

LASTING MEMORIES RADIANT HOPE

Poetry and stories of the memories and hopes that light our way through the darkest December nights

Sunday, December 12, 3-5 p.m.

Usually, as the year draws to a close, cultural celebrations, family traditions, and religious observances converge in warmth, joy, and gift-giving. People get together to ward off the chill and the fast-falling night.

Last year the pandemic cancelled plans for family meals and gatherings of friends, yet we were sustained by the warmth of memories and the light of hope. This year as the pandemic lingers we harbor well-founded fears, and we once again turn to the insight, wisdom, and good cheer that comes to us through stories and poems.

Everyone is welcome to attend. No need to RSVP. For more information, contact poetlaureatebenicia@gmail.com
