Pastor's Corner

Pr. J. David Bryant

Friends,

The Lord be with you.

Thank you for your continual modeling of generosity, humility, patience, and sacrifice. These past months during sheltering in place have been tough. There is no other way to say it. We've had so much change happening to us in such a short time and we've been processing it all as best as we can.

A large portion of what we are processing is "grief around what we've lost." John Green, not the fabulous pastor of our mutual acquaintance, but the author of, The Fault in Our Stars, writes in the book by the same name, "Grief does not change you, Hazel. It reveals you."

Isn't that observation a wise reality? Doesn't grief reveal us?

When I minored in psychology during undergrad, we looked long and hard looks at grief. Probably the most insightful book on grief that came across my desk, was Elisabeth Kübler-Ross' On Death and Dying. Some, familiar with her writings, know her as the one who first outlined, "The 5 Stages of Grief." These stages are; denial, anger, bargaining, depression, and acceptance. These stages are real. We all go through them when experiencing extreme loss, and we may go through them multiple times. Some even say that they have been in two or more stages at once. I believe them.

As we're processing the changes and losses that are coming our way, it is very helpful to ask ourselves:

- 1-When do I say, "I can't believe that now we can't ___(fill in the blank)___!"
- 2-When do I say, "I'm so angry that now we don't/can't ___(fill in the blank)___!"
- 3-When do I say, "If we did it this way now, then we could go back to ___(fill in the blank)___!"
- 4-When do I say, "What's the point now if we ever do/don't ___(fill in the blank)___!"
- 5-When do I say, "Now, it'll be different yet still okay even if we do/don't ___(fill in the blank)___!"

Those 5 questions, keyed to a grief stage, reveal where we are in this wilderness. We're not all in the same place. And, that's perfectly fine. Not being in the same place allows us all to understand and see things from different angles. More information is often more helpful than less information, right?

Remember that God meets us in our wilderness. In the wilderness, Ancient Israel was met by God. They came to know God in that wilderness place. They received God's teaching in the wilderness place. And, they were in that wilderness for forty years, that's Hebrew slang for, "a long, long, long time." Although we are in this current wilderness space, one through which God will carry us, let's us remember that God is with us. We are not in some meaningless void. God is working purpose in this wilderness space. Along this path, we will grieve, and we will grow, for as Psalm 25: 10, "All the paths of the Lord are steadfast love and faithfulness, or those who keep his covenant and his decrees." Let's "keep on keeping on"---

Peace—
JDB+

Easter Season 2020

2020 Easter Season was rather different for us than it has been in years past. We've found ourselves socially distanced and we've been sheltered in place. At times, we've felt restful. At times, we've felt bored. At times, we've been at peace. And, at times, we've felt the effects of cabin fever.

Our worship has come through video screens and over air waves, rather than face-to-face. Sometimes we've been, "Seventh Day Horizontalists," comfy in our pajamas and muumuus listening to it all or watching it all. At other times, we've skipped portions and enjoyed just the music or just the sermon. So many have worked very faithfully to produce these videos and audio recordings, and we are grateful that they led many to praise the Risen Lord.

Our Easter Egg Hunt was quite different, too. One egg, hidden for probably 20 years, was found by a church member deep inside a palmetto clump. The caramel inside the plastic egg was gone, yet the wrapper remained. Now, if you feel jealous of the egg-finder, perhaps you shouldn't---the egg was accompanied by a Corn Snake and a Black Racer.

Our Easter offerings and tithes appeared in different ways, ways that we'd never expect---mailbox, cash delivery, online portal, and a drop box. And, as these have appeared, God's ministry has gone forward through JOY in beautiful ways, e.g. widows receiving windfalls to afford home repairs, restaurant servers having received gift cards to make ends meet, and no shortfalls in the JOY Ministry Spending Plan (budget).

