

25th Sunday After Pentecost

November 14th, 2021

*Do you see all these great buildings?...
Not one stone here will be left on another;
every one will be thrown down.*

AS WE GATHER

Like the disciples of old, we look around us and presume that our accomplishments will endure. But even now, they are falling, brick upon brick. There is no repairing a world that must be replaced by a new heaven and a new earth. The urgent need is not to predict when these things will happen, but to endure when they do come. The world is in labor until God delivers His eternal kingdom, but you are not of the world. You belong to the Lord. Through your witness, the elect of many nations will be called by the Spirit through the preaching of the Word. The world will reject you, but you belong to God. He who endures in this faith to the end will be saved.

The Lutheran Hour Sermon Schedule

November 14 "Jesus Keeps Filling"

Speaker: Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler

In one way or another, we are all broken, cracked vessels. Life leaks out, but Jesus keeps filling.

(2 Samuel 14:14)

November 21 "Between Now and Eternity There Is Much to Do!"

Guest Speaker: Rev. Hector Hoppe

In Christ, God forgives our past and secures our future. Dr. Hector Hoppe says, here in the present, there is much we can do.

(Jude 1:20-25)

November 28 "A Response to the Problem of Evil"

Speaker: Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler

Why does God let evil happen? Will that question take us down the path of doubt or lead us to trust God more deeply?

(Luke 1:1-4)
