

Greetings everyone,

I would like to start by saying; it has been a roller coaster year and a half. The TCSA board members met on June 22, 2021 On Zoom and the conference is still on for October in Waco, Texas, (minutes can be found on the TCSA website). The board members made the necessary arrangements for the upcoming conference and was able to negotiate a rate of $110.00 per night. These rooms will be held for the TCSA members until October 4, 2021. Reservation can be made by calling the hotel and referencing the TCSA 2021 conference.

McLennan County CSCD will be hosting the 25th Annual Texas Community Service Association Conference, led by Ashley Cureton. The conference dates will be October 24th -27th of 2021. We are excited to have several speakers make the conference an educational and enjoyable conference. As part of our conference we welcome you to bring any unique items from your county for the silent auction and door prizes. These items can be made by your county or donated by local retailers/vendors.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at the conference and hope that you will join us. Detailed information is provided within this newsletter for your convenience. You are welcomed to visit our website at www.texascommunityservice.com and to find our group on Facebook for updated information regarding the conference.

Respectfully,

David L Peters

TCSA President
