

8 Ways

To Make Your Home Look Expensive

You know that feeling when you enter someone's house and everything looks so perfectly styled, each piece seems placed on purpose, and it all feels so upscale and expensive?

It doesn't matter if your home is mostly furnished with Ikea pieces because there are so many little tweaks that can help you achieve that sophisticated look!

Let's start with these alternatives to make your home look expensive!

#1

OVERSIZED & FRAMED

Framing an oversized photo or artwork is such an easy and quick way to transform your home.

#2

FRESH FLOWERS

Nothing says fancy as fresh cut flowers! You can go for a bright bouquets or just one simple elegant monstera leaf.

#3

TEXTURED & LAYERED
PILLOWS

If you want to achieve that upscale look, always opt for nice textured pillows. Velvet and raw cotton are the best!

#4

SWAP THE SOAP BAR

Fancy toiletries immediately give your bathroom that expensive look. If you don't want to spend a fortune, you can use coordinated soap holders like unmarked brown glass holders.

#5

STEP UP YOUR BEDDING
GAME

High-quality linens and beddings not only look awesome but they also improve your sleep quality. Look for natural, breathable materials.

#6

LAY IT ON A TRAY

Like photography, you have to create great compositions. Things look classier and styled when laid on a flat surface. That is why trays are fantastic décor pieces! Coffee table books work just as well.

#7

FANCY PLANTERS

Have any of those ugly plastic pots holding your plants? Ditch them and go for something more sophisticated such as brass or concrete planters. If that is out of your budget, there are tons of brass spray paint options out there. Pick your favorite and get creative!

#8

SWITCH OUT HARDWARE

A simple yet effective way to dramatically change the appearance of your furniture, such as cabinets and dressers, is by updating the knobs and handles.
