confirms the existence of these Allied plots.

ALLIES BOMB GERMAN TOWN OF FRIEBURG & 20 CHILDREN KILLED IN A PLAYGROUND

MAY 10, 1940 The medieval and non-strategic German town of Freiburg is located just 20 miles from the French border. In the opening hours of the war in the west, new Prime Minister Churchill and his French allies waste no time in murdering civilians.

About 60 bombs are dropped on or near Freiburg; killing 50 civilians including 20 children who were playing outside. This was the first bombing of civilians in World War II.

In order to whitewash this horrific deed from the pages of history; and to maintain the historical myth that it was Germany that initiated the bombings of civilians; court historians have long promoted the ridiculous lie that the Germans accidentally bombed their own town and then blamed the event on the Allies in order to cover up the mistake. Subsequent terror bombings of German civilians will dispel any doubt that Churchill was indeed capable of deliberately exterminating civilians.

- 1- The Allies terror-bombed scenic Freiburg
- 2- 2- Memorial stone at the Hilda playground where 20 children were murdered
- 3- 3- The New York Times falsely accuses Germany (!) of "savage attacks".

With Chamberlain gone and Churchill now in power, Hitler now knows for certain that "the Phony War" is about to become very real. Churchill and his criminal crew of Kingsley Wood & Anthony Eden are now out in the open as UK's ruling war party. The relationship between Baruch & Churchill dates back to the 1930's. (Above photo on left taken in 1961)

MAY, 1940 N.Y. Times, simply puts-out an article on the savage German attacks. They were meant to bomb allied soldiers but dropped them on their quaint beloved and medieval city by accident. Freiburg (historic medieval town, no military stationed there) playground where 20 children were blown into thousands of pices by allied bombs

"I emphasized that the defeat of Germany and Japan and their elimination from world trade would give Britain a tremendous opportunity to swell her foreign commerce in both volume and profit." - Bernard M. Baruch

HITLER TRIES FOR PEACE THROUGH A SWEDISH CHANNEL

After having just defeated the French and British invaders, Hitler, via a Swedish third party, proposes generous peace terms to Britain. The Germans contact the British ambassador in Sweden, Victor Mallet, through Sweden's Supreme Court Judge Ekeberg, who is known to Hitler's legal advisor, Ludwig Weissauer. Hitler's peace proposal demands nothing of Great Britain and implies that the states currently occupied by Germany would be de-occupied; as Germany's occupation was only due to the present war situation. But Winston Churchill is not interested in peace. The offer goes nowhere. German peace efforts via Sweden failed.

The following morning Halifax reports to the War Cabinet, summarizing his meeting with Bastianini and urging his colleagues to consider Italian mediation. Again, Churchill would have none of it! For several days, Halifax continues to press for the Mussolini mediation. In an apparent attempt to placate Halifax, Churchill states that he doubts whether anything would come of an approach to Italy, but that the matter was one which the War Cabinet should consider. But Churchill is lying to Halifax. Never once did Churchill even consider Mussolini's offer to mediate peace between Britain and Germany. The matter eventually dies after Churchill outmaneuvers the peace-seeking Halifax. The conflict is known as 'The War Cabinet Crisis'.

- 1- Lord Halifax tried to convince the War Cabinet to at least hear Mussolini's proposal.
- 2- Mussolini and UK Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain in 1938, had helped Britain and Germany to keep the peace of Europe at the Munich Conference of 1938.
- 3- Instead of accepting peace offers, Churchill's gang chose to frighten the British public with tales of imminent poison gas attacks from Hitler.

FORBIDDEN HISTORY - QUOTE TO REMEMBER

"He (Hitler) then astonished us by speaking with admiration of the British Empire, of the necessity for its existence, and of the civilization that Britain had brought into the world.He compared the British Empire with the Catholic Church saying they were both essential elements of stability in the world. He said that all he wanted from Britain was that she should acknowledge Germany's position on the Continent. The return of Germany's colonies would be desirable but not essential, and he would even offer to support Britain with troops if she should be involved in difficulties anywhere."

- German General von Blumentritt

JUNE, 1940

SOVIET UNION INVADES 4 COUNTRIES AT THE SAME TIME! /LATVIA, LITHUANIA, ESTONIA, & EASTERN ROMANIA

With the eyes of the world focused on events in Western Europe, Stalin continues to expand his Evil Empire. The Reds annex the tiny defenseless Baltic states of Latvia, Lithuania, and Estonia. Stalin also annexes parts of eastern Romania.

The Soviet Union has now invaded 6 countries in just 9 months! Yet, the western Globalists only remain obsessed with attacking Germany, whose leader, just like the Kaiser had two decades earlier, continues to plead for peace.

Hitler and Field Marshal Petain make peace. The armistice is signed in the same railway car in which Germany surrendered after World War I.

JUNE 24, 1940 WORLD JEWISH CONGRESS CLAIMS THAT 6 MILLION JEWS ARE DOOMED IF GERMANY WINS THE WAR

Sing it Four Tops! - "It's the same, old song, with a different

"if the Nazis should achieve final victory 6,000,000 Jews in Europe are doomed to destruction."

Not a single Jew has even been interned and Hitler is still pleading for peace; yet the "Holocaust" and the "6 million" have already been established!

JULY, 1940 CHURCHILL LAUNCHES AERIAL BOMBARDMENT CAMPAIGN AGAINST GERMAN CIVILIANS

With British ground troops having been chased off of the European mainland, Churchill and his London/New York Banking Bosses can only continue the fight over air (and sea). The British Royal Air Force is ordered to bomb civilian areas. Churchill hopes to provoke a similar response from Hitler so that he and FDR can point to "German bombing of civilians."

In a July memo to the Minister of UK Air Craft production, Churchill writes: "When I look around to see how we can win the war I see that there is only one sure path. We have no Continental army which can defeat the German military power.. ...there is one thing that will bring him (Hitler) down, and that is an absolutely devastating, exterminating attack by very heavy bombers from this country upon the Nazi homeland. We must be able to overwhelm them by this means, without which I do not see a way through."

The notorious drunk will bomb German civilian areas seven times. But Hitler refuses to do the same. German bombers are under strict orders to limit their attacks to military/industrial targets only...Finally, in September; Hitler is forced to declare that any more British bombings of civilian areas will be met with a similar response. When the German Air Force drops its first bombs on British civilian areas, the world press declares "Germany Bombs Civilians."

As he had done with the orchestrated sinking of the Lusitania in 1915, Winston Churchill has again deliberately brought on the deaths of innocent men, women, and children in order to achieve political goals.

Germans were killed and left homeless by Churchill's heavy terror bombers.

JULY 20, 1940 HITLER DROPS 'PEACE LEAFLETS' OVER LONDON!

With Germany in total control of the continent and the war situation, Hitler responds to Churchill's bombs by dropping mass quantities of leaflets over London. The 4-page broadsheet contains an English language summary of Hitler's recent speech before the Reichstag. The speech is entitled, "A Last Appeal to Reason", in which he closes with a final appeal for peace: "In this hour I feel it to be my duty before my own conscience to appeal once more to reason and common sense in Great Britain as much as elsewhere. I consider myself in a position to make this appeal, since I am not the vanquished, begging favors, but the victor speaking in the name of reason. I can see no reason why this war must go on. I am grieved to think of the sacrifices it will claim. Possibly Mr. Churchill again will brush aside this statement of mine by saying that it is merely born of fear and of doubt in our final victory. In that case I shall have relieved my conscience in regard to the things to come." The British respond to Hitler's sincere plea with mockery, threats, and more bombs.
