

Club 40 Pylon race results, Sunday, July 27th 2025.

We held our Spring makeup race on the last Sunday in July. The thermometer read around 75 degrees at race time, but the humidity was equally high, creating a humid atmosphere, almost fog, making seeing the planes a challenge. We fielded eight pilots, but unfortunately, Angelo's plane suffered an elevator control linkage failure on his warm-up flight and ended his day. Frank and Larry were lapping the field using a 9-9 E prop. The rest of us were running 9-7.5 props, and there was a noticeable difference in performance. Skip joined the race with his glow plane and by the last heat he proved that they are competitive. The E planes definitely have an edge, especially when piloted by the front-runners. The main heat was half way thru when Larry's plane clipped the ground.