2020 Easter Season was rather different for us than it had been in years past, yet, shouldn't we ask ourselves, "is this completely a bad thing?" Probably, not. Especially not when it is in the hands of the Risen Lord who makes all things new. (Isaiah 43:18-19)

JOY-One Blood “Blood Drive”

Blood has been in short supply due to the challenges that COVID-19 has created. And, as a result, donors have been sparse. We are grateful for coordinator, Wendy Przedwiecki, for reaching out to us from One Blood. On May 14th, twenty-eight people arrived at JOY inquiring about being donors. At the end of the day, once the proverbial smoke cleared, we had, to quote Wendy, “...20 people register; 3 deferrals; collected 17 units of blood! Awesome!”

People were properly distanced and were generally respectful of the needs of others. And, for the most part, potential donors were very patient with one another as each tried to understand and comply with a process that had been impacted by coronavirus restrictions.

Some members who drove by JOY, curious about the event, noted how one small huddled group seemed to violate the “6 ft apart rule.” This was a case of appearances deceiving us. The huddle was composed of donors who arrived together, live together, and who chose to sit together.

This was a fabulous event. Thank you so very much for supporting it well. We may make such blood donation events a regular thing at JOY.

Changing of the Colors

We are grateful to those who changed the Flag of the United States of America that is displayed by the electronic sign in front of our building. It had grown weary, washed-out, and torn. Now, it is vibrant, defiant, and bold.

June 14th is Flag Day. Some of us might remember living in a town where large numbers of flags would be displayed on that day each year. Do you remember U. S. flags lining streets on that day? Flag Day celebrates the anniversary of the adoption of the U.S. Flag on June 14, 1777 by the Second Continental Congress.

At JOY, Luther Radway often diligently attends to the care and keeping of the U.S. Flag. Perhaps Luther and others know the U. S. Flag Code, established June 22, 1942 by a joint declaration of the U.S. Congress.

Some part of Luther's care is seeing that weary, washed-out, and torn flags are properly retired. Organizations like the American Legion will conduct an annual ceremony, often on Flag Day to retire damaged, old, or worn flags; have one at your home to retire? Contact your local American Legion chapter if you are unable to dispose of the flag yourself. You could also ask our JOY Lutheran Scouts, Alexis, Chad, Ethan, or Riley to do this for you.

When a flag is retired, during the Flag Retirement Ceremony we pray:

"We thank Thee for our Country and its Flag, and for the liberty for which it stands. To clean and purging flame we commit these Flags, worn-out in worthy service. As they yield their substance to the fire, may Thy Holy Light spread over us and bring to our hearts renewed devotion to God and Country. Amen."

Pentecost derives its name from the Jewish festival celebrating the harvest and the giving of the law on Mount Sinai fifty days after Passover. Fifty days after Easter, we celebrate the Holy Spirit as God's presence within and among us. In Acts the Spirit arrives in rushing wind and flame, bringing God's presence to all people. Paul reminds us that though we each have different capacities; we are unified in the Spirit that equips us with these gifts. Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit on his disciples, empowering them to forgive sin. We celebrate that we too are given the breath of the Holy Spirit and sent out to proclaim God's redeeming love to all the world.

---from Sundays and Seasons

We Begin the Season of Pentecost

The season of Pentecost is the longest season in the Christian Church year. It begins the Monday following the Day of Pentecost and lasts until the season of Advent begins. It lasts anywhere between 22 and 27 weeks, depending on when Easter takes place. We do not know when the season of Pentecost began. Christians have been celebrating the Day of Pentecost prior to the second century. It is believed they began celebrating the season of Pentecost around the second to third century.

The season of Pentecost is often referred to as the non-festival half of the church year because during this time the Christian Church does not celebrate a major festival commemorating the life of Jesus. It is also referred to as Ordinary Time. The word "ordinal" simply means counted time.

During the season of Pentecost, the Christian Church focuses on the teachings of Jesus. On the first Sunday after Pentecost, the Christian Church celebrates Trinity Sunday. On this Sunday, Christians are reminded the one true God is a Triune God. He is three persons (God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit), but just one God. In some Christian churches, the season of Pentecost is also referred to as the Trinity Season. The color of the paraments on Holy Trinity Sunday is white to signify how God is holy and he makes us holy.

During the season of Pentecost, the Christian Churches celebrate other special festivals such as Reformation Sunday in the Lutheran Church, All Saints Day, Thanksgiving, and others. The color of the paraments for season of Pentecost is green to symbolize how Christians grow in their faith through God's Word.

