Hudspeth Family Tree

Lewis C. Hudspeth, born 1809 in Kentucky & Sara (last name not known), born 1820 in Tennessee[a]

Unknown son, born 1835

John F. born 1837 & Lucy J. _____(name unknown)

The children of John & Lucy Hudspeth:

Abijah W., born in 1839	Margaret J., born in 1864
William A., born in 1843	Amos O., born in 1866
Amos W., born in 1845	Frances M., born in 1870
Nancy Ellen, born in 1847	Drucilla, born in 1872
Lucinda J., born in 1849	Lewis L., born in 1875
James Lewis, born in 1852	JOSEPH DEREMIAH (JD), BORN IN 1877[B]
Jeremiah, born in 1857	Rebecca E., born in 1879
John A., born in 1860

The children of J.D. & Minerva Hudspeth:

Mabel J.	b:1904	m: 1931; George Nagel	d: Sep 1993
Goldie M	b: 1907	m: 1934, Lee Evans	d: May 1978
John M	b: 1909	m: 1932, Floreine Powell)	d: April 1983
	Ron Roger Anne (Gary Jackson) Susan (?) John Jr.
Claude T.	b: 1910	m: 1936, Ruth Reynolds	d: October 1992
	Claudia Loveland
Clarence H.	b: 1912	m: 1933, Ruth Elliott	d: Jan 1988
	Robert L. Glen A. Barbara (Perkins)
Jule[c]	b: 1915	m: (????) Frank Coffmann	still living
Fred E.	b: 1916	m: 1938, Margaret Harlan[d]	d: Dec 1992
	Barry (deceased) Allen GlenEllen		d: 2004
Lloyd	b: 1919	m: 1941, Telia Houk	d: Sep 1967
	Joe Bill Larry (living in Long Beach, CA) Beth (Turner) Betty (Hanan)

a.   Based on the above factual information it can be assumed that Lewis & Sara had more than two children but that information has not been recovered.

b.   Died March 1960; married & Minerva Jane Robinson, born in 1900s, died 1975.

c.   This is the spelling on the birth certificate.

d.   In bend, January 25, 1938.

The front cover of the company's newsletter.

Dates of publication not established.

Various people sent me photocopies of various issues; the collection is far from complete.

Initially the newsletter was for employees but over time it evolved into a sales tool addressed to potential buyers of lumber.

Fred Hudspeth. Scanned from an issue of the Pine Journal.