

1989: Baku, Azerbaijan

Unknown day of February, late evening

Source: Ali Ahberdiyev, Chairman of the Baku club of anomalous phenomena.

Article in “UFOs-Liaisons of the Universe” # 5 of 1994

Right: The terminal station – Left; sketches of the humanoid

Shamil Aliev, a local mechanic employer for the Bakmetropolitan (underground subway), while walking near the deposit terminal metro station, near the outskirts of the city, accidentally stumbled upon a huge humanoid entity about 6 or 7 meters tall. The entity was of Cyclopean nature, and its only eye emanated a red glow. The frightened witness quickly fled from the area.

Reliability evaluation:

very low

possible error of evaluation; one witness only

