

SAVVY THE INTERO

Producer Clayton Cortez | Writer Rita Usher

Logline: A teenage girl was given psychic abilities and powers to stop Dr. Corruption while being an intern at a local police department. She is being underestimated in her ability to stop crime, but yet she seems to overcome all obstacles with her supernatural abilities while stopping Dr. Corruption.

Synopsis: A young teenager, named Savvy, was given psychic abilities and powers to stop Dr. Corruption. With her powers, she has the ability to see a glimpse of the future, thus knowing what Dr. Corruption is planning next to hurt mankind. She becomes an intern at a local police department. However, she realizes that her fellow officers do not believe in her abilities to fight crime. She is always being underestimated by her co-workers, but she proves them wrong every time while stopping Dr. Corruption.

Savvy's mission is always dangerous, full of excitement, and adventure as she uses her psychic abilities and powers to stop Dr. Corruption. The world is in the hands of Savvy, the Intern, with her sidekick, Clover, the talking dog, as they put a stop to Dr. Corruption's evil plans.

The Creator – Clayton Cortez

Savvy the Intern is the first 2D animation created and produced by Clayton Cortez Studios, targeting children from the ages of 5 to 12. According to Cortez, “It is important to showcase different genders and ethnicities in popular children’s animated series, like Savvy the Intern. This animation showcases women in a positive light as they have the powers and abilities to overcome any problems. This animation is important because there is a lack of leading female superheroes in today’s animation.”

To learn more about Clayton Cortez visit www.ClaytonCortez.com or e-mail ClaytonCortez@gmail.com.

Creator & Producer
Clayton Cortez

The Writer – Rita Usher

Ritta supports and believes in women's' rights, equality, and empowering women. This animation, Savvy the Intern, showcases a woman of color's beauty who is smart, powerful, and unstoppable.

Ritta is the founder of F.L.Y (First Love Yourself) Girl Mentoring Program.

She strives to encourage women of all ages and ethnicities.

Writer
Rita Usher

Q & A with Clayton

What is your biggest challenge in making this animation?

The biggest challenge for me was learning to animate. I wanted to challenge myself and my production company to step out of the box of creating live production, and learn something new, like animation.

What are your goals for this animation?

My goals for this animation are to promote social change and promote positive thinking. It is my job as a producer to create opportunities and stories that can be useful to society and this world.