

Evangelist Joan Pearce

...was radically saved in 1977. Shortly after her conversion, God moved her to Washington state, where she met the daughter and son-in-law of the late Dr. John G. Lake,

Wilford and Gertrude Right. They were a great inspiration to Joan in her life, and they disciplined her. God asked Joan to step out and do a weekly Bible study, even though she couldn't read. Gertrude encouraged her to do the Bible study, and because of Joan's obedience, God supernaturally taught her to read. Joan went on to complete Bible College, and afterwards became an ordained minister.

Today, Joan continues this ministry along with her husband Marty. Together they are doing "God is Taking the City" campaigns, church and tent revivals and church and city-wide crusades where thousands come to Jesus and are filled with the Holy Spirit. They teach the "Holy Ghost School of Evangelism" and hold "Holy Spirit Miracle services," where they see many great notable and creative miracles. They have a heart to feed and clothe the needy that are drawn to the meetings.

Dr. Joan Pearce is on TV and radio across the US, and can be seen on her website, www.joanpearce.org

Together with her husband Marty, they truly are fulfilling the great commission to: "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel."
