Sunday School is back in session. We can always use additional teachers. The materials are supplied to you and are very easy to follow. Because we rotate months, you do not have to teach more than 3 times during the year. Please pray about becoming a Sunday School teacher.

NOTE: Children are dismissed for "Children's Education Time" following the Pastor's "Kid's Talk", and return prior to Communion.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

We have realized that the announcements have been getting longer and longer and cutting into our worship time. In order to cut down on the announcement time we ask that you do the following:

- 1- If you have monthly meeting or events
coming up, please add it to the calendar in the office. Brenda will then put it in the Sunday Bulletin.
- 2- If you have a new announcement, please write or type it out and give it to Pastor Bryant before the service. He will then make the announcement for you.

Thanks for your help in this! We have lots going on at Joy and want to make sure everyone is aware of our events!

Friends,

October is "Stewardship Month." So, let's start with a newflash---GOD DOESN'T NEED OUR MONEY AND STUFF! God isn't needy, greedy, or found wanting. God creates by Word, has no needs ever.

Consider Psalm 50:12---"If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world and all that is in it is mine." God essentially says, "I wouldn't come to you if I had a need." God desires us to be awed by all God is and does and to respond accordingly. God doesn't need our money or anything else.

Consider King David in II Samuel 7. David puts his money toward God's kingdom, for David realizes that what God builds is more valuable and lasting than what David builds. David gives to God not because God is in need, but because David sees God's doings as having more value.

David is awed by God and responds through gratitude. When David seeks land for the Temple's construction, David refuses to receive land or oxen as the landowner's gift, saying, "No, but I will buy them from you for a price; I will not offer burnt-offerings to the Lord my God that cost me nothing." So, David buys the threshing-floor and oxen for fifty shekels of silver." (II Samuel 24:18-15) From the depths of his heart, David responds in extravagant gratitude.

Some gifts are valuable for the good they do; other gifts expose the giver's heart, declaring what value they ascribe to God. An estimated 3.54 million people annually visit what became the Temple that David sought to offer God out of his heart's gratitude. David is grateful to God because of what he'd seen God do, how much more should we be grateful to God? David is blessed to be involved in building the Temple, whereas we have been blessed to be encountered and received by the One whose Temple it is.

Feeling grateful yet? Want to pour yourself out to God in gratitude? Ponder your gifts given through the Church to your God, over the last year. What would they say about God's value to you?

David used his money and stuff as God led him. We often overlook the Holy Spirit's work in giving. Consider biblical stories of giving, and you'll find where, "God stirred up so-and-so's heart to give." In Haggai 1:14, God stirs up Zerubbabel to go and work on the Temple. In 2 Corinthians 9, where God's Spirit moves through St. Paul to stir up Corinthian Christians to give lavishly so that, "great generosity...will produce thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God."

Giving is the Spirit-led business of God stirring our heart to listen and to obey as God directs. Is it possible that we don't give as we ought because we ignore the Spirit's leadings? Yet, what if it is something more?

The Rev. Dr. David Jeremiah says, "I sometimes think the reason a lot of us don't know what to give God is because we've simply never asked God what God wants us to give."

Ever asked God what portion of God's stuff that you steward for God, does God desire that you joyfully release back to God through God's Church? When was the last time that you directly asked God in prayer what God wants you to give? If there is no last time, why not make this your first time?

Peace,
JDB+

Bryant Brothers in Africa

These days, the Bryant brothers are busily learning African languages. Sean is in Tanzania, serving outside of the city of Arusha. A circuitous journey led him from Chicago to South Africa, South Africa to Swaziland, Swaziland back to South Africa, then to Tanzania via Kenya.

He is becoming accustomed to long hours spent mastering Swahili. He is becoming accustomed to how differently time is both perceived and managed. He is even becoming accustomed to vastly different styles of food. But, the thing to which he struggles to become accustomed is the monkey tribe that lives near his residence hall. During the days he likes them very well, but at night, when he hears them but cannot see them, he is terrified.

Once he masters Swahili, and whether he becomes accustomed to the monkeys or not, he will begin working in a clinic to assist in AIDS education and prevention.

This is a grand adventure. Feel free to join it via Sean's blog:

blessedarethepureinspirit.wordpress.com

Stephen is in Rwanda teaching English. He awakens each morning to the sounds from minarets calling faithful Muslims to begin prayer. This gets him rolling at 5AM.

A short walk takes him through open air markets to the school where he serves. He is getting used to the multiple languages spoken in his neighborhood. So far he is learning Kinyarwanda but has to pick up and use other words and phrases from other languages to do things like go shopping.