ALL LADIES ARE WELCOME

WELCA Eve Circle Bible Study on Tuesday, June 16th, 11:30 a.m., Study from GATHER magazine JUNE: JUST LOVE

Theologian and public intellectual Dr. Cornel West once said, “Justice is what love looks like in public.” Christians often imagine that if we had enough love, we would be able to solve the world’s problems. But love by itself has been insufficient in eradicating the manifold forms of injustice that continue to plague our world.

This three-session Bible study invites readers to consider how justice and love intersect. What does “just love” look like? How is this kind of love more than a sentimental or sanitized emotion, but is instead a love-in-action that seeks to dismantle the various systems of sin that damage God’s creation and harm God’s people?

Session 1: “Just Love” in the Family: What’s Love Got to do with it? John 11:1-6, 17-37 focuses on what “just love” might look like in a family system. Using the story of Mary’s and Martha’s confrontations with Jesus in the aftermath of their brother Lazarus’ death, this session explores the role of anger in the pursuit of justice, including anger directed at God.

ALL MEETINGS ARE PENDING
UNTIL THE CORONAVIRUS STAY AT HOME RESTRICTIONS ARE LIFTED

Property Committee Happenings

Keeping our grounds looking nice, takes a lot of work. A big “Thank You” goes out to those members working on trimming trees, bushes clearing the brush around the church.

JOY Reopening Committee

On May 14, 2014, the Committee held its first meeting. The meeting was conducted on line and it was the organizational meeting of the Committee.

Members of the committee are: Erik Maenpaa Chairman, Marjorie Maenpaa, Chris Allebaugh Secretary, Joy Peters, Peggy Ann Marion and Robert Getter.

Prior to the first meeting, considerable material has been received for review by the Committee from the CDC, State and Local Government Agencies, Florida-Bahamas Synod and various community and Inter-faith organizations. In addition, excellent information, suggestions and recommendations have been received from a number of JOY Congregation Members and will also be reviewed and considered by the committee.

During the meeting, the following items were discussed:

1. We should contact our insurance agent/underwriter to determine what JOY would need to do to make sure that the plan we implement, will not unduly subject us to possible liability. Erik will follow-up with the insurance company make sure we follow their guidelines and requirements.
2. Consider having a professional company come in and complete a thorough cleaning/disinfecting of the facility. Chris Allebaugh will contact local companies and obtain estimates.
3. Look into the cost of having a local Air Conditioning company come in and install a UV light into the central air system. Companies will be contacted and quotes requested.
4. What will it look like once we return to church services?
  - a. Limited number of members at one time.
  - b. Have younger members at one service and have 65 and older at another service.
  - c. Services on Saturdays and Sundays.
  - d. How many services would we need?
  - e. How would we arrange the chairs?

As we move forward, we would welcome all suggestions and comments from the members. Please feel free to forward your ideas, comments and suggestions to Erik at email at: eumaenpaa@gmail.com or phone: (321)327-8400.

Shepherd Center Update

There will be NO Shepherd Center of South Brevard summer session. The board will decide in August about the six week Fall Session from Oct 8 to Nov 23. Currently the board is looking at classes with social distancing and participants wearing masks. Class size may be limited or popular classes may have two class sessions. The scheduled place is Peace Lutheran where there are several large spaces. Those who have given their email to Shepherd Center will receive registration and schedule of classes by email. Everyone on the only mail list should have received a letter during May. We will have some registration forms at Joy in September. Check the website as time approaches for information at www.shepherdcenterofsb.org , or contact Elaine Heine.

Message from Council President

Hello everyone, it sure seems like forever since many of us have seen one another. I will be happy once we can all get back to somewhat normal, although we will have a new normal. The council knows how much you all miss the service at JOY, as well as the different circles and fellowship time. We miss it as well.

The council has been meeting through Zoom, which has been interesting. I know I skipped the newsletter last month so here is an update for the last 2 months.

