

Curtis P. Gammill

1944 – 2021

Curtis Patrick Paul Gammill Jr., of Brookfield, MO, passed away Tuesday evening, January 19, 2021, at Truman Veterans Hospital, In Columbia, MO where he had received excellent care over the years. He was born on June 2, 1944 to Curtis Gammill Sr. and Virginia Martinez Gammill while they were stationed at Moody Airforce base, in Valdosta Georgia. Curtis spent 19 years in the military, serving as a medic. His civilian life occupations included EMT, surgery tech, chef, draftsman, and state park groundskeeper and tour guide at the Confederate Soldiers home & Cemetery in Higginsville MO. His hobbies included writing, leather, and woodworking, but he was lifelong history buff & being heavily involved with Civil War Re-enactments. He did a brief stint with the 16th Missouri CSA but then became a member (and these days he is considered as one of the “old guard”) of the 7th & 30th MO. Vols. (a.k.a. Missouri Irish Brigade) & later serving as Chaplain of the US Muddy River Battalion. However, what he considered as his greatest accomplishment in life was serving his Lord & Savior Jesus Christ. He was an active member of his church serving as a Men’s Sunday School Teacher, cooking for the church, and being a part of the Men’s Ministry. He was a changed man the past 5 years of his life & on fire for God!

Curtis is survived by his wife of 33 years, Patricia Faye Hawkins Gammill and all of his children. Sons; Curtis “Tripp” Gammill III, David Gammill & wife Sabriena, Son’s Benjamin Gammill, Andrew Gammill, Steven Gassen & Eric Curtis. Daughters; Laura and her husband Harold Hains, Lisa Thomas, and Kim Gammill. Curtis is also survived by his sister, Cynthia Milene, and brothers Paul Gammill, 6 + grandchildren and a number of nephews and nieces and also his best friend Brig. General James Crofutt of St. Joseph MO. Curtis was preceded in death by his parents. Services will be held Saturday, January 30, 2021, at God’s Garden Church, 122 North Monroe Street, Brookfield, Mo. Services will start with visitation at 1pm, followed immediately by a life celebration. The life celebration will be aired live on the God’s Garden Church Facebook page for those unable to make it due Covid concerns. Social distancing & other basic precautions will be implemented. If coming in person please wear a mask. A card shower is requested instead of signing the guest book. Cards can be sent to the family home at 315 N. Clinton, Brookfield, MO. Donations are requested instead of flowers and they will be divided between God's Garden Church & a memorial donation to Civil War Trust (Battlefield preservation) in Curtis Gammill's name.