Many children cannot believe that someone so old as Stephen (almost 22 yrs old) is unmarried, has no children, or is not in a serious relationship. In their local culture, many are already married and starting a family before age 21. One child, teasingly but honestly, asked him, "Does no one want you? Is this why you are not married?"

Things go very well for him. Feel free to join his journey via his blog:

The photos here are of the monkeys at Sean's residence and students in Stephen's class. Young Adults in Global Missions makes amazing differences in God's world. Check out their blogs if you'd care to learn more. And, thanks for your love, prayers, and support!

“Experiencing the Joy of Generosity”

A Three-week Stewardship Emphasis

As we celebrate stewardship, during the month of October, consider your response. The emphasis will be on “Receiving, Managing, and Sharing God’s Blessings”.

Keep in mind, that God is the Creator and Owner of all things, and along with the good gift of life, He entrusts resources to each person, including time, talents, relationships, and abilities. With every gift of God comes the responsibility to be a faithful steward of those resources.

As you pray about your response, you might be reminded of this offertory prayer:

Merciful Father, we offer with joy and thanksgiving what you have first given us-our selves, our time, and our possessions, signs of your gracious love. Receive them for the sake of him who offered himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Daylight Savings Time Ends NOVEMBER 4.

(Early Reminder)

Wednesdays Together

“Wednesdays Together”, a joint evening prayer service at Blessed Redeemer Episcopal (1225 DeGroodt Road SW, Palm Bay, FL) on the 3rd Wednesday in October (October 17th at 6pm). Refreshments follow. A purpose of this joint worship venture is to celebrate and deepen ministry partnership and relationship. From this space, maybe God will invite us to do more joint ministry together.

In 1999, the ELCA entered into full communion with The Episcopal Church. “Called to Common Mission: A Lutheran Proposal for a Revision of the Concordat of Agreement” is the document that describes that relationship.

In the introduction to “Called to Common Mission” there is an important statement about the spirit of this agreement: “Our churches have discovered afresh our unity in the gospel and our commitment to the mission to which God calls the church of Jesus Christ in every generation. ... Our search for a fuller expression of visible unity is for the sake of living and sharing the gospel. Unity and mission are at the heart of the church’s life, reflecting an obedient response to the call of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

“OCTOBER FEST”

Join the fun

Saturday, October 20th at 5:30pm October Fest catered by Sonny's Barbecue.

The cost is $10.00 per person and children under 10 are free.

MORTGAGE BURNING

The day has finally arrived. Thank you to our Joy Family.

On Sunday October 28th, a Mortgage Burning Ceremony will be held after the church service.

This will be followed by light refreshments.

“I have held many things in my hands, and I have lost them all. But whatever I have placed in God’s hands, that I still possess.” Martin Luther (1483-1546)

Musical Notes from "Pilgrim Journey"

Blessings to all at JOY church from the members (and friends) of Pilgrim Journey.

My last message in this space talked about Pilgrim Journey continuing to offer "Rockin' Praise and Worship" on the last Saturday of the month and stepping down from Sunday morning. We will continue to do this while helping to build up a contemporary worship experience at JOY. Al Kongsjord still serves on the Worship and Music committee and both he and Angela will be contributing to the planning needed to build another worship experience.

On August 25 Dennis French played with us for the last time. He and his wife Bonnie will be moving to Canada soon. We will miss his spirit and certainly his wonderful guitar playing. It is our hope that Dennis and Bonnie will be "snow birds" and we WILL see and hear

This will cause the flavor of the band to change. Guitar is key to much of the music that we play and we will not "do without" a good guitar player. Please pray with us that we will find a perfect fit. Meanwhile, Bruce Marion (owner and operator of Marion Music in Palm Bay) will be playing guitar when he is available.

Meanwhile, Saturday night "Praise and Pizza," instituted by Pastor Ludder, continues as usual. For those who do not realize it, this fellowship following the service, allows people to bring any beverage of their choice that they wish to have with their pizza. This time of fellowship, in good taste, is a ministry tool.

The casual atmosphere of "Praise and Pizza," and the genuine hospitality expressed by our people, contributed to a couple seeking a church in their own neighborhood. Hospitality and a relaxed atmosphere are a power tool combo. Once, God drew people to Jesus at a wedding feast by prompting Jesus through Mary, his mother, to have him turn 80-ish gallons of water into wine. God is always at work to draw people to Jesus. And, God uses all sorts of ways and tools to inspire faith, to empower people to receive Jesus Christ.

May the blessings of God in Christ Jesus be yours. See you at the end of the month for "Rockin' Praise and Worship"

WELCA displayed the many beautiful handmade quilts going to Lutheran World Relief. The congregation donated $306.00 in specially marked envelopes – THANK YOU ALL.