As a council, we have voted and applied for a Small Business Loan, this loan is forgivable. We recently heard back that the loan has been approved from the bank. This loan request was voted on right after the pandemic started and we were unsure, at the time, how the pandemic would affect our offerings. Our bills stay the same with the Church open or closed. We actually have had some unexpected expenses since the pandemic began. The loan was approved for just over $8,000. While it may look like we may NOT have needed it now, there was no way of knowing prior as to how the giving was going to go. It was a loan that had to be put in for quickly.

Pastor and JOY needed a license for his YouTube services, as to not get in trouble with copyright laws. We reviewed what was needed, it was approved and purchased.

We initiated the re-opening task force, who have been super busy trying to address the ins and outs of what needs to be done to re-open JOY.

Kim Tolley got JOY set up with Vanco (the online giving service) that council chose to go with. David Steinhorst incorporated it on the church website. Thus far it has done its intended job. In the month of April, we received right around $1000 through the online giving. We have had donations come in from family members of the Pastor, old members(friends) of JOY, and even complete strangers from afar.

Kim, Kelly, Pastor, and I had decided and then the council approved a new date for Day Camp. Day Camp has since now been cancelled due to the uncertainty of the return date of normal church activities.

Our Next meeting is scheduled for June 29th, 2020. As of now, it will be held via Zoom.

Be Safe and God Bless,
Melody Shaffer
JOY Council President

Online giving is now an option for us, and also for others visiting our website.

A link to our online giving portal is found on the JOY website. Here is the link to that portal: <https://www.joylutheranelca.com> Scroll down to the purple box that says "online giving." Feel free to check it out, even if you do not elect to use it. What can it hurt to learn about something new, right?

Again, this is an option, not just for ourselves but for others beyond JOY. Participate if you feel so led. Don't participate if you are not so led. Give in whatever way works best to suit you.

Audit Committee Update

The Audit committee continues to meet remotely through web meetings.

At this point 99% of the letters requesting verification from the members have been returned and we would like to thank the members for their prompt return of the materials.

Daily Bread

Volunteering at the Daily Bread can be a great opportunity. It allows you to help those less fortunate in our community. Daily Bread is located at 815 E. Fee Avenue, Melbourne. It is a local soup kitchen that serves a hot meal every day to our homeless and people in need. JOY members are a part of making this happen. Please consider volunteering with our team.

JOY LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

All WELCA Activities are cancelled until further notice

Eve Circle Bible Study: Elaine Heine prepared a youtube link for the May Bible Study <https://youtu.be/20lkIiNdDU8>. She's looking for a couple women who want to zoom with her for the June Bible Study. Email: DHeine3@cfl.rr.com telephone: Elaine (215-7928)

Here are a few ideas of how we can stay connected.

1. Have you thought of doing a Zoom knitting and crocheting meeting. Sign into Zoom, see each other, talk, and knit and crochet together. A fun way to stay connected.
2. What about a Zoom lunch?? Make your favorite sandwich and invite a few friends to join you for lunch.
3. If you have a secret pal, make sure you are sending them a card or a note or a little gift at least once a month. If you don't have a Secret Pal, pick someone in the Congregation and send them a card or something once a month. Remember sign the card "From your Secret Pal". Remember not to put your return address on the envelope. The sender is Secret!!

WELCA received a Thank You note from Holmes Regional Hospital, thanking us for the Face Masks we donated to the Hospital.

WELCA would like to invite the congregation to be part of the "Good Gifts/Farm Animals" project. Goats, piglets, chicks, family farm combination (cow, 2 piglets, 2 goats, chicks). The fundraiser is headed up by WELCA.

WELCA would like to purchase a full farm (one cow, 2 piglets, 2 goats, and some chicks) or some individual animals as well as bumble bees. Donations may be designated to Good Gifts/Farm Animals and included with your regular offering. The closing date is June 28

Even though the school year has ended, please remember this important outreach program.

BACKPACK PROGRAM "BREAD OF LIFE" BACKPACK PROGRAM

The "Bread of Life" backpack program for Turner Elementary School is a wonderful outreach to our community. So, please be generous in your monetary donations, as we provide food for as many as seven families each weekend. The cost is approximately $175 per week.

Thank you everyone for your donations and helping with the packing and delivery of the backpacks.

See Charlotte Abrahams for any further details concerning this great outreach program.
